39 engage in the practice of pharmacy.

40 3. Limitation on civil liability upon proclamation of civil emergency related to 41 public health. Except as provided in subsection 4, upon a declaration that a health

1 emergency exists pursuant to Title 22, section 802, subsection 2, a declaration of an 2 extreme public health emergency pursuant to Title 22, section 802, subsection 2-A or a
3 declaration of a state of emergency related to public health pursuant to Title 37-B, section 4 742, a covered person or entity is not liable for an injury or death arising from a health care 5 service delivered during the declared emergency as long as:

6 A. The health care service was affected by decisions or activities in response to 7 treatment conditions resulting from the declared emergency; and

8 B. The health care service was within the scope of the license, registration, certification 9 or other documented qualification of the covered person or entity.

10 4. Exception. Subsection 3 does not apply if the injury or death was caused by an act 11 or omission constituting willful, wanton or reckless conduct or by gross negligence of the 12 covered person or entity.

13 Sec. 2. Retroactivity. This Act applies retroactively to March 15, 2020.

14 SUMMARY

15 This bill provides a limitation on civil liability to certain health care professionals, 16 health care facilities, behavioral and developmental services facilities and emergency 17 medical services persons in the event of a declared emergency related to public health. The 18 bill is retroactive to the beginning of the state of civil emergency declared by the Governor 19 in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
