COMMITTEE AMENDMENT “ ” to H.P. 1179, L.D. 1761, “An Act to Prohibit Indemnification Agreements”

Amend the bill by striking out the title and substituting the following:

'An Act to Prohibit the Transfer of Liability Relating to a Party's Own Negligence or Liability in Contracts'

Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting the following:

'Sec. 1. 10 MRSA c. 201-B is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 201-B

TRANSFER OF LIABILITY PROVISIONS IN CONTRACTS PROHIBITED

§1120-E. Transfer of liability provisions in contracts prohibited

1. Transfer of liability provisions void and unenforceable. A provision or agreement in a contract that purports to transfer or has the effect of transferring to another party liability for negligence arising out of a party's own negligence or liability for a party's own liability arising out of an intentional act or omission is void and unenforceable.

2. Additional insured not prohibited. This section does not prohibit an agreement from including any party as an additional insured in an insurance policy.

3. Exception. This section does not affect the validity of:

A. An insurance policy for workers' compensation or any other insurance policy or agreement issued by an insurer authorized to engage in the business of insurance in this State;

B. A surety bond issued by an entity authorized to engage in the business of acting as a surety in this State; or
