The trust may expend funds received under paragraphs A and C consistent with the allowable uses of and any criteria or limitations placed upon the expenditure of those funds by the sources of those funds.

Sec. 2. 35-A MRSA §10126, sub-§1, ¶B, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 258, §1 and reallocated by RR 2019, c. 1, Pt. A, §54, is repealed.

Sec. 3. 35-A MRSA §10126, sub-§3, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 258, §1 and reallocated by RR 2019, c. 1, Pt. A, §54, is amended to read:

3. Rebate program established; eligibility. In accordance with the provisions of this section, the trust shall establish and administer a program that provides rebates for the purchase or lease of electric vehicles. A person may apply for and, as resources within the fund allow, receive a rebate for an electric vehicle, subject to eligibility requirements established by the trust. Eligibility criteria for the vehicle must include that the vehicle is: an eligible a battery electric vehicle or plug-in hybrid electric vehicle; purchased, or leased from its original equipment manufacturer or an authorized licensee of the original equipment manufacturer or a licensed automobile dealer for a term of 36 months or more, in the State; and registered in the State, except that a vehicle is not eligible if it has a gross vehicle weight rating of 6,000 pounds or less, is not a truck or an off-road vehicle and has a manufacturer's suggested retail price greater than $50,000. To the extent funds are available, the trust may extend program eligibility to medium duty vehicles and heavy duty vehicles that are battery electric vehicles or plug-in hybrid electric vehicles. Eligibility requirements for the recipient of the rebate must include that the recipient attests to a commitment to retain ownership, whether through purchase or lease, of the eligible electric vehicle for at least 36 months from the date of purchase or lease. The trust may require a recipient of a rebate under this section who does not retain ownership of the eligible electric vehicle for at least 36 months to repay the trust up to the full amount of the rebate.

The trust shall establish the rebate amount for each eligible electric vehicle. The trust shall establish rebate amounts that it determines most effectively increase the purchase of eligible electric vehicles. For each model of an eligible electric vehicle, the trust may establish different rebate amounts based on the size of the vehicle battery. The trust may establish different rebate amounts for the purpose of providing reasonable opportunity for participation in the program across different customer groups and geographic areas. The trust may establish reasonable limits on the number of rebates per vehicle or per person.

Sec. 4. Public Utilities Commission; inquiry regarding establishment of alternative rates to support electric vehicle charging stations. The Public Utilities Commission shall open an inquiry to review alternative rate structures to support electric vehicle charging stations for nonresidential applications, including, but not limited to, for light duty vehicles, medium duty vehicles, heavy duty vehicles and transit and other fleet vehicles.

1. As part of the inquiry, the commission shall direct each transmission and distribution utility in the State to develop and submit by November 1, 2021 one or more proposed rate schedules to support the installation and sustainable operation of existing and new electric vehicle charging stations and shall accept public comment on such rate schedules, including any proposals for such rate schedules, both in advance of and during its review of the proposed rate schedules submitted by each utility. A rate schedule proposed by a transmission and distribution utility must:

A. Be designed to support electric vehicle charging and align with and support relevant strategies of the State's climate action plan adopted and updated under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 577 and to help achieve the State's greenhouse gas emissions reduction levels under Title 38, section 576-A; and

B. Include an evaluation of the relative direct and indirect costs and benefits associated with each proposed rate and must account for varying scenarios of electric vehicle adoption and usage.

2. The commission shall review all proposed rate schedules submitted by transmission and distribution utilities and, using the information provided by the utilities and any other information available to the commission, including any submitted public comments or proposals, shall evaluate the costs and benefits of the proposed schedules and develop recommendations regarding the establishment of alternative rate structures to support electric vehicle charging stations for nonresidential applications. In developing recommendations, the commission shall consider clean transportation recommendations included in the State's climate action plan, as adopted and updated under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 577, or any reports or recommendations issued by a state department or agency relating to clean transportation or electric vehicle infrastructure and use, as well as the results of any completed or ongoing pilot program in the State related to electric vehicle charging.

3. On or before February 15, 2022, the commission shall submit a report to the Joint Standing Committee on Energy, Utilities and Technology regarding its findings from the inquiry under this section and any recommendations, including any proposed legislation, regarding the establishment of alternative rate structures to support electric vehicle charging stations for nonresidential applications. After reviewing the report, the joint standing committee may report out legislation related to the commission's report to the 130th Legislature.

4. No earlier than April 1, 2022, the commission shall approve, approve with modifications or reject a rate schedule proposed by a transmission and distribution utility pursuant to subsection 1 and reviewed by the commission pursuant to subsection 2. If the commission rejects a proposed schedule, the commission may either order the utility to implement a rate schedule established by the commission that meets the requirements of subsection 1 or direct the utility to submit a new proposed schedule that meets the requirements of subsection 1.

H.P. 626 - L.D. 858

An Act To Limit Reincarceration for Persons on Probation

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 17-A MRSA §1809, sub-§1, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 113, Pt. A, §2, is amended to read:

1. Authority of probation officer. If a probation officer has probable cause to believe that a person on probation has violated a condition of that person's probation, that officer may arrest the person or cause the person to be arrested for the alleged violation. If the probation officer cannot, with due diligence, locate the person, the officer shall file a written notice of this fact with the court that placed the person on probation. Upon the filing of that written notice, the court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of that person. This subsection does not apply to a violation of a condition of probation imposed pursuant to section 1807, subsection 2, paragraph I when there is no alleged violation that constitutes a crime, except as set out in section 1814.

Sec. 2. 17-A MRSA §1810, sub-§1, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 113, Pt. A, §2, is amended to read:

1. Authority of probation officer. If a probation officer has probable cause to believe that a person on probation has violated a condition of probation, that officer may deliver to that person, or cause to be delivered to that person, a summons ordering that person to appear for a court hearing on the alleged violation. This subsection does not apply to a violation of a condition of probation imposed pursuant to section 1807, subsection 2, paragraph I when there is no alleged violation that constitutes a crime, except as set out in section 1814.

Sec. 3. 17-A MRSA §1812, sub-§4, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 113, Pt. A, §2, is amended to read:

4. Failure to comply with requirement of probation. If the alleged violation does not constitute a crime and the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person on probation has inexcusably failed to comply with a requirement imposed as a condition of probation, it may revoke probation. This subsection does not apply to a violation of a condition of probation imposed pursuant to section 1807, subsection 2, paragraph I when there is no alleged violation that constitutes a crime, except as set out in section 1814.

Sec. 4. 17-A MRSA §1812, sub-§6, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 113, Pt. A, §2, is amended to read:

6. Authority of court finding violation of probation. Upon a finding of a violation of probation, the court may vacate all, part or none of the suspension of execution as to imprisonment or fine specified when probation was granted, considering the nature of the violation and the reasons for granting probation. The remaining portion of the sentence for which suspension of execution is not vacated upon the revocation of probation remains suspended and is subject to revocation at a later date. During the service of that portion of the sentence imposed for which the suspension of execution was vacated upon revocation, the running of the period of probation must be interrupted and resumes again upon release. If the court finds a violation of probation but vacates none of the suspended sentence, the running of the period of probation resumes upon entry of that final disposition. The court may nevertheless revoke probation and vacate the suspension of execution as to the remainder of the suspended sentence or a portion thereof for any criminal conduct committed during the service of that portion of the sentence for which the suspension of execution was vacated upon revocation. This subsection does not apply to a violation of a condition of probation imposed pursuant to section 1807, subsection 2, paragraph I when there is no alleged violation that constitutes a crime, except as set out in section 1814.

Sec. 5. 17-A MRSA §1814, as enacted by PL 2019, c. 113, Pt. A, §2, is amended to read:

§1814. Additional conditions in lieu of probation revocation proceedings

Whenever a probation officer has probable cause to believe that a person under the supervision of that probation officer has violated a condition of probation but the violation does not constitute a crime, the probation officer, instead of commencing a probation revocation proceeding under section 1809 or section 1810, may offer to the person the option of adding one or more of the following conditions to the person's probation:

1. Participation in public restitution program or treatment program. The person will participate in a public restitution program or treatment program ~~administered through a correctional facility or county jail in the community; or~~ and

~~2. Residence at correctional facility or county jail. The person will reside at a correctional facility or county jail for a period of time not to exceed 90 days.~~

3. Graduated sanction. The person will comply with a graduated sanction, which may not consist of incarceration.

Notwithstanding other provisions in this subchapter, a probation officer may arrest a person for a violation of a condition imposed pursuant to section 1807, subsection 2, paragraph I and may commence probation revocation proceedings if that officer has probable cause to believe that the person has committed a violation of the condition and determines there is a significant risk to the safety of others or the person that cannot be managed through a noncustodial response.

If the person agrees in writing to the additional conditions under subsection 1 or ~~2~~ 3, the conditions must be implemented. If the person does not agree or if the person fails to fulfill the additional conditions to the satisfaction of the probation officer, the probation officer may commence probation revocation proceedings under section 1809 or 1810 for the violation that the probation officer had probable cause to believe occurred. If the person fulfills the additional conditions to the satisfaction of the probation officer, the probation officer shall so notify the person in writing and the probation officer may not commence probation revocation proceedings for the violation that the probation officer had probable cause to believe occurred.

