35 SUMMARY

36 This amendment removes those provisions of Committee Amendment "A" that specify 37 the type of physical restraint that may be used and removes the prohibition on the use of 38 seclusion. Instead, this amendment allows physical restraint and seclusion to be used only 39 as an emergency intervention when the behavior of a student presents a risk of injury or 40 harm to the student or others and only in accordance with rules adopted by the Department
41 of Education. This amendment provides specific authority to the department to adopt rules

1 regarding the use of physical restraint and seclusion and requires the rules adopted by the 2 department to be substantially the same as the department's current rule regarding the use
3 of physical restraint and seclusion. This amendment requires the department's current rule 4 regarding the use of physical restraint and seclusion to remain in effect until the new major 5 substantive rules are approved.

6 This amendment requires the department to convene a stakeholder group to study the 7 use of physical restraint and seclusion in schools and report to the 131st Legislature. It also 8 adds an appropriations and allocations section.
