13 SUMMARY

14 This amendment amends Committee Amendment "A" to incorporate the provisions in

15 Senate Amendment "A" to Committee Amendment "A" that changed:

16 1. From December 31, 2022 to March 1, 2023 the date by which the Department of 17 Health and Human Services must provide an alternative, updated method for rebasing

18 federally qualified health center prospective payment system rates;

19 2. From December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2023 the date after which the department

20 may change the base year used for rebasing federally qualified health center prospective

21 payment system rates;

22 3. From December 31, 2022 to February 1, 2023 the date by which the department must

23 issue final rate letters implementing the reimbursement option chosen by each federally

24 qualified health center; and

25 4. From July 1, 2022 to March 1, 2023 the date on which the reimbursement option

26 chosen by each federally qualified health center is effective.

27 The amendment also strikes and replaces the appropriations and allocations section.