An Act To Prohibit Offshore Wind Power Development in Territorial Waters and Submerged Lands of the State

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, development of offshore wind power projects, particularly those which deploy deep-water, floating platform technology, in suitable locations off Maine's coast may provide significant economic and environmental benefits to the State by generating renewable energy needed to achieve the goals and objectives of the State's climate action plan adopted pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 577 and related state economic and environmental goals and objectives developed by the Maine Climate Council pursuant to Title 38, section 577-A; and

Whereas, the siting, construction and operation of offshore wind power projects in Maine's territorial waters, as defined by Title 12, section 6001, subsection 48-B, may adversely affect resources, including scenic and aesthetic resources, and recreational and economic uses, including commercial fishing, which are more commonly found or take place in the State's submerged lands and territorial waters than in proximate federal waters; and

Whereas, Maine's renewable, natural resources-based commercial fishing industry contributed direct revenues of $517 million to the State's economy in 2020 and is a vital part of the State's economy and cultural heritage and identity; and

Whereas, Maine's lobster fishery is active primarily in Maine's territorial waters, had landings valued in excess of $405 million in 2020, had an additional statewide economic impact of $1 billion and is among the most valuable fisheries in the United States; and

Whereas, there are outstanding questions regarding the manner in and extent to which the siting, construction and operation of offshore wind power projects may displace or otherwise adversely affect natural resources within and uses of the State's submerged lands and territorial waters; and

Whereas, it is anticipated that the growth and development of the offshore wind power industry in the Northeast region and elsewhere in the United States over the next decade will provide additional information through project-specific studies, research findings, monitoring results and operational experience that may assist the State in evaluating the siting and development of new offshore wind power projects in the State's submerged lands and territorial waters; and

Whereas, a moratorium on the development of offshore wind power projects will allow the State to undergo a review of applicable state laws and rules to determine whether the existing offshore wind power regulatory framework adequately protects Maine's coastal resources in a manner that avoids or minimizes adverse effects on coastal resources and uses; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 35-A MRSA §3404, sub-§3 is enacted to read:

3. Wind energy development; impacts to fisheries. If, in reviewing a proposed commercial lease for a wind energy development for any purpose other than scientific research or technological development to be located in federal waters within lobster management area 1, the United States Department of the Interior, Bureau of Ocean Energy Management determines that the wind energy development would have a significant adverse impact on fisheries, the State shall request that the Bureau of Ocean Energy Management work to minimize that impact.

For the purposes of this subsection, "wind energy development" has the same meaning as in section 3451, subsection 11 and "lobster management area 1" means the area defined by rule by the Department of Marine Resources.

Sec. 2. 35-A MRSA §3405 is enacted to read:
§3405. Prohibition on offshore wind power projects in territorial waters and submerged lands

1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

A. "Associated facilities" has the same meaning as in section 3451, subsection 1.

B. "Offshore wind energy demonstration project" has the same meaning as in Title 38, section 480-HH, subsection 1, paragraph H.

C. "Offshore wind power project" means an offshore project that uses a windmill or wind turbine to convert wind energy to electrical energy. "Offshore wind power project" includes both generating facilities as defined by section 3451, subsection 5 and associated facilities, without regard to whether the electrical energy is for sale or use by a person other than the generator.

D. "Pilot-scaled, limited duration offshore wind power research and development project" means an offshore project that uses a wind turbine to convert wind energy to electrical energy, has a generating capacity of no more than 0.5 megawatts and is operational for no more than 5 years.

E. "Submerged lands" has the same meaning as in Title 12, section 1801, subsection 9.

F. "Territorial waters" has the same meaning as in Title 12, section 6001, subsection 48-B.

2. Prohibition. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary and except as otherwise provided by subsection 3, a state agency or municipality or other political subdivision of the State may not license, permit or otherwise approve or authorize the siting, construction or operation of or issue a lease or grant an easement or other real property interest for a windmill or wind turbine or tower for an offshore wind power project in state-owned submerged lands or territorial waters.

3. Exemption. The prohibition established under subsection 2 does not apply to:

A. A pilot-scaled, limited-duration offshore wind power research and development project;

B. An offshore wind energy demonstration project and its associated facilities proposed for location in the Maine Offshore Wind Energy Research Center designated by the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry pursuant to Title 12, section 1868 and for which, prior to the effective date of this section, the commission has approved the terms of a long-term power purchase agreement. Subsequent amendment of the terms of such an agreement does not affect the applicability of this exemption;

C. The licensing, permitting or approval by a state agency or municipality or other political subdivision of the State of the siting, construction or operation of or the issuance of a lease or the grant of an easement or other real property interest for portside infrastructure or associated facilities other than utility cables or transmission lines governed by paragraph D that are intended to support generation of electricity from offshore wind energy facilities located seaward of the territorial waters; and

D. The licensing, permitting or approval by a state agency or municipality or other political subdivision of the State of the siting, construction or operation of or the issuance of a lease or the grant of an easement or other real property interest for utility cables or transmission lines that are intended to support generation of electricity from offshore wind energy facilities located seaward of the territorial waters if, by March 1, 2023:

(1) The Governor's Energy Office has completed a strategic plan to inform the development of offshore wind power projects that minimizes conflict with existing maritime industries, particularly fishing; identifies opportunities to preserve existing maritime businesses and jobs; and maximizes jobs, investment, new technologies and sustainability;

(2) The Governor's Energy Office, in consultation with other state agencies, has conducted a review of applicable state laws and rules to determine whether the existing offshore wind energy statutory and regulatory framework protects the State's coastal resources in a manner that avoids or minimizes adverse effects on coastal resources and users from the development of offshore wind power projects located seaward of the territorial waters; and

(3) The Governor's Energy Office, with input from the advisory board of the Offshore Wind Research Consortium established in section 3406, has identified the preliminary research questions the consortium seeks to answer regarding the development of offshore wind power projects.

The Governor's Energy Office shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over energy and utility matters when the conditions established under subparagraphs (1) to (3) are met.

Sec. 3. 35-A MRSA §3406 is enacted to read:

§3406. Offshore Wind Research Consortium; fund established

1. Offshore Wind Research Consortium. The Offshore Wind Research Consortium is an initiative of the Governor's Energy Office to coordinate, support and arrange for the conduct of research on offshore wind power projects in the Gulf of Maine.

2. Advisory board. The Governor's Energy Office, in consultation with independent scientific experts, shall establish an advisory board of the consortium to oversee the development and execution of a research strategy to better understand the local and regional impacts of floating offshore wind power projects in the Gulf of Maine. The advisory board must include, but is not limited to, the following members:

A. Two individuals from organizations that represent commercial lobster harvesting interests in the State;

B. At least one individual from an organization that represents the interest of commercial fisheries other than lobster harvesting;

C. The Commissioner of Marine Resources, or the commissioner's designee;

D. Two individuals, not represented by an organization, that represent the interests of the commercial lobster harvesting industry and commercial fisheries in the State; and

E. One individual from the recreational charter fishing industry.

The advisory board is subject to all applicable provisions of the Freedom of Access Act. The operation of the advisory board must be informed by the work of regional and national scientific entities. The advisory board shall solicit input from stakeholders, including representatives of the fishing industry, state and federal agencies and scientific experts.

3. Research strategy. The advisory board established in subsection 2 in developing a research strategy shall at a minimum identify:

A. Opportunities and challenges caused by the deployment of floating offshore wind power projects to the existing uses of the Gulf of Maine;

B. Methods to avoid and minimize the impact of floating offshore wind power projects on ecosystems and existing uses of the Gulf of Maine; and

C. Ways to realize cost efficiencies in the commercialization of floating offshore wind power projects.

The advisory board shall advise the Governor's Energy Office on the development of the components of the research strategy.

4. Offshore Wind Research Consortium Fund; established. The Offshore Wind Research Consortium Fund, referred to in this subsection as "the fund," is established as a nonlapsing fund administered by the Governor's Energy Office and the Department of Marine Resources. The fund consists of funds that are appropriated by the Legislature, funds received from federal and state sources and other funds from any public or private source received for use for any of the purposes under this subsection. The source of any funds received from public or private sources must be publicly disclosed. The fund may be used to support the consortium and the work of the advisory board established in subsection 2, including for:

An Act To Preserve Deer

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, this legislation directs the Land for Maine's Future Board to give a preferential consideration to certain projects that conserve lands that are important for conserving deer; and

Whereas, this legislation provides for the acquisition and management of areas that are important to the conservation of deer and provides that these lands must be managed with deer conservation as the highest management priority; and

Whereas, funding for such acquisition and management may be available before the end of the 90-day period; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 5 MRSA §6203, sub-§3, as amended by PL 2021, c. 135, §3, is further amended to read:

3. Fund proceeds. The proceeds of the Land for Maine's Future Fund may be applied and expended to:

A. Acquire property or an interest in property that is determined by the board to be of state significance under the guidelines of this chapter;

B. When interest in land is acquired with proceeds from the Land for Maine's Future Fund, fund minor capital improvements on such lands and on adjoining lands in the same ownership or under the same management to improve accessibility, as long as these improvements do not exceed 5% of the appraised value of the acquired property; ~~and~~

D. When land or interest in land is acquired with proceeds from the Land for Maine's Future Fund, fund minor capital investments in the stewardship and management of that land. Stewardship and management investments under this paragraph must be held in a dedicated stewardship endowment and identified for use on the funded property. Stewardship and management investments may not exceed 5% of the appraised value of the acquired property; ~~and~~

E. When land or interest in land for deer wintering areas is acquired with proceeds from the Land for Maine's Future Fund pursuant to section 6207, subsection 2, paragraph E, fund the development of a management plan to provide for the land's continuing function as a deer wintering area, as long as the cost of the plan and any investments related to that land under paragraph D do not exceed 5% of the appraised value of the acquired property. A management plan developed under this paragraph may also apply to adjoining deer wintering areas in the same ownership or under the same management.

