Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Hutchinson Center in Belfast was purpose-built to increase access to higher education and workforce development in midcoast communities; and

Whereas, the vast majority of funds expended to build the Hutchinson Center came from donors that were local or had strong midcoast connections; and

Whereas, the University of Maine System has closed the Hutchinson Center and has initiated a process of disposing of the property in a manner that fails to ensure that the facility is used to increase access to education and workforce development; and

Whereas, officials of the City of Belfast have expressed a desire that the property transaction described in this legislation be executed as soon as possible to enable the redevelopment of the Hutchinson Center in a manner that maintains the original mission of the facility; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

- Sec. 1. University of Maine System directed to convey certain land and property in Belfast. Resolved: That, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the University of Maine System shall convey without compensation, by quitclaim deed without covenant, to the City of Belfast in Waldo County the University of Maine System's interest in the parcel of land identified as 80 Belmont Avenue and depicted on the City of Belfast Tax Assessor's tax map 5 as Lot 29 and recorded in the Waldo County Registry of Deeds in Book 3100, Page 236 along with any buildings located on that property, including the building commonly known as the University of Maine Hutchinson Center.
- Sec. 2. City of Belfast to ensure property is used to provide access to education and workforce development. Resolved: That, after the transfer of the property to the City of Belfast under section 1, the City of Belfast shall ensure it is used to provide access to education and workforce development for a minimum of 5 years.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved.

33 SUMMARY

 This resolve directs the University of Maine System to convey to the City of Belfast the University of Maine System's interest in the land and any buildings, including the building commonly known as the University of Maine Hutchinson Center, located at 80 Belmont Avenue in Belfast. After the transfer of the property, the City of Belfast must ensure it is used to provide access to education and workforce development for a minimum of 5 years.
