

§5073. Extraterritorial jurisdiction; group long-term care insurance

1. Groups other than employer, union, trustee and association groups. A group long-term care insurance policy may not be offered to a resident of this State under a group policy issued in another state to a group other than an employer group as described in section 2804, a labor union group as described in section 2805, a trustee group as described in section 2806 or an association group as described in section 2805-A unless the superintendent has made a determination that the requirements of this chapter have been met.

[PL 1999, c. 292, §2 (NEW).]

2. Trustee groups. Group long-term care insurance may not be offered to an employee of an employer covered under a group policy issued in another state to a trustee group as described in section 2806 if a plurality of the employer's employees are based in this State unless the superintendent has made a determination that the requirements of this chapter have been met.

[PL 1999, c. 292, §2 (NEW).]

3. Association groups. The following applies to group long-term care insurance coverage issued to association groups.

A. Group long-term care insurance coverage may not be offered to a resident of this State under a group policy issued in another state to an association group as described in section 2805-A, other than an association of employers, unless the superintendent has made a determination that the requirements of this chapter have been met. [PL 1999, c. 292, §2 (NEW).]

B. Group long-term care insurance may not be offered to an employee of an employer covered under a group policy issued in another state to an association of employers if a plurality of the employer's employees are based in this State unless the superintendent has made a determination that the requirements of this chapter have been met. [PL 1999, c. 292, §2 (NEW).]