Sec. 2. 5 MRSA §6207, sub-§2, as amended by PL 2007, c. 64, §1 and c. 353, §§1 to 3, is further amended to read:

2. Determination of state significance. In determining whether a proposed acquisition must be funded, in full or in part, by the Land for Maine's Future Fund or the Public Access to Maine Waters Fund, the board shall consider whether the site is of state significance and:

A. Contains recreation lands, prime physical features of the Maine landscape, areas of special scenic beauty, farmland or open space, undeveloped shorelines, significant undeveloped archeological sites, wetlands, fragile mountain areas or lands with other conservation, wilderness or recreation values;

For acquisitions funded by the Land for Maine's Future Fund, the board shall give priority to projects that conserve lands with multiple outstanding resource or recreation values or a single exceptional value, ~~conserve and protect deer wintering areas~~, provide geographic representation and build upon or connect existing holdings.

A. When evaluating projects to be funded, the board shall give a preferential consideration to projects that conserve lands that have been determined by the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife to be important for conserving deer in northern, eastern and western Maine. To be given preferential consideration under this paragraph, a project must result in the acquisition of a fee interest or an easement interest in the land, the department's holding the interest in the land and the department's managing the land area as a wildlife management area, as defined in Title 12, section 10001, subsection 74, with deer conservation as the highest management priority. Only projects that satisfy the requirements of this paragraph may be given preferential consideration. Nothing in this paragraph limits the ability of the board to use the Land for Maine's Future Fund to fund other projects that may also help conserve deer or deer habitat but that do not receive preferential consideration under this paragraph.

When acquiring land or interest in land, the board shall examine public vehicular access rights to the land and, whenever possible and appropriate, acquire guaranteed public vehicular access as part of the acquisition.

Sec. 4. 12 MRSA §10105, sub-§14, as amended by PL 2019, c. 355, §§2 and 3, is further amended to read:

For all other purposes, members of the board are entitled to receive $300 a day for their services for the time actually employed in the discharge of their official duties. They are entitled to receive their traveling and all other necessary expenses. The costs for services rendered and expenses incurred by the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation and any state allocation program charges must be shared equally by the parties to the proceedings and must be paid into a special fund administered by the Maine Labor Relations Board. Authorization for services rendered and expenditures incurred by the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation is the responsibility of the Executive Director of the Maine Labor Relations Board. The organization shall consult with other state and national agencies and organizations to determine best and promising practices for the development of the database. The organization shall submit the plan, its findings and any recommendations for suggested legislation to the Joint Standing Committee on Health Coverage, Insurance and Financial Services no later than February 1, 2022. Whereas, school administrative units have an immediate need to provide high-quality, locally grown foods to Maine students, many of whom experience food insecurity; and

Whereas, school administrative units require the ability to access the State's enhanced program providing local foods to public schools in the current fiscal year; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

L. The results of a 3rd-party financial audit of the stewardship organization;

M. An estimate of the annual greenhouse gas emissions effects in the State associated with the operation of the stewardship program. As used in this paragraph, "greenhouse gas" has the same meaning as in section 574, subsection 1; and

N. Any additional information required by the department.

6. Producer payments. In accordance with the provisions of this subsection and the rules adopted by the department, no later than 180 days after the effective date of the contract entered into by the department and the stewardship organization pursuant to subsection 3, and annually thereafter, a producer shall make payments to the stewardship organization to be deposited into the packaging stewardship fund under subsection 12 based on the net amount, whether by weight or volume, of each type of packaging material sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State by the producer and not managed by the producer under an approved alternative collection program. The department shall adopt rules setting forth the manner in which such payments must be calculated for packaging material that is readily recyclable and packaging material that is not readily recyclable, which must be designed to incentivize the use by producers of packaging material that is readily recyclable and disincentivize the use by producers of packaging material that is not readily recyclable.

7. Annual reporting by producers. In accordance with rules adopted by the department, a producer shall annually report to the stewardship organization the total amount, whether by weight or volume, of each type of packaging material sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State by the producer in the prior calendar year.

8. Alternative collection programs. In accordance with the requirements of this subsection and the rules adopted by the department, a producer or group of producers may develop and operate an alternative collection program to collect and manage a type or types of packaging material sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State by the producer or producers. A producer that manages a type of packaging material under an approved alternative collection program through reuse, recycling and, where approved by the department, management of that packaging material through incineration may wholly or partially offset the producer's payment obligations under the packaging stewardship program with respect to that same type of packaging material only.

A. Beginning on the effective date of the contract entered into by the department and the stewardship organization pursuant to subsection 3, a producer or group of producers seeking to implement an alternative collection program shall submit a proposal for the establishment of that program to the department for approval. The department shall approve or deny the proposal within 120 days of receipt and shall provide an opportunity for public review and comment on the proposal prior to its approval or denial. The department may approve an alternative collection program for a term of 5 years and, at the expiration of such term, the producer or group of producers operating the program may submit an updated proposal to the department for approval.

B. In determining whether to approve a proposed alternative collection program, the department shall consider:

(1) Whether the alternative collection program will provide year-round, convenient, free, statewide collection opportunities for the types of packaging material to be collected under that program;

(2) To what extent the alternative collection program intends to manage those types of packaging material to be collected under the program through reuse for an original purpose, through recycling or through disposal at an incineration facility. The department may not approve an alternative collection program that proposes management of a packaging material type through disposal at an incineration facility unless that packaging material is not readily recyclable and the program proposes a process to begin reuse or recycling of that type of packaging material within a period of 3 years or less;

(3) Whether the education and outreach strategies proposed for the alternative collection program can be expected to significantly increase consumer awareness of the program throughout the State;

(4) How the alternative collection program intends to accurately measure the amount, whether by weight or volume, of each packaging material type collected, reused, recycled, disposed of at an incineration facility or otherwise managed under the program; and

(5) To what extent approval of the alternative collection program may disproportionately impact any community in the State.

C. A proposed modification to an approved alternative collection program must be submitted to the department for written approval. The department shall approve or deny a proposed modification based on application of the criteria described in paragraph B. The department may waive payment of any fees associated with review and approval of a proposed modification to an approved alternative collection program if the review of the proposed modification does not require significant department staff time.

D. In accordance with rules adopted by the department, a producer or producers managing an approved alternative collection program shall report annually to the stewardship organization and to the department the following information:

(1) The total tons of each type of packaging material collected, reused, recycled, disposed of at an incineration facility or otherwise managed under the alternative collection program in the prior calendar year, including a breakdown of the total tons of each type of material to be credited to each producer participating in the alternative collection program;

(2) A list of the collection opportunities in the State for the types of packaging material managed under the alternative collection program that were made available in the prior calendar year;

(3) A description of the education and outreach strategies implemented by the alternative collection program in the prior calendar year to increase consumer awareness of the program throughout the State; and

(4) Any additional information required by the department.

E. If the department determines that an approved alternative collection program is not operating in a manner consistent with the proposal approved under this subsection or the provisions of this subsection, the department shall provide written notice to the producer or producers operating the alternative collection program regarding the nature of the deficiency, the actions necessary to correct the deficiency and the time by which such actions must be implemented. If the department determines that the producer or group of producers have failed to implement the actions described in the written notice within the required time frame, the department shall notify the producers or group of producers as well as the stewardship organization in writing that the producer or group of producers are ineligible to offset payment obligations under the packaging stewardship program based on packaging material managed under the alternative collection program.

9. Requirements for participating municipalities. In accordance with the provisions of this subsection and the rules adopted by the department, a municipality may elect to, but is not required to, participate in the packaging stewardship program under this section. To be eligible for reimbursement of costs under subsection 10 as a participating municipality, a municipality must, at a minimum:

A. Provide for the collection and recycling of packaging material that is generated in the municipality and is readily recyclable; and

B. Annually report to the stewardship organization, on a form provided and approved by the department, all information necessary for the stewardship organization to determine the municipality's incurred costs associated with its collection, processing, transportation and recycling or other management of recyclable material and of municipal solid waste.

Two or more municipalities, municipally owned solid waste processing facilities or quasi-municipal entities that manage waste materials on behalf of a municipality may elect to jointly report to the stewardship organization as required by paragraph B and to jointly receive reimbursement payments pursuant to subsection 10 from the stewardship organization.

10. Municipal reimbursements. In accordance with the rules adopted by the department pursuant to subsection 13, paragraph A, subparagraph (4), the stewardship organization shall annually disburse to participating municipalities from the packaging stewardship fund established under subsection 12 reimbursement payments for the median per-ton cost of managing packaging material that is readily recyclable and reimbursement payments for the median per-ton cost of managing packaging material that is not readily recyclable. For the purposes of this subsection, the cost to a municipality of managing packaging material may include, but is not limited to, the costs associated with the collection, transportation and processing of packaging material, whether readily recyclable or not readily recyclable.

