3 4 5 6 7 8 9	4. Internet raffle system certification. An Internet raffle operator may not conduct an Internet raffle using an Internet raffle system unless it has been examined, tested and approved by the Gambling Control Unit or certified by an independent testing laboratory approved by the Gambling Control Unit. The Internet raffle system operator must pay the cost of the examination, testing and certification before the examination occurs. To be approved by the Gambling Control Unit or certified by an independent testing laboratory, the Internet raffle system:
10 11 12	A. Must prohibit a person from purchasing a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle unless the person opens a raffle account into which the person deposits the funds used to purchase the chance or ticket;
13 14 15	B. May not permit the use of a credit card to purchase a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle or the extension of credit from the Internet raffle operator to a person who purchases a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle;
16 17 18 19 20 21	C. Must ensure that a person who opens a raffle account or who purchases a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle is at least 18 years of age; must provide for the immediate refund of any payment to purchase a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle made by a person whom the Internet raffle operator discovers is under 18 years of age; and must publish and facilitate the use of parental controls that permit adults to exclude minors from access to the system's mobile applications and electronic platforms;
22 23	D. Must determine and verify that a person who purchases a chance or ticket for an Internet raffle is physically located within the State at the time the purchase is made;
24 25	E. Must select the winning chance or chances in an Internet raffle by means of a cryptographically strong random number generator;
26 27 28	F. Must protect the privacy and security of a raffle account owner's information and all of the raffle account owner's accounts maintained or accessed by the Internet raffle system;
29 30 31 32 33 34	G. Must maintain for at least 3 years after the winner or winners are selected a list of all persons who purchased a chance or ticket for the Internet raffle and the name and contact information of the winner or winners of the Internet raffle; a copy of this list and an exact accounting of all gross revenue from the Internet raffle must be transmitted to the eligible organization on whose behalf the Internet raffle was conducted immediately after the winner or winners are selected; and
35 36	H. Must meet any other requirements established by the Gambling Control Unit by rule.
37	Sec. 12. 17 MRSA §1838, sub-§1, ¶C is enacted to read:
38 39	C. An Internet raffle operator may not be paid more than 10% of the Internet raffle proceeds to operate an Internet raffle on behalf of an eligible organization.'

SUMMARY

2 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, clarifies that an 3 Internet raffle may be operated only by a nonprofit organization that registers with the Department of Public Safety, Gambling Control Unit. The Internet raffle must be 4 conducted by a licensed Internet raffle organization using a mobile application or electronic 5 platform, referred to in the amendment as an Internet raffle system, certified by the 6 7 Gambling Control Unit or an approved independent testing laboratory. A person who 8 purchases an Internet raffle chance or ticket must be at least 18 years of age, must be 9 physically located in the State and must deposit the funds used to purchase the chance or 10 ticket in a raffle account. Credit card purchases and the extension of credit from an Internet raffle operator to a person attempting to purchase an Internet raffle chance or ticket are 11 12 prohibited. Internet raffles may not be marketed to persons under 18 years of age and the 13 Internet raffle system must facilitate the use of parental controls to prevent persons under 14 18 years of age from purchasing Internet raffle tickets or chances. An Internet raffle 15 operator may retain no more than 10% of the Internet raffle proceeds as payment for 16 conducting the Internet raffle.
