13 9. Retaliation. If a conflict of interest arises for an institution in which a confidential
14 resource advisor is advocating for a reporting party's need for sexual assault support 15 services or campus or local law enforcement agency services, the institution may not 16 discipline, penalize or otherwise retaliate against the confidential resource advisor for 17 representing the interest of the reporting party.

18 10. Privileged communications. Communications between a reporting party and a

20 A. A reporting party may refuse to disclose and may deny permission to a confidential 21 resource advisor to disclose confidential written or oral communications between the 22 reporting party and the confidential resource advisor and any written records, notes, 23 memoranda or reports concerning the reporting party.

24 B. Except as provided in paragraph C, a confidential resource advisor may not be

3 solely for the purpose authorized by this subsection and may not further disseminate the 4 information.

5 12. Cross-examination. Nothing in this section may be construed to limit either