A. In accordance with rules adopted by the department, the stewardship organization shall determine the amount of payments to participating municipalities under this subsection based on the following information:

(1) Information provided by participating municipalities to the stewardship organization in accordance with subsection 9, paragraph B regarding the costs incurred by those municipalities in managing packaging material that is readily recyclable and packaging material that is not readily recyclable, which may include costs associated with the management of packaging material collected in public spaces and schools;

(2) Information provided to the department by recycling establishments pursuant to section 2145 and made available by the department to the stewardship organization, including the tons of recyclable material received by each recycling establishment from each municipality and the tons of processed recyclable material sold by each recycling establishment;

(3) Information provided to the department by recycling establishments not located in the State or by participating municipalities and made available by the department to the stewardship organization regarding the tons of recyclable material brokered by those municipalities to those recycling establishments and processed and sold by those recycling establishments;

(4) Information obtained by the stewardship organization through the audits of facilities that process recyclable material generated in the State as required by subsection 13, paragraph A, subparagraph (6); and

(5) Any other information specified by the department by rule.

B. In accordance with procedures and requirements adopted by the department by rule, the stewardship organization shall use the information described in paragraph A to determine the total tons of each packaging material type recycled by all municipalities at each recycling establishment and the percentage of those total tons attributable to each participating municipality. In the case of 2 or more municipalities that jointly send recyclable material to a recycling establishment, the stewardship organization shall assume that an equal amount of the jointly sent material is attributable to each resident of each municipality unless those municipalities by agreement identify an unequal per capita division of that jointly sent material for the purposes of this subsection.

11. Investments in education and infrastructure. In accordance with the provisions of this subsection and the rules adopted by the department, the stewardship organization shall make investments in education and infrastructure that support the recycling of packaging material in the State.

A. The stewardship organization shall submit any proposed investment in education or infrastructure to the department for approval prior to making any expenditure for such investment. The proposal must incorporate any input received by the stewardship organization regarding the proposed investment from producers, recycling establishments and participating municipalities.

B. The department shall adopt rules setting forth the criteria for evaluation and approval or denial of investments in education and infrastructure proposed by the stewardship organization. The department shall approve or deny a proposed investment within 90 days of receipt of the proposal from the stewardship organization.

C. The department shall ensure that preference for funding is given to proposals that support the State's solid waste management hierarchy under section 2101, promote a circular economy for packaging material types for which producers were required to make payments under subsection 6, increase the recyclability of packaging material that is not readily recyclable, increase access to recycling infrastructure in the State, improve consumer education in the State regarding recycling and recyclability and equitably support recycling and education efforts in participating municipalities, particularly in those participating municipalities that have received minimal or no prior funding pursuant to this paragraph.

12. Packaging stewardship fund; authorized expenditures. In accordance with the provisions of this subsection and the rules adopted by the department, the stewardship organization shall establish and manage a packaging stewardship fund. The stewardship organization shall deposit into the fund all payments received from producers in accordance with subsection 6 and shall expend those funds for the following purposes:

A. To reimburse participating municipalities in accordance with applicable provisions in subsections 9, 10 and 13 and the applicable rules adopted by the department pursuant to those subsections;

B. To cover the operating costs of the stewardship organization, which must be annually verified by a 3rd-party financial audit paid for by the stewardship organization as required by subsection 5, paragraph L;

C. To pay to the department all applicable fees required under subsection 13, paragraph B, including reimbursement of any costs incurred by the department in adopting rules and in administering and enforcing this section prior to the effective date of the contract entered into by the department and the stewardship organization pursuant to subsection 3; and

D. To support investments in education and infrastructure made in accordance with subsection 11.

13. Administration and enforcement; rulemaking; fees; department report. The department shall administer and enforce this section and shall adopt rules as necessary to implement, administer and enforce this section. The department shall solicit input from interested parties in the development of any draft rules to implement this section, solicit public comment on the draft rules for a period of at least 30 days and hold a public hearing on the draft rules in the same manner as a public hearing must be conducted under Title 5, section 8052. Except as provided in paragraph D, rules adopted pursuant to this section are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

A. Rules adopted by the department pursuant to this section must include, at a minimum:

(1) A process for annually determining a schedule of producer payments required under subsection 6, which must include, but is not limited to, provisions regarding the timing of producer payments and the timing of and information required to be provided in the annual producer report required by subsection 7.

(a) The payment schedule adopted under this subparagraph must provide for a flat fee option to be assessed on a tiered basis such that a low-volume producer is required to pay no more than $500 per ton of packaging material and no more than $7,500 in total annual fees to the stewardship organization under this section.

(b) For producers other than low-volume producers, the payment schedule adopted under this subparagraph must be based on and cover the cost of managing the amount of each type of packaging material sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State by a producer and not managed under an approved alternative collection program, adjusted as applicable in accordance with the adjustment criteria adopted pursuant to division (c).

(c) For producers other than low-volume producers, the payment schedule adopted under this subparagraph must delineate criteria to be used to adjust producer payments in a manner that incentivizes: the use of recycled content in and increased recyclability of packaging material, lower toxicity in packaging material, a reduction of the amount of packaging material used, a reduction of litter from packaging material, increased reuse of packaging material and labeling of packaging material to reduce consumer confusion and creates other incentives consistent with generally accepted industry standards.

(d) The rule must require as part of the annual producer reporting under subsection 7 the provision by a producer of all information necessary for the determination of the producer's payment obligation and the determination of the producer's compliance with respect to its products.

(i) For producers other than low-volume producers, the rule must require the producer to provide a description of the methods it used to determine the amount reported for each type of packaging material associated with its products, a description of the characteristics of each type of packaging material that are relevant to the adjustment criteria adopted pursuant to division (c) and a list of the producer's brands and the UPCs of the products associated with each type of packaging material.

(ii) For low-volume producers, the rule must require the reporting of only the information necessary for a calculation of the flat fee described in division (a) and a determination of the producer's compliance with the requirements of this section.

(iii) The rule must authorize a producer that is unable to fully satisfy the reporting requirements due to a failure to obtain sufficient information regarding the characteristics of the packaging material of products of the producer that are sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State to alternatively report to the stewardship organization an estimate of the total amount of that packaging material based on unit quantities as long as such alternative reporting includes a description of the methods used by the producer to calculate the estimate. When a producer alternatively reports an estimate in accordance with this subdivision, unless otherwise determined by the department, the estimate must be adjusted using the least favorable adjustment criteria adopted pursuant to division (c);

(2) A process for determining on an annual basis those types of packaging material that are readily recyclable, which must involve consultation with the stewardship organization and recycling establishments and must include a transitional period between the time that a type of packaging material is determined to be readily recyclable or to not be readily recyclable and the time that such determinations will be effective for the purposes of calculating producer payments and municipal reimbursements in accordance with this section;

(3) A process for determining on an annual basis which municipalities are similar municipalities, which must involve consultation with participating municipalities;

(4) A process for determining municipal reimbursements, including a description of the information required from participating municipalities under subsection 9, a method for calculating the reimbursements required under subsection 10 and the timing for participating municipality reporting and payments to participating municipalities. The method for calculating reimbursements must include the median per-ton cost of managing packaging material that is readily recyclable and the median per-ton cost of managing packaging material that is not readily recyclable. The method for calculating reimbursements must involve consultation with participating municipalities and be designed to incentivize municipal waste management activities that represent higher priorities on the solid waste management hierarchy;

(5) Requirements for the assessment of program performance, including the setting of program goals used to inform the producer payment schedule determined pursuant to subparagraph (1) and the investments in infrastructure and education made pursuant to subsection 11, which must include, but are not limited to, program goals supporting an overall reduction by producers in the amount of packaging material used, an increased reuse by producers of packaging material and an increased amount of post-consumer recycled content in packaging material used by producers; packaging material litter reduction goals; recycling access and collection rate goals for municipalities; and overall program and material-specific recycling rate goals.

To the maximum extent practicable, material-specific recycling rate goals adopted pursuant to this subparagraph must reflect the following recycling standards:

(a) Sorted glass is considered recycled if it does not require further processing before entering a glass furnace or before use in the production of filtration media, abrasive materials, glass fiber insulation or construction materials;

(b) Sorted metal is considered recycled if it does not require further processing before entering a smelter or furnace;

(c) Sorted paper is considered recycled if it does not require further processing before entering a pulping operation; and

(d) Plastic separated by polymer is considered recycled if it does not require further processing before entering a pelletization, extrusion or molding operation or, in the case of plastic flakes, does not require further processing before use in a final product;

(6) Requirements for the stewardship organization to conduct representative audits of recyclable material processed and sold by facilities that process recyclable material generated in the State, of municipal solid waste disposed of in the State and of waste littered in the State, which must include, but are not limited to:

(a) Provisions regarding the sampling techniques to be used in those audits, which must include random sampling;

(b) For audits of recyclable material, provisions regarding:

(i) How those audits must be designed to collect information regarding the extent to which recyclable material processed and sold by those facilities reflects the tons of each type of packaging material collected in the State for recycling and the tons of each type of packaging material recycled in the State, as well as the ultimate destination of and intended use for that recycled material;

(ii) How those audits must be designed so that information collected through the audit of one facility will not be used to infer information about a different facility that uses different processing equipment, different sorting processes or different staffing levels to conduct processing; and

(iii) The process by which a facility will be allowed to request and receive an audit if it can credibly demonstrate that an audit result being applied to its material output is not representative of its current operations;

(c) For audits of municipal solid waste, provisions regarding how the audits will be designed to collect information regarding the types and amount, whether by weight or volume, of packaging material in the waste stream and the percentage by weight and volume of the waste stream that is composed of packaging material; and

(d) For audits of waste littered in the State, provisions regarding how the audits will be designed to collect information regarding the packaging material type by amount, whether by weight or volume, in sampled litter, identification of the producer or producers of the packaging material in sampled litter, if identifiable, and an evaluation based on those audits regarding the areas of the State in which litter accumulation is greatest;

(7) A schedule by which the stewardship organization must annually report to the department pursuant to subsection 5 and a schedule by which a producer or group of producers operating an approved alternative collection program must annually report to the stewardship organization and to the department pursuant to subsection 8, paragraph D; and

(8) A process by which the stewardship organization will develop and submit for department review and a process by which the department shall review and approve or deny a proposed investment in education and infrastructure pursuant to subsection 11. The process must set forth the manner in which the stewardship organization is required to solicit and incorporate input in the development of proposed investments from producers, recycling establishments and participating municipalities.

