38 provisions of the laws regarding erosion because of human activity, which currently apply
39 only in the organized areas of the State, to the unorganized areas of the State.

40 The bill also clarifies that the Maine Land Use Planning Commission and the 41 Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry, Bureau of Forestry have 42 enforcement authority pursuant to their delegated authority under the Natural Resources 43 Protection Act.
