SUMMARY

This amendment modifies Committee Amendment "A" to provide that, if an employer inquires about a prospective employee's criminal history record information during an interview or once the employee has been determined otherwise qualified, the employer must afford the prospective employee an opportunity to explain the information and the circumstances regarding any conviction, including post-conviction rehabilitation. The

HOUSE AMENDMENT

1 amendment removes a provision that provides a prospective employee with the opportunity
2 to explain criminal history record information in certain circumstances.