B. At the time that the stewardship organization submits its annual report to the department pursuant to subsection 5, the stewardship organization shall pay to the department a reasonable annual fee established by the department, not to exceed $300,000, to cover the department's costs for review of the stewardship organization's annual report and the department's costs in the prior fiscal year for its oversight, administration and enforcement of the packaging stewardship program. In accordance with subsection 12, paragraph C, the annual fee required under this paragraph may include reimbursement of any costs incurred by the department in adopting rules and in administering and enforcing this section prior to the effective date of the contract entered into by the department and the stewardship organization pursuant to subsection 3.

C. A producer or group of producers, when submitting a proposal to the department for the establishment of an alternative collection program or submitting a proposal to the department for modifications to an approved alternative collection program under subsection 8, shall pay to the department a reasonable fee established by the department to cover the department's actual costs for review of the proposal or proposed modifications. A producer or group of producers operating an approved alternative collection program under subsection 8 shall pay to the department a reasonable annual fee established by the department, not to exceed $10,000 per participating producer, to cover the department's costs for review of the producer's or group's annual report and the department's costs for the oversight, administration and enforcement of the alternative collection program, which may be waived by the department if those activities by the department do not require significant department staff time.

D. The department shall review packaging material associated with certain federally regulated products to determine whether that packaging material should be excluded from the definition of "packaging material" under subsection 1, paragraph 1. In making such a determination, the department shall, at a minimum, consider whether the packaging material for such products is required by federal law or regulation to meet specific content or construction standards that may preclude or significantly diminish the producer's ability to increase the recyclability or reduce the volume of the packaging material. If the department determines that any such product or its associated packaging material should be excluded from the definition of "packaging material," the department shall adopt an exclusion by rule. At a minimum, the department shall conduct a review in accordance with this paragraph of the packaging material associated with the following federally regulated products:

(1) Material that is used for the containment, protection, delivery, presentation or distribution of a drug, as that term is defined under Section 321 of the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as regulated by the United States Food and Drug Administration under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or as collected under a stewardship program in the State that has been approved for operation by the department and has been established to collect and dispose of such drugs, including, but not limited to, prescription and nonprescription drugs, drugs in medical devices and combination products, branded and generic drugs and drugs for veterinary use;

(2) Material that is a medical device or a biological product, or is used for the containment, protection, delivery, presentation or distribution of a medical device or a biological product, as regulated by the United States Food and

Drug Administration under 21 Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 200, 300 and 800;

(3) Material that is used for the containment, protection, delivery, presentation or distribution of an over-the-counter human drug product for which tamper-evident packaging is required, as regulated by the United States Food and Drug Administration under 21 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 211.132; and

(4) Material that is used for the containment, protection, delivery, presentation or distribution of a substance regulated by the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission pursuant to the federal Poison Prevention Packaging Act of 1970 for which special packaging is required under 16 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1700.

Rules adopted pursuant to this paragraph are major substantive rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

E. Beginning February 15, 2025, and annually thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over environment and natural resources matters regarding the packaging stewardship program and alternative collection programs implemented pursuant to this section.

(1) The report must include, at a minimum, data on the amount and type of packaging material associated with products sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in or into the State; data regarding how that packaging material was managed; and any recommendations for amendments to the programs implemented under this section, including, but not limited to, the establishment of new program goals or the imposition of a prohibition on the sale, offer for sale or distribution for sale in or into the State of products associated with packaging material that the department has determined is nonessential, is contaminating collected recyclable material, is a common source of litter or exhibits toxicity, particularly if that toxicity is demonstrated to have a disproportionate impact on any community in the State.

(2) Beginning February 15, 2028, and every 5 years thereafter, the report under this paragraph must describe the results of a comprehensive review of the rules adopted by the department pursuant to this section and must include recommendations by the department for any legislative changes to this section determined necessary as a result of that review, including, but not limited to, changes to the flat fee that may be paid by a low-volume producer pursuant to subsection 13, paragraph A, subparagraph (1), division (a), as well as a description of any changes to those rules that the department intends to propose in future rule-making.

(3) The report required under this paragraph may be included in the report required pursuant to section 1772, subsection 1.

14. Antitrust exclusions. A producer or stewardship organization, including a producer's or stewardship organization's officers, members, employees and agents that organize a packaging stewardship program or an alternative collection program under this section, is immune from liability for the producer's or stewardship organization's conduct under state laws relating to anti-trust, restraint of trade, unfair trade practices and other regulation of trade or commerce only to the extent necessary to plan and implement the producer's or stewardship organization's packaging stewardship program or alternative collection program consistent with the provisions of this section.

15. Proprietary information. Proprietary information submitted to the department pursuant to the requirements of this section or the rules adopted pursuant to this section that is identified by the submitter as proprietary information is confidential and must be handled by the department in the same manner as confidential information is handled under section 1310-B.

Sec. 3. Department of Environmental Protection; stewardship program for packaging; rulemaking. On or before December 31, 2023, the Department of Environmental Protection shall initiate rulemaking consistent with the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A to adopt rules necessary for the implementation, administration and enforcement of a stewardship program for packaging pursuant to Title 38, section 2146. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the department may use funds within the Maine Solid Waste Management Fund established pursuant to Title 38, section 2201 to support its activities required by this section except that, if the department uses funds within the Maine Solid Waste Management Fund as authorized under this section, the department shall deposit back into that fund the same amount of funds withdrawn once reimbursed pursuant to Title 38, section 2146, subsection 13, paragraph B.

An Act To Amend the Laws
Governing Unemployment Compensation

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §1043, sub-§17, ¶B, as amended by PL 1991, c. 548, Pt. D, §2, is further amended to read:

B. An individual, including corporate officers, is considered "partially unemployed" in any week of less than full-time work if the individual's wages payable from any source for such week are not $5 $100 or more in excess of the weekly benefit amount the individual would be entitled to receive if totally unemployed and eligible, except that remuneration payable or received as holiday pay is not considered wages for the purpose of this subsection and except that any amounts received from the Federal Government by members of the National Guard and organized reserve, including base pay and allowances, or any amounts received as a volunteer firefighter, a volunteer emergency medical services person or as an elected member of the Legislature, are not considered wages for the purpose of this subsection. On the first Sunday of June 2022 and each first Sunday of June thereafter, the excess earnings cap then in effect must be increased by the increase, if any, in the cost of living. The increase in the cost of living must be measured by the percentage increase, if any, as of December of the previous year over the level as of December of the year preceding that year in the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, CPI-W, for the Northeast Region, or its successor index, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics or its successor agency, with the amount of the excess earnings cap rounded up to the nearest dollar.

Sec. 2. 26 MRSA §1043, sub-§17, ¶C, as amended by PL 1979, c. 515, §5, is further amended to read:

C. An individual's week of unemployment ~~shall be deemed to commence~~ commences only after his the individual's registration at an employment office, except as the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner may by ~~regulation~~ rule otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 3. 26 MRSA §1043, sub-§19, as amended by PL 2017, c. 117, §3, is further amended to read:

19. Wages. "Wages" means all remuneration for personal services, including commissions, bonuses, severance or terminal pay, gratuities and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of remuneration in any medium other than cash must be estimated and determined in accordance with ~~regulations~~ rules prescribed by the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner, except that:

A. For purposes of section 1221, the term "wages" does not include remuneration that exceeds the first $12,000 that is paid in a calendar year to an individual by an employer or the employer's predecessor for employment during any calendar year, unless that remuneration is subject to a tax under a federal law imposing a tax against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund. The wages of an individual for employment with an employer are subject to this exception whether earned in this State or any other state when the employer-employee relationship is between the same legal entities;

B. For purposes of section 1191, subsection 2, section 1192, subsection 5 and section 1221, the term "wages" does not include:

(1) The amount of any payment, including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment, made to, or on behalf of, an employee or any of the employee's dependents under a plan or system established by an employer that makes provision for the employer's employees generally, or for the employer's employees generally and their dependents, or for a class or classes of the employer's employees, or for a class or classes of the employer's employees and their dependents, on account of:

(a) Sickness or accident disability, but, in the case of payments made to an employee or any of the employee's dependents, this subparagraph excludes from the term "wages" only payments that are received under a workers' compensation law;

(b) Medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability; or

(c) Death;

(1-A) Any payment on account of sickness or accident disability, or medical or hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, made by an employer or a 3rd party to, or on behalf of, an employee after the expiration of 6 calendar months following the last calendar month in which the employee worked for that employer;

