The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Knox, Representative Kinney.

Representative KINNEY: Thank you, Madam Speaker. Madam Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I am pleased to be able to stand this morning to recognize my hometown of Knox and also our next-door neighbor, Thorndike, which was Sentiment 5-7, on their 200th birthday.

These towns have been joined by more than just their birthday. They share a border, a post office, including the zip code, which gets tricky when ordering things online and trying to put in the town. We're fortunate to be ensconced in rural Maine, truly evidenced by the fact that in Knox, the bovine population is greater than the human population. Thorndike is home to our K through 12 complex, Mount View, which from grades six through 12 brings in students from a total of 11 small surrounding towns. Knox is home to many of the sports fields for Mount View on donated land from a very generous member of our town. And this summer, on July 20th, a grand celebration is being planned with a parade, a horse show, which my daughter is really excited about, in an arena donated by the same person who donated the sports fields, a barbecue, and many more fun events for the townspeople to partake. If you want to enjoy a fun drive to the country, you will enjoy our little town with much to offer including a cute little restaurant with great home-cooked food (my favorite is the Reuben sandwich), where even Hugh Jackman, yes, Wolverine, has been to our little town and has enjoyed a meal at the Ridge Top Restaurant.

So, please join me in wishing a happy birthday to the towns of Knox and Thorndike. Thank you.
