1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 20-A MRSA §4017 is enacted to read:

3 §4017. Parental rights with regard to education

4 1. Right to access information. A parent is entitled to access all information
5 regarding the school activities of the parent's minor child. A parent is entitled to review all 6 information regarding mental, emotional and physical health care services available at the 7 school the parent's minor child attends as well as all teaching and instructional materials 8 for the parent's minor child, including materials used while that child is participating in 9 virtual or remote learning. A parent is entitled to receive a well-being questionnaire or 10 health screening form before that questionnaire or form is administered to the minor child.
11 Notwithstanding Title 22, section 1908, a parent is entitled to access health care and 12 educational records of the parent's minor child. A parent is entitled to the information in 13 this subsection in a reasonably accessible manner.

14 2. Right to deny participation. A parent is entitled to refuse the parent's minor child's 15 participation in a noneducational or core assignment, activity or service or assignment of 16 material and to request an alternative assignment, activity or service or material.

17 3. Prohibition regarding procedures or forms. The governing body of a school 18 administrative unit may not adopt procedures or student support forms that:

19 A. Prohibit school administrative unit personnel from notifying a parent of a student 20 about that student's mental, emotional or physical health or well-being; or 21 B. Encourage or have the effect of encouraging a student to withhold from the student's 22 parent information described in paragraph A.

23 4. Prohibition regarding personnel. School administrative unit personnel may not 24 discourage or prohibit parental notification of and involvement in critical decisions 25 affecting a student's educational learning or mental, emotional or physical health or well-26 being.

27 5. Exception. This section does not prohibit a school administrative unit from 28 adopting procedures that permit school administrative unit personnel to withhold 29 information from a parent if a reasonably prudent person would believe that disclosure 30 would result in abuse or neglect as defined in Title 22, section 4002, subsection 1 or 31 abandonment as defined in Title 22, section 4002, subsection 1-A.

32 SUMMARY

33 This bill provides that a parent is entitled to access all information regarding the school 34 activities of the parent's minor child; review all information regarding mental, emotional 35 and physical health care services available at the school the parent's minor child attends as 36 well as teaching and instructional materials for the parent's minor child; receive a well-37 being questionnaire or health screening form before that questionnaire or form is 38 administered to the minor child; access health care and educational records of the parent's 39 minor child; and refuse the parent's minor child's participation in a noneducational or core 40 assignment, activity or service or assignment of material and request an alternative 41 assignment, activity or service or material.

1 The bill prohibits the governing body of a school administrative unit from adopting 2 procedures or student support forms that prohibit school administrative unit personnel from 3 notifying a parent of a student about the student's mental, emotional or physical health or 4 well-being or that encourage or have the effect of encouraging a student to withhold this 5 information from the student's parent. It also prohibits school administrative unit personnel 6 from discouraging or prohibiting parental notification of and involvement in critical 7 decisions affecting a student's educational learning or mental, emotional or physical health
8 or well-being. It provides an exception for a school administrative unit to adopt procedures 9 that permit school administrative unit personnel to withhold information from a parent if a 10 reasonably prudent person would believe that disclosure would result in child abuse or 11 neglect or child abandonment.
