discharge of their duties. The Chief Judge of the District Court shall determine the salaries of the family law magistrates.

- C. Family law magistrates are governed by the Maine Code of Judicial Conduct. Family law magistrates serve at the pleasure of the Chief Judge of the District Court.
- D. Family law magistrates shall employ appropriate case management techniques and have jurisdiction to hear and dispose of the following matters:
 - (1) Interim orders in actions involving the establishment, modification or enforcement of child support;
 - (2) Interim orders in actions involving divorce, legal separation, parentage or parental rights, including interim orders in postjudgment proceedings arising out of these actions, except that a contested motion concerning interim parental rights and responsibilities, excluding interim child support orders, may be determined by the family law magistrate only if both parties consent to determination of the issue or issues in dispute by the family law magistrate;
 - (2-A) Parental rights and responsibilities and parent-child contact orders entered pursuant to Title 19-A, section 4006, subsection 5 and section 4007, subsection 1, paragraph G to make such orders consistent with subsequently entered orders in matters included in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3);
 - (3) Final orders in any of the matters included in subparagraphs (1) and (2) when the proceeding is uncontested;
 - (4) Final orders in a contested proceeding when child support is the only contested issue;
 - (4-A) Applications for writs of habeas corpus to facilitate the attendance of proceedings by and return of a party who is incarcerated;
 - (4-B) Requests for access to confidential Department of Health and Human Services child protective records in accordance with Title 22, section 4008. The family law magistrate may review records in camera to determine whether to grant access; and
 - (4-C) Except for final prehearing conferences, all pretrial and interim elements of a child protection proceeding brought under Title 22, chapter 1071, including child protection proceedings consolidated in an action brought under Title 19-A; and
 - (5) Other actions assigned by the Chief Judge of the District Court.
- E. Interim orders in any of the matters included in paragraph D, subparagraphs (1), (2) and (2-A) are effective immediately and are subject to de novo review by a judge at the final hearing. Final orders in any of the matters included in paragraph D, subparagraphs (3) and (4) are subject to appellate review in the same manner as any final order of the District Court. The family law magistrate shall inform the parties of the rights of review established in this paragraph.
- F. A family law magistrate has the power to impose punitive and remedial sanctions in a summary proceeding for contempt occurring in the actual presence of the family law magistrate and seen or heard by the family law magistrate. The Maine Rules of - Civil Procedure relating to summary contempt proceedings apply to a family law magistrate exercising the contempt power under this paragraph.

 - G. The Chief Judge of the District Court may allow family law magistrates to wear robes when presiding over any proceeding.
 - H. The Chief Judge of the District Court may employ a retired family law magistrate to serve on a per diem basis as an active retired family law magistrate. An active retired family law magistrate employed pursuant to this paragraph has the same jurisdiction and is subject to the same restrictions as before retirement. An active retired family law magistrate serves at the direction of the Chief Judge of the District Court and is compensated at the per diem rate of $250 per day or $150 per half-day, as long as the total of the per diem compensation and the active retired family law magistrate's state retirement pension received in any calendar year does not exceed the annual salary of a family law magistrate. Active retired family law magistrates are entitled to receive reimbursement for any expenses actually and reasonably incurred in the performance of their duties.
 - Sec. 7. 4 MRSA §183, sub-§2, as enacted by PL 1997, c. 269, §1 and affected by §2, is amended to read:
 - 2. Additional staff. The State Court Administrator shall provide other necessary staff to the Family Division, within the limits of funds available, and shall seek to take full advantage of federal funding, including reimbursements. By August 1, 2024, the State Court Administrator shall provide necessary staff for 24 family law magistrates.
 - Sec. 8. 4 MRSA §183, sub-§5 is enacted to read:
 - 5. Annual training; domestic violence and child abuse issues. The Chief Judge of the District Court shall establish annual training and education designed to inform family law magistrates on domestic violence and child abuse, neglect and maltreatment issues.

26 SUMMARY

This bill increases the number of family law magistrates to 24 by August 1, 2024 and increases related staff. It authorizes family law magistrates to hear and dispose of all interim orders in actions involving divorce, legal separation, parentage or parental rights regardless of whether both parents consent. It authorizes family law magistrates to hear and dispose of all pretrial and interim elements of child protection proceedings, except for final prehearing conferences. It requires the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, the Chief Justice of the Superior Court and the Chief Judge of the District Court to establish annual training and education designed to inform justices, judges and family law magistrates on domestic violence and child abuse, neglect and maltreatment issues.
