An Act Regarding Licensure Testing by the Oil and Solid Fuel Board

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 32 MRSA §2403, first ¶, as amended by PL 1983, c. 553, §38, is further amended to read:

Applicants for a master or journeyman's oil burner technician or master solid fuel burner technician license shall present to the board a written application for examination, containing such information as the board may require, accompanied by the prescribed fee. Examinations ~~shall~~must be in whole or in part in writing, ~~shall~~must be conducted by the board and ~~shall~~must be of a thorough and practical character commensurate with the responsibilities of the type of license applied for. The board shall provide at least one examination site per county and provide for an applicant to take an examination online.

SUMMARY

This bill requires the Oil and Solid Fuel Board to provide at least one license examination site per county and for online examinations for licensure.