(2) The payment by an employing unit, without deduction from the remuneration of the employee, of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, as amended, with respect to service performed after July 26, 1940, with respect to remuneration paid to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for agricultural labor;

(3) The amount of any payment, other than vacation or sick pay, to an individual after the month in which the individual attains the age of 62, if the individual did not perform services for the employing unit in the period for which such payment is made and is not expected to perform service in the future for the payment; or

(4) The amount of any nominal fee or stipend to a volunteer whose service is excluded from the definition of employment pursuant to subsection 11, paragraph F, subparagraph (35);

C. With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning on or after January 1, 1978, wages for insured work includes wages paid for previously uncovered services. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "previously uncovered services" means services:

(1) That were not employment as defined in subsection 11, and were not services covered pursuant to section 1222, at any time during the one-year period ending December 31, 1975; and

(2) That:

(a) Are agricultural labor, as defined in subsection 11, paragraph A-2 or domestic service as defined in subsection 11, paragraph A-3; or

(b) Are services performed by an employee of this State or a political subdivision thereof, or any of their instrumentalities as provided in subsection 11, paragraph A-1, subparagraph (1), or by an employee of a nonprofit educational institution that is not an institution of higher education, as provided in subsection 11, paragraph F, subparagraph (17), division (i);

except to the extent that assistance under Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974 was paid on the basis of such services;

D. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to include as wages any payment that is not included as wages under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, 26 United States Code, Section 3306(b)(5) and (r), as amended, as of January 1, 1985; and

E. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to exclude from wages any remuneration that is:

(1) Taxable under any federal law that imposes a tax against which credit may be taken for contributions required to be paid into a state unemployment fund; or

(2) Required to be covered under this chapter as a condition for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

Sec. 4. 26 MRSA §1043, sub-§20 is amended to read:

20. Week. "Week" means such period or periods of 7 calendar days as the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner may by ~~regulation~~ rule prescribe. Sec. 7. 26 MRSA §1051, sub-§9, as enacted by PL 1999, c. 464, §4, is amended to read:

On the first Sunday of June 2022 and each first Sunday of June thereafter, the individual's earnings disregard then in effect must be increased by the increase, if any, in the cost of living. The increase in the cost of living must be measured by the percentage increase, if any, as of December of the previous year over the level as of December of the year preceding that year in the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, CPI-W, for the Northeast Region, or its successor index, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics or its successor agency, with the amount of the individual's earnings disregard rounded up to the nearest dollar. The following amounts are not considered wages for purposes of this subsection:

- A. Amounts received from the Federal Government by a member of the National Guard and organized reserve, including base pay and allowances;

Sec. 16. 26 MRSA §1191, sub-§6, as corrected by RR 2009, c. 2, §77, is amended to read:

6. Supplemental benefit for dependents. An individual in total or partial unemployment and otherwise eligible for benefits must be paid for each week of that unemployment, in addition to the amounts payable under subsections 2 and 3, the sum of ~~$40~~ $25 for each unemancipated child of the individual who in any part of the benefit year and during any part of the individual's period of eligibility is, in fact, dependent upon and is being ~~wholly or mainly~~ supported by the individual, and who is under the age of 18, or who is 18 years of age or over and incapable of earning wages because of mental or physical incapacity, or who is a full-time student as defined in Title 39-A, section 102, subsection 8, paragraph C, or who is in that individual's custody pending the adjudication of a petition filed by the individual for the adoption of the child in a court of competent jurisdiction and for each such child for whom that individual is under a decree or order from a court of competent jurisdiction to contribute to that child's support and for whom no other person is receiving allowances hereunder. In no instance may the dependency benefits as provided in this subsection be more than ~~50%~~ 75% of the individual's weekly benefit amount.

Only one individual is entitled to a dependency allowance for the same dependent with respect to any week. The ~~commissioner~~ commissioner shall prescribe ~~regulations~~ rules as to who may receive a dependency allowance when both spouses are eligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits.

No individual may be eligible to receive dependency allowances as provided in this subsection for any week during which that individual's spouse is employed full time provided that the spouse is contributing some support to their dependent or dependents. For purposes of this subsection, "employed full time" means the receipt of any wages, earnings, salary or other income equivalent to that amount that would be received for a 40-hour work week.

2. Has registered for work. The individual has registered for work at, and continued to report at, an employment office in accordance with rules the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner adopts, except that the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner may, by rule, waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this subsection as to individuals attached to regular jobs and as to such other types of cases or situations with respect to which the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive, or would be inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter. A rule under this subsection may not conflict with section 1191, subsection 1.

The individual must actively seek work each week in which a claim for benefits is filed unless the individual is participating in approved training under subsection 6 or work search has been waived in accordance with rules adopted by the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner and provide evidence of work search efforts in a manner and form as prescribed by the Department of Labor. Failure to provide required work search documentation results in a denial of benefits in accordance with section 1194, subsection 2 for the week or weeks for which no documentation was provided unless the department determines there is good cause for the individual's failure to comply with this requirement;

Sec. 19. 26 MRSA §1192, sub-§3, as amended by PL 2017, c. 453, §1, is further amended to read:

3. Is able and available for work. The individual is able to work and is available for full-time work at the individual's usual or customary trade, occupation, profession or business or in such other trade, occupation, profession or business for which the individual's prior training or experience shows the individual to be fitted or qualified, as long as the geographic region in which the work will take place is not greater than 35 miles from the individual's primary residence; and in addition to having complied with subsection 2 is actively seeking work in accordance with the ~~regulations~~ rules of the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner; ~~provided~~ except that no ineligibility may be found solely because the claimant is unable to accept employment on a shift, the greater part of which falls between the hours of midnight to 5 a.m., and is unavailable for that employment because of parental obligation, the need to care for an immediate family member or the unavailability of a personal care attendant required to assist the unemployed individual who is a ~~handicapped~~ person with a disability; and ~~provided~~ except that an unemployed individual who is neither able nor available for work due to good cause as determined by the deputy is eligible to receive prorated benefits for that portion of the week during which the individual was able and available.

A. Notwithstanding this subsection, beginning January 1, 2004, an individual who is not available for full-time work as required in this subsection is not disqualified from receiving benefits if:

(1) The individual worked less than full time for a majority of the weeks during that individual's base period and the individual is able and available for and actively seeking part-time work for at least the number of hours in a week comparable to those customarily worked in part-time employment during that individual's base period; or

(2) The individual worked full time for a majority of the weeks during that individual's base period, but is able and available for and actively seeking only part-time work because of the illness or disability of an immediate family member or because of limitations necessary for the safety or protection of the individual or individual's immediate family member.

Sec. 20. 26 MRSA §1192, sub-§6, as amended by PL 2013, c. 474, §1, is further amended to read:

6. Approved training. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter ~~to the contrary~~, any otherwise eligible claimant in training, as approved for the claimant by the deputy, under rules adopted by the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner ~~with the advice and consent of the commissioner~~, may not be denied benefits for any week with respect to subsection 3, relating to availability and the work search requirement or the provisions of section 1193, subsection 3. Enrollment in a degree-granting program may not be the sole cause for denial of approved training status for an otherwise eligible claimant. Benefits paid to any eligible claimant while in approved training, for which, except for this subsection, the claimant could be disqualified under section 1193, subsection 3, may not be charged against the experience rating record of any employer but must be charged to the General Fund. For purposes of this subsection, "the deputy" means a representative from the bureau designated by the commissioner.

Sec. 21. 26 MRSA §1192, sub-§6-C, as amended by PL 2013, c. 474, §2, is further amended to read:

6-C. Prohibition against disqualification of individuals in approved training under section 1196. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to ~~the contrary~~, no otherwise eligible individual may be denied benefits for any week because that individual is in training as approved by the deputy, under rules adopted by the ~~commission with the advice and consent of the commissioner~~, nor may that individual be denied benefits by reason of leaving work to enter that training, as long as the work left is not suitable employment.

For purposes of this subsection, "suitable employment" means, with respect to an individual, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, and "the deputy" means a representative from the bureau designated by the commissioner.

Sec. 22. 26 MRSA §1193, sub-§1, ¶A, as amended by PL 2017, c. 117, §6, is further amended to read:

A. For the week in which the claimant left regular employment voluntarily without good cause attributable to that employment. The disqualification continues until the claimant has earned 4 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount in employment by an employer. A claimant may not be disqualified under this paragraph if:

- (1) The leaving was caused by the illness or disability of the claimant or an immediate family member and the claimant took all reasonable precautions to protect the claimant's employment status by promptly notifying the employer of the need for time off, a change or reduction in hours or a shift change and being advised by the employer that the time off or change or reduction in hours or shift change cannot or will not be accommodated;
- (2) The leaving was necessary to accompany, follow or join the claimant's spouse in a new place of residence;
- (3) The leaving was in good faith in order to accept new employment on a permanent full-time basis and the new employment did not materialize for reasons attributable to the new employing unit;
- (4) The leaving was necessary to protect the claimant or any member of the claimant's immediate family from domestic abuse or the leaving was due to domestic violence that caused the claimant reasonably to believe that the claimant's continued employment would jeopardize the safety of the claimant or any member of the claimant's immediate family and the claimant made all reasonable efforts to preserve the employment; ~~or~~
- (5) The claimant's employer announced in writing to employees that it planned to reduce the work force through a layoff or reduction in force and that employees may offer to be among those included in the layoff or reduction in force, at which time the claimant offered to be one of the employees included in the layoff or reduction in force and the claimant's employer accepted the claimant's offer, thereby ending the employment relationship; or

(6) The leaving was due to the unexpected loss of child or elder care for which the claimant was not at fault and for which no work alternatives such as changes in hours or a leave of absence or alternate child or elder care options were available despite good faith efforts made by the claimant to resolve the issue and continue working.

