

Elise Chamberlain
Portland
LD2052

I believe that it is my right as an American and a resident of Maine to have the option of how to consume my nicotine. I quit smoking cigarettes as well as alcohol a year and a half ago and the only thing i partake in is juuling. I don't believe the government should intervene if over the age of 18 or 21, if the option to drink alchohal still exists.