15 a merchant is a firearms dealer or whether a transaction involves the sale of firearms
16 or ammunition.

17 C. "Customer" means a person engaged in a payment card transaction that a financial

7 or any other person, other than the owner or owner's representative, may not knowingly 8 and willfully keep or cause to be kept a list, record or registry of a privately owned firearm
9 or any list, record or registry of the owners of that firearm.

10 3. Financial institutions. A financial institution or its agent may not:

11 A. Require the use of a firearms code in a way that distinguishes a firearms dealer
12 located in the State from general merchandise retailers or sporting goods retailers
13 located in the State;

14 B. Discriminate against a firearms dealer by:

15 (1) Declining a lawful payment card transaction based solely on the assignment or 16 nonassignment of a firearms code to the merchant or transaction;

17 (2) Limiting business or declining to do business with a customer, potential 18 customer or merchant based on the assignment or nonassignment of a firearms
19 code to a previous lawful transaction involving the customer, potential customer

22 transaction based on the assignment or nonassignment of a firearms code; or

23 (4) Otherwise taking an action against a customer or merchant that is intended to 24 suppress lawful commerce involving a firearm, a firearm accessory or component

27 ammunition; or

28 C. Except as otherwise required by law, disclose a financial record, including a 29 firearms code that was collected in violation of this section.

30 4. Written notice to cease by Attorney General. The Attorney General may 31 investigate an alleged violation of this section and, upon finding a violation, shall provide 32 written notice to a person believed to be in violation of this section giving the person 30
33 days to cease the violation. Written notice to a commercial entity must be made to the 34 entity's corporate clerk or registered agent or, if there is no corporate clerk or registered
35 agent, a person authorized to accept service of process for the entity. At the Attorney 36 General's discretion, a person may be granted up to an additional 120 days to cease the 37 violation of this section.

38 5. Complaint by firearms dealer or customer. A firearms dealer located within the 39 State whose business is the subject of an alleged violation of this section or a customer who 40 transacted at a firearms dealer located in the State whose business is the subject of an 41 alleged violation of this section may petition the Attorney General to investigate the alleged 42 violation. If the Attorney General does not commence an action within 90 days of receiving 43 a petition pursuant to this subsection, the firearms dealer or customer may file an action in

1 a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin the person allegedly in violation of this section
2 from violating this section.

3 6. Violation. If a person is found to be in violation of this section and fails to comply 4 with this section after the expiration of the period for compliance determined by the 5 Attorney General under subsection 4, the Attorney General shall pursue an injunction
6 against the person. The Attorney General shall pursue the injunction in a court of competent 7 jurisdiction in the judicial district where the alleged violation occurred against the person 8 alleged to be in violation of this section.

9 A. If a court finds that a person continues to be in violation of this section after the 10 expiration of the period for compliance determined by the Attorney General under 11 subsection 4 or after a finding by the court of a violation of this section, the court shall 12 enjoin the person from continuing to violate this section.

13 B. If a person knowingly and willfully fails to comply with an injunction under this 14 section within 30 days after being served with the injunction, the court shall impose a 15 penalty in an amount not to exceed $10,000 per violation. In assessing a penalty under 16 this paragraph, the court shall consider factors including the financial resources of the 17 violation and the harm or risk of harm to another person's rights under the United States
18 Constitution, Amendment II resulting from the violation. An order assessing a penalty 19 for a violation of this section must be stayed pending appeal of the order.

20 C. In addition to the remedies provided in this section, the Attorney General or a 21 petitioner who prevails in an action under this section is entitled to costs, reasonable 22 attorney's fees and any other remedy the court determines appropriate.

23 7. Disclosure of information to federal government entity. It is not a defense to an 24 action filed pursuant to this section that a disclosure of information or other action in 25 violation of this section was made to a federal government entity unless the disclosure or 26 action was based on a good faith conclusion that the disclosure or action was required by 27 federal law or regulation.

28 SUMMARY

29 This bill prohibits keeping or using a list, record or registry of firearms purchases or 30 firearms owners or distinguishing a firearms dealer or discriminating against a firearms
31 dealer by using a product code for firearms or firearms purchases separate from general
32 merchandise or sporting goods retailers in the State. The bill allows the Attorney General
33 or a complainant if the Attorney General fails to act to seek an injunction against a person 34 in violation of the bill's provisions or a penalty up to $10,000 if the injunction is not 35 followed.