Separation from employment based on the compelling family reasons in subparagraphs (1), (2) ~~and~~, (4) ~~and~~ (6) does not result in disqualification.

Sec. 23. 26 MRSA §1194, sub-§1 is amended to read:

1. Filing. Claims for benefits ~~shall~~ must be made in accordance with such ~~regulations~~ rules as the ~~commission~~ commissioner may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of the ~~regulations~~ rules in places readily accessible to individuals in ~~his~~ the employer's service and shall make available to each such individual at the time ~~he~~ the individual becomes unemployed a printed statement of those ~~regulations~~ rules. The printed statements ~~shall~~ must be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to ~~him~~ the employer.

Sec. 24. 26 MRSA §1194, sub-§2, as amended by PL 2003, c. 163, §1, is further amended by amending the 6th blocked paragraph to read:

If, during the period a claimant is receiving benefits, new information or a new issue arises concerning the claimant's eligibility for benefits or which affects the claimant's weekly benefit amount, benefits may not be withheld until a determination is made on the issue. Before a determination is made, written notice ~~shall~~ must be mailed to the claimant and other interested parties, which must include the issue to be decided, the law upon which it is based, any factual allegations known to the bureau, the right to a fact-finding interview, the date and location of the scheduled interview and the conduct of the interview and appeal. The fact-finding interview must be scheduled not less than 5 days nor more than 14 days after the notice is mailed. The bureau shall include in the notice a statement notifying the claimant that any benefits paid prior to the determination may be an overpayment under applicable law and recoverable by the bureau if it is later determined that the claimant was not entitled to the benefits. If the claimant does not appear for the scheduled interview, the deputy shall make a determination on the basis of available evidence. The deputy shall make a prompt determination of the issue based solely on any written statements of interested parties filed with the bureau before the interview, together with the evidence presented by interested parties who personally ~~appeared at~~ participated in the interview by telephone or e-mail or other electronic means. Upon request and notice to all parties at the interview, the deputy may accept corroborative documentary evidence after the interview. In no other case may the deputy base a decision on evidence received after the interview has been held.

Sec. 25. 26 MRSA §1194, sub-§3, as amended by PL 1987, c. 641, §8, is further amended to read:

3. Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, the Division of Administrative Hearings after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm, modify or set aside the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. The parties ~~shall must~~ be then duly notified of the division's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which subject to subsection 11 ~~shall be~~ is deemed to be the final decision of the commission unless, within 15 calendar days after that notification was mailed to ~~his~~ the claimant's and employer's last known address, the claimant ~~and or~~ employer ~~may~~ appeal ~~appeals~~ to the commission by filing an appeal in accordance with such rules as the ~~commission shall prescribe~~ commissioner prescribes, ~~provided that~~ as long as the appealing party appeared at the hearing and was given notice of the effect of the failure to appear in writing prior to the hearing.

The manner in which disputed claims ~~shall must~~ be presented, and the reports thereon required from the claimant and from employers ~~shall must~~ be in accordance with ~~regulations~~ rules prescribed by the ~~commission~~ commissioner. The conduct of hearings and appeals ~~shall must~~ be in accordance with Title 5, ~~section 8001 et seq~~ chapter 375.

There is a state "off" indicator for a week based on the rate of seasonally adjusted total unemployment in this State, as determined by the United States Secretary of Labor, only if the period consisting of the most recent 3 months for which data for all states are published before the close of such week does not result in a state "on" indicator.

Sec. 28. 26 MRSA §1195, sub-§2, as enacted by PL 1971, c. 119, is amended to read:

2. Effect of state law provisions relating to regular benefits on claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits. Except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this subchapter, as provided in the ~~regulations~~ rules of the ~~commission~~ commissioner, the provisions of this chapter ~~which~~ that apply to claims for, or the payment of, regular benefits ~~shall~~ apply to claims for, and the payment of, extended benefits.

CHAPTER 477

H.P. 1113 - L.D. 1503

An Act To Stop Perfluoroalkyl and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances Pollution

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, contamination of soil and water in the State from perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances, or PFAS, poses a significant threat to the environment of the State and to the health of its citizens; and

Whereas, the full extent of PFAS contamination in the State is not presently known but is anticipated to be widespread and to require a significant expenditure of resources to identify and remediate; and

Whereas, PFAS continue to be used across a variety of industries for a variety of purposes and are ultimately contained in a variety of products sold in the State; and

Whereas, to address the imminent threat of further contamination of soil and water in the State, it is imperative to collect information regarding the use of PFAS in and to phase out the sale of certain nonessential products containing PFAS, as proposed in this legislation; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 38 MRSA §1612 is enacted to read:

§1612. Products containing PFAS

1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

A. "Carpet or rug" means a fabric marketed or intended for use as a floor covering.

B. "Currently unavoidable use" means a use of PFAS that the department has determined by rule under this section to be essential for health, safety or the functioning of society and for which alternatives are not reasonably available.

C. "Fabric treatment" means a substance applied to fabric to give the fabric one or more characteristics, including but not limited to stain resistance or water resistance.

D. "Intentionally added PFAS" means PFAS added to a product or one of its product components to provide a specific characteristic, appearance or quality or to perform a specific function. "Intentionally added PFAS" also includes any degradation by-products of PFAS.

E. "Manufacturer" means the person that manufactures a product or whose brand name is affixed to the product. In the case of a product imported into the United States, "manufacturer" includes the importer or first domestic distributor of the product if the person that manufactured or assembled the product or whose brand name is affixed to the product does not have a presence in the United States.

F. "Perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances" or "PFAS" means substances that include any member of the class of fluorinated organic chemicals containing at least one fully fluorinated carbon atom.

G. "Product" means an item manufactured, assembled, packaged or otherwise prepared for sale to consumers, including its product components, sold or distributed for personal, residential, commercial or industrial use, including for use in making other products.

H. "Product component" means an identifiable component of a product, regardless of whether the manufacturer of the product is the manufacturer of the component.

I. "Publicly owned treatment works" has the same meaning as in section 361-A.

2. Notification. A manufacturer of a product for sale in the State that contains intentionally added PFAS shall comply with the requirements of this subsection.

A. Beginning January 1, 2023, a manufacturer of a product for sale in the State that contains intentionally added PFAS shall submit to the department a written notification that includes:

- (1) A brief description of the product;
- (2) The purpose for which PFAS are used in the product, including in any product components;
- (3) The amount of each of the PFAS, identified by its chemical abstracts service registry number, in the product, reported as an exact quantity determined using commercially available analytical methods or as falling within a range approved for reporting purposes by the department;
- (4) The name and address of the manufacturer, and the name, address and phone number of a contact person for the manufacturer; and
- (5) Any additional information established by the department by rule as necessary to implement the requirements of this section.

B. With the approval of the department, a manufacturer may supply the information required in paragraph A for a category or type of product rather than for each individual product.

C. In accordance with rules adopted by the department, a manufacturer shall update and revise the information in the written notification whenever there is significant change in the information or when requested to do so by the department.

3. Waiver of notification; coordination with other states; extension of deadline. The department may waive all or part of the notification requirement under subsection 2 if the department determines that substantially equivalent information is already publicly available. The department may enter into an agreement with one or more other states or political subdivisions of a state to collect notifications and may accept notifications to a shared system as meeting the notification requirement under subsection 2. The department may extend the deadline for submission by a manufacturer of the information required under subsection 2 if the department determines that more time is needed by the manufacturer to comply with the submission requirement.

4. Exemptions. The following are exempt from this section:

A. A product for which federal law governs the presence of PFAS in the product in a manner that preempts state authority; and

B. A product subject to Title 32, chapter 26-A or 26-B.

5. Prohibition on sale of products containing intentionally added PFAS. This subsection governs sales of products containing intentionally added PFAS.

A. Effective January 1, 2023, a person may not sell, offer for sale or distribute for sale in this State a carpet or rug that contains intentionally added PFAS. This prohibition does not apply to the sale or resale of a used carpet or rug.

B. Effective January 1, 2023, a person may not sell, offer for sale or distribute for sale in this State a fabric treatment that contains intentionally added PFAS. This prohibition does not apply to the sale or resale of a used fabric treatment.

C. The department may by rule identify products by category or use that may not be sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale in this State if they contain intentionally added PFAS. The department shall prioritize the prohibition of the sale of product categories that, in the department's judgment, are most likely to cause contamination of the State's land or water resources if they contain intentionally added PFAS. Products in which the use of PFAS is a currently unavoidable use as determined by the department may be exempted by the department by rule. The department may not prohibit the sale or resale of used products.

Rules adopted pursuant to this paragraph are major substantive rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

D. Effective January 1, 2030, a person may not sell, offer for sale or distribute for sale in this State any product that contains intentionally added PFAS, unless the department has determined by rule that the use of PFAS in the product is a currently unavoidable use. The department may specify specific products or product categories in which it has determined the use of PFAS is a currently unavoidable use. This prohibition does not apply to the sale or resale of used products.

