3 SUMMARY

4 In this summary, the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 30, chapter 601, which is titled AN 5 ACT to Implement the Maine Indian Claims Settlement, enacted by Public Law 1979,
6 chapter 732, is referred to as "the Maine Implementing Act" and the federal Maine Indian 7 Claims Settlement Act of 1980, Public Law 96-420, formerly codified at 25 United States
8 Code, Sections 1721 to 1735, is referred to as "the federal Settlement Act."

9 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, makes the following 10 changes to the bill.

11 1. It amends the definition of "federal Indian law" to mean the United States 12 Constitution and all generally applicable federal statutes, regulations and common law and 13 case law interpreting, implementing, applying or enforcing those federal laws and 14 regulations, and subsequent amendments thereto, relating to the rights, status, privileges, 15 powers, duties and immunities of federally recognized Indian tribes and their members and 16 lands or other natural resources within the United States.

17 2. It incorporates within the Maine Implementing Act the definition of "Houlton Band
18 Trust Land" from the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians Supplementary Claims Settlement
19 Act of 1986, United States Public Law 99-566.

20 3. It amends the definition of "tribal entity" to include a limited liability company and 21 makes other technical changes to the language of the definition for purposes of clarity.

22 4. It defines "Indian territory or trust land" to include, with respect to the 23 Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation, the tribe's or nation's Indian territory and,
24 with respect to the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, Houlton Band Trust Land. This 25 phrase is used throughout the bill and the amendment to describe the lands over which the 26 Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians
27 may exercise rights, powers, duties and immunities similar to those of other federally 28 recognized Indian tribes within the United States.

29 5. It authorizes the United States Secretary of the Interior to acquire land for the benefit
30 of the Passamaquoddy Tribe within Washington County to the same extent that the bill 31 authorizes the secretary to acquire land for the benefit of the Passamaquoddy Tribe within 32 Aroostook County, Franklin County, Hancock County, Penobscot County, Piscataquis
33 County or Somerset County. It also clarifies that, if the Passamaquoddy Tribe requests that 34 the secretary take into trust land that the tribe owns in fee simple on the effective date of 35 the Act, such lands do not become part of Passamaquoddy Indian territory until the land 36 has been placed in trust for the benefit of the tribe by the secretary.

37 6. It provides that the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation and the Houlton 38 Band of Maliseet Indians, as well as their officers and employees, are immune from suit to 39 the same extent as other federally recognized Indian tribes and their officers and employees
40 under federal Indian law.

41 7. It clarifies that, when the tribal courts of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot
42 Nation and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians exercise exclusive or concurrent criminal 43 jurisdiction, the definitions of the criminal offenses and the punishments applicable to those

1 criminal offenses are governed by state law, except that the punishments imposed by a 2 tribal court may not exceed the maximum punishments that a tribal court may impose under 3 25 United States Code, Section 1302(a)(7).

4 8. It makes several technical changes to the tax provisions of the bill to align and ensure 5 consistency between the language of the provisions within the Maine Implementing Act
6 and the language of the provisions within the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 36.

7 9. It provides that the Department of Administrative and Financial Services, Maine
8 Revenue Services may enter into tax revenue-sharing agreements with the Passamaquoddy
9 Tribe, the Penobscot Nation and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians with respect to tax 10 collected on sales on, in, into, from or otherwise sourced to fee lands wholly owned by the 11 tribe, nation or band.

12 10. It increases from 25 to 35 the number of days within which the Passamaquoddy 13 Tribe, the Penobscot Nation or the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians may, after the date of 14 the mailing of a state agency's proposal to develop a rule, legislation or other policy
15 statement or action that may directly and substantially affect that tribe, nation or band, 16 request that the state agency consult with the tribe, nation or band prior to taking the 17 proposed action.

18 11. It increases by a year the deadlines established by the bill for each state agency to 19 adopt tribal consultation policies; for each state agency to designate a tribal liaison; for 20 each state agency to provide its first annual report on tribal consultation; and for the 21 Governor to convene the first annual assembly of the Governor and the chiefs of the 22 Passamaquoddy Tribe, the Penobscot Nation and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians.

23 12. It repeals or repeals and replaces each provision of the Maine Implementing Act
24 that was enacted by Public Law 1981, chapter 675 and provides that, if the Houlton Band
25 Council of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians certifies its agreement to the provisions
26 of this legislation, that agreement constitutes a jurisdictional agreement between the State
27 and the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians for purposes of Section 6(e)(2) of the federal 28 Settlement Act but does not constitute an agreement by the Houlton Band of Maliseet 29 Indians that the provisions of Public Law 1981, chapter 675 ever took effect.

30 The amendment also adds an appropriations and allocations section.
