28 PART E

29 Sec. E-1. 17-A MRSA §257, as amended by PL 2007, c. 476, §3, is repealed.

30 SUMMARY

31 This bill is submitted by the Criminal Law Advisory Commission pursuant to the 32 Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 1354, subsection 2.

33 Part A of the bill authorizes nonconcurrent sentencing when a crime is committed by a 34 convicted person during a stay of execution of any term of imprisonment or after failure to 35 report after a stay of execution of any term of imprisonment. It also authorizes 36 nonconcurrent sentencing when the convicted person is convicted of the crime of failure to 37 report as ordered after a stay of execution of any term of imprisonment.

38 Part B amends Title 17-A, section 2016 to make it consistent with existing law in Title 39 17-A, section 2009 with respect to disposition of funds by correctional facilities when they

1 hold funds for the purposes of restitution and the victim cannot be located. Current Title
2 17-A, section 2016 requires the facility to notify the court and the court to determine
3 distribution of the funds. The bill requires the facility to forward the funds to the Treasurer
4 of State to be handled as unclaimed property, consistent with current Title 17-A, section 5 2009.

6 Part C separates 2 variants of kidnapping, restraining a person with intent to commit 7 bodily injury and restraining a person with intent to commit a sexual assault, which are 8 included in current law in the same provision. This Part amends the Sex Offender
9 Registration and Notification Act of 2013 to clarify that, beginning January 1, 2022,
10 kidnapping with intent to commit sexual assault, and not kidnapping with intent to commit 11 bodily injury, qualifies as a Tier III offense under that Act. This Part also clarifies that, 12 beginning January 1, 2022, kidnapping with intent to commit sexual assault, and not 13 kidnapping with intent to commit bodily injury, renders a person ineligible for interment 14 in the Maine Veterans' Memorial Cemetery System.

15 Part D clarifies that immunity from revocation of probation is limited to the same 16 conduct for which there is immunity from prosecution under the law protecting persons 17 seeking medical assistance or administering naloxone hydrochloride or experiencing a 18 drug-related overdose.

19 Part E repeals a section of law in Title 17-A, chapter 11 on factors aiding in predicting 20 high-risk sex offenders for sentencing purposes, leaving individual risk assessment at 21 sentencing to the judgment of the court.
