Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and before the summary and inserting the following:

Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §629, as amended by PL 1983, c. 652, §5, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

§ 629. Unfair agreements

1. Work without compensation; return of compensation. A person, firm or corporation may not require or permit any person as a condition of securing or retaining employment to work without monetary compensation or when having an agreement, oral, written or implied, that a part of such compensation should be returned to the person, firm or corporation for any reason other than for the payment of a loan, debt or advance made to the person, or for the payment of any merchandise purchased from the employer or for sick or accident benefits, or life or group insurance premiums, excluding compensation insurance, that an employee has agreed to pay, or for rent, light or water expense of a company-owned house or building. This section does not apply to work performed in agriculture or in or about a private home.

2. Debt. For purposes of this subchapter, "debt" means a benefit to the employee. "Debt" does not include items incurred by the employee in the course of the employee's work or dealing with customers on the employer's behalf, such as cash shortages, inventory shortages, dishonored checks, dishonored credit cards, damages to the employer's property in any form or any merchandise purchased by a customer.

3. Penalty. An employer is liable to an employee for the amount returned to the employer by that employee as prohibited in this section.

4. Deduction of service fees. Public employers may deduct service fees owed by an employee to a collective bargaining agent from the employee's pay, without signed authorization from the employee, and remit those fees to the bargaining agent, as long as:

A. The fee obligation arises from a lawfully executed and implemented collective bargaining agreement; and

B. In the event a fee payor owes any arrears on the payor's fee obligations, the deduction authorized under this subsection may include an installment on a payment plan to reimburse all arrears, but may not exceed in each pay period 10% of the gross pay owed.

Sec. 2. 26 MRSA §963, as enacted by PL 1969, c. 424, §1, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

§ 963. Right of public employees to join or refrain from joining labor organizations

A person may not directly or indirectly interfere with, intimidate, restrain, coerce or discriminate against a public employee or a group of public employees in the free exercise of their rights, given by this section, to voluntarily:

1. Join a union. Join, form and participate in the activities of organizations of their own choosing for the purposes of representation and collective bargaining or in the free exercise of any other right under this chapter; or

2. Not join a union. Refrain from joining or participating in the activities of organizations for the purposes of representation and collective bargaining, except that an employee may be required to pay to the organization that is the bargaining agent for the employee a service fee that represents the employee's pro rata share of those expenditures that are germane to the organization's representational activities.

Sec. 3. 26 MRSA §964, sub-§1, ¶F, as enacted by PL 1969, c. 424, §1, is amended to read:

F. Blacklisting of any employee organization or its members for the purpose of denying them employment;

Sec. 4. 26 MRSA §964, sub-§1, ¶G is enacted to read:

G. Requiring an employee to join a union, employee association or bargaining agent as a member; and

Sec. 5. 26 MRSA §964, sub-§1, ¶H is enacted to read:

H. Terminating or disciplining an employee for not paying union dues or fees of any type.

Sec. 6. 26 MRSA §979-B, as amended by PL 1997, c. 741, §4 and affected by §12, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

§ 979-B. Right of state employees or legislative employees to join or refrain from joining labor organizations; prohibition

A person may not directly or indirectly interfere with, intimidate, restrain, coerce or discriminate against a state or legislative employee or a group of employees in the free exercise of their rights, given by this section, to voluntarily:

1. Join a union. Join, form and participate in the activities of organizations of their own choosing for the purposes of representation and collective bargaining or in the free exercise of any other right under this chapter; or

2. Not join a union. Refrain from joining or participating in the activities of organizations for the purposes of representation and collective bargaining, except that an employee may be required to pay to the organization that is the bargaining agent for the employee a service fee that represents the employee's pro rata share of those expenditures that are germane to the organization's representational activities.

Sec. 7. 26 MRSA §979-C, sub-§1, ¶F, as enacted by PL 1973, c. 774, is amended to read:

F. Blacklisting of any employee organization or its members for the purpose of denying them employment.;

Sec. 8. 26 MRSA §979-C, sub-§1, ¶G is enacted to read:

G. Requiring an employee to join a union, employee association or bargaining agent as a member; and

Sec. 9. 26 MRSA §979-C, sub-§1, ¶H is enacted to read:

H. Terminating or disciplining an employee for not paying union dues or fees of any type.

Sec. 20. Study of dispute resolution regarding representational fees; report. The Maine Labor Relations Board shall study the existing procedures for the resolution of disputes over a union's calculation of its representational fee and report to the Joint Standing Committee on Labor by January 15, 2008 with recommendations and necessary implementing legislation to provide for the resolution of such disputes in a fair and impartial manner by the Maine Labor Relations Board or the State

Board of Arbitration and Conciliation. The committee may submit a bill to the Second Regular Session of the 123rd Legislature regarding resolution of disputes of representational fees imposed by a union as the collective bargaining agent.’

SUMMARY

This amendment specifies that public employees, including state and legislative employees, university, academy and community college employees and judicial employees, may not be required by an employer or other person to join a union, labor organization or bargaining agent and may not be terminated for nonpayment of any service fee. The amendment permits the employer to deduct service fees from the pay of unit members who do not join the union. The amendment further provides that any fee balance owed to the union may be deducted only to the extent that the total deduction for the current fee and arrears installment does not exceed in each pay period 10% of the employee’s gross pay. Finally, the amendment directs the Maine Labor Relations Board to develop recommendations to improve the procedures for resolving disputes over a union’s calculation of its service fee and report those recommendations to the Joint Standing Committee on Labor.
