12 SUMMARY

13 This bill amends the Maine Bail Code by specifying certain conditions of a violation 14 of a condition of release that remain a Class E crime and specifying that certain violations 15 of conditions of release, including crimes against a family or household member, sexual 16 assault or violations of protective orders, are Class E crimes, unless the underlying crime 17 was punishable by a maximum period of imprisonment of one year or more and certain 18 conditions of release are violated, in which case it is a Class C crime. This bill also amends
19 the provisions in the Maine Criminal Code involving situations when a law enforcement
20 officer may make a warrantless arrest and prohibits a warrantless arrest for certain Class D
21 or Class E crimes when it is feasible to issue a summons.
