Fiscal Note

Current biennium cost increase - General Fund

Fiscal Detail and Notes

Requiring the Department of Health and Human Services provide waiver services to all individuals on waitlists for the specified MaineCare waiver programs and for the specified state-only programs would have a significant General Fund cost, with preliminary Department of Health and Human Services estimates indicating annual State costs of more than $45 million per year. The exact number of individuals affected, the timing and availability of services and the cost of the services to be provided cannot be determined at this time.