6. Fees. The department may establish by rule and assess a fee payable by a manufacturer upon submission of the notification required under subsection 2 to cover the department's reasonable costs in developing rules under subsection 5, paragraphs C and D and administering the requirements of subsections 2 and 9.

7. Failure to provide notice. A person may not sell, offer for sale or distribute for sale in the State a product containing intentionally added PFAS if the manufacturer has failed to provide the information required under subsection 2.

A. The department may exempt a product from the prohibition under this subsection if the department determines that the use of PFAS in the product is a currently unavoidable use.

B. The prohibition in this subsection does not apply to a retailer in the State unless the retailer sells, offers for sale or distributes for sale in the State a product for which the retailer has received a notification pursuant to subsection 8, paragraph B that the sale of the product is prohibited.

8. Certificate of compliance. If the department has reason to believe that a product contains intentionally added PFAS and is being offered for sale in violation of subsection 7, the department may direct the manufacturer of the product to, within 30 days:

A. Provide the department with the certificate attesting that the product does not contain intentionally added PFAS; or

H.P. 1189 - L.D. 1600

An Act To Investigate Perfluoroalkyl and Polyfluoroalkyl Substance Contamination of Land and Groundwater

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 38 MRSA §1310-B-1 is enacted to read:

§1310-B-1. Land Application Contaminant Monitoring Fund

1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

A. "Fund" means the Land Application Contaminant Monitoring Fund under subsection 2.

B. "Perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances" or "PFAS" has the same meaning as in Title 32, section 1732, subsection 5-A.

2. Land Application Contaminant Monitoring Fund. The Land Application Contaminant Monitoring Fund is established to be used by the department as a nonlapsing, revolving fund to test and monitor soil and groundwater for PFAS and other contaminants and for other related activities, including, but not limited to, abating or mitigating identified contamination and the effects of such contamination through the provision of access to safe drinking water, the installation of filter treatment systems or other actions.

A. The fund is funded by the fee under subsection 3 and any public or private funds that may be available for carrying out the purposes of the fund. The department shall deposit with the Treasurer of State to the credit of the fund money in the fund not currently needed by the department to carry out the purposes of the fund, which may be invested as provided by law. Interest earned on investment of money under this paragraph must be credited to the fund.

B. The department may transfer money in the fund in excess of the amounts the department anticipates to be necessary to carry out the purposes of the fund to the Uncontrolled Sites Fund under section 1364, subsection 6 for the purposes of testing, monitoring or treating land contaminated by PFAS.

C. Beginning January 15, 2023, and every 2 years thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over environment and natural resources matters regarding the uses of the fund and a summary of contamination identified. After reviewing the report, the joint standing committee may report out legislation related to the report.

3. Handling fee. In addition to any other fee or charge required by statute or rule, beginning January 1, 2022, the department shall assess an annual fee, as calculated on a calendar year basis, of $10 per ton, or an equivalent amount as determined by the department on a volume basis, on the handling of sludge or septage. The department shall waive collection of a fee under this subsection for any entity that would otherwise be assessed a fee of less than $50 total in any calendar year. The department shall deposit a fee collected under this subsection into the fund.

4. Rules. The board shall adopt rules necessary for the administration of the fund and any underlying program or purpose under or funded by the fund and for the assessment and collection of the fee under subsection 3. Rules adopted pursuant to this subsection are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

Sec. 2. Testing of locations with land applications of sludge or septage for perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substance contamination.

The Department of Environmental Protection shall develop and implement a program to evaluate soil and groundwater for perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances and other identified contaminants at locations licensed or permitted prior to 2019 to apply sludge or septage.

1. The department may exclude a location from evaluation under the program for good reason, including, but not limited to, upon a determination that no sludge or septage was actually applied at the location or that the location is no longer owned or controlled by the licensee or permittee and the department is unable to obtain authorization to evaluate soil and groundwater at the location. As part of the report required under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 1310-B-1, subsection 2, paragraph C, the department shall identify any location thus excluded and describe the reason for the exclusion.

2. The department shall prioritize under the program the evaluation of locations based on criteria to be established by the department, including, but not limited to, the anticipated presence of high levels of perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances in the sludge or septage applied at a location, the volume of sludge or septage applied at a location or the proximity of known receptors.

3. The evaluation of locations under the program must include the testing of soil and groundwater for all perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances that may reasonably be quantified by a laboratory certified under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 22, section 567. Testing under this section must be paid for using funds from the Land Application Contaminant Monitoring Fund under Title 38, section 1310-B-1. If testing of any location under this section indicates an elevated level of contamination on land that is currently being used for the production of an agricultural product, the department shall inform the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry of the findings of contamination. The Department of Environmental Protection shall complete an evaluation of, or determine to exclude from evaluation pursuant to subsection 1, at least half of the locations licensed or permitted prior to 2019 to apply sludge or septage by December 31, 2024 and all such locations by December 31, 2025.

4. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a person licensed or permitted by the department to apply sludge or septage at a location subject to evaluation under this section shall submit to an evaluation of that location under the program upon the request of the department, and, prior to January 1, 2026, the person may not submit a request to the department to surrender that license or permit prior to its expiration unless the person has submitted to such evaluation and has provided the department with the results of any testing conducted.

For purposes of this section, "perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 32, section 1732, subsection 5-A, "sludge" has the same meaning as in Title 38, section 1303-C, subsection 28-A and "septage" has the same meaning as in Title 38, section 1303-C, subsection 27.

Sec. 3. Testing of landfill leachate for perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substance contamination.

The Department of Environmental Protection shall develop and implement a program for the testing of leachate collected and managed by solid waste landfills for perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substance contamination.

1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, within 90 days of the effective date of this Act, the department shall require each licensed solid waste landfill to conduct periodic testing of leachate collected and managed by the landfill for all perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances that may reasonably be quantified by a laboratory certified under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 22, section 567. A solid waste landfill that conducts testing of leachate pursuant to this section shall provide the department with the results of that testing.

2. On or before January 15, 2024, the department shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over environment and natural resources matters regarding the testing program implemented under this section, including a description of the results of such testing and any recommendations, including proposed legislation. After reviewing the report, the joint standing committee may report out legislation related to the report.

For purposes of this section, "perfluoroalkyl and polyfluoroalkyl substances" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 32, section 1732, subsection 5-A.

If credit amounts are subject to recapture after a certificate of approval has been transferred as provided in paragraph C, the transferee is responsible for payment of any credit amounts that must be returned to the State. A certified applicant whose certificate of approval or certificate of completion has been revoked pursuant to this paragraph is not eligible for the tax credit under this section for the tax year in which the certificate is revoked and any year thereafter. Any amount to be returned to the State pursuant to this paragraph must be added to the tax imposed on the taxpayer under this Part for the taxable year during which the certificate is revoked.

E. Upon making a qualified investment, a certified applicant shall submit an application to the commissioner for a certificate of completion. If the commissioner determines that a qualified investment has been made, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of completion to the certified applicant as soon as is practical. (2) Cumulative credits under this subsection for all certified applicants may not exceed $1,600,000 per year and $16,000,000 in total.

(3) A credit is not allowed to any person if the certified applicant has received a qualified low-income community investment under section 5219-HH with respect to the paper manufacturing facility at which the qualified investment is made under this section.

(4) A credit is not allowed to any person who receives benefits under the Pine Tree Development Zone program pursuant to Title 30-A, section 5250-O or the Maine Employment Tax Increment Financing Program established in chapter 917 related to the paper manufacturing facility in the tax year for which a credit is claimed under this section.

(5) A credit is not allowed to any person for any tax year during which the headquarters of the certified applicant are not located in the State.

4. Reporting required. A certified applicant, the commissioner and the assessor are required to make reports pursuant to this subsection.

A. On or before March 1st of each year, a certified applicant shall file a report with the commissioner for the tax year ending during the immediately preceding calendar year, referred to in this paragraph as "the report year," containing the following information:

(1) The number of qualified employees of the certified applicant on the last day of the report year; and

(2) The incremental amount of qualified investment made in the report year.

The commissioner may prescribe forms for the annual report described in this paragraph. The commissioner shall provide copies of the report to the assessor and to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over taxation matters at the time the report is received.

B. By April 1st of each year, the commissioner shall report to the joint standing committee of the Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the reports provided under this subsection are public records as defined in Title 1, section 402, subsection 3.

5. Rules; fees. The commissioner and the assessor may jointly adopt rules to implement this section, including, but not limited to, rules for determining and certifying eligibility. The commissioner may also by rule establish fees to offset the costs of administering this section. Rules adopted pursuant to this subsection are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A. 6. Evaluation; specific public policy objectives; performance measures. The credit provided under this section is subject to ongoing legislative review in accordance with Title 3, chapter 37. In developing evaluation parameters to perform the review, the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability, the joint legislative committee established to oversee program evaluation and government accountability matters and the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over taxation matters shall consider:

A. That the specific public policy objectives of the credit provided under this section are to provide incentives for the revitalization of paper manufacturing facilities in counties with high unemployment and to create or retain high-quality jobs in the State by encouraging paper manufacturers to modernize their paper manufacturing equipment to better compete in the marketplace; and

B. Performance measures, including, but not limited to:

(1) The number of qualified employees added or retained during the period being reviewed and how employment during that period compares to the minimum employment requirements established in subsection 3, paragraph B, subparagraph (1);

(3) The increase in the vitality and competitiveness of the State's paper industry in the marketplace;

(4) The change in the number of paper manufacturers and machinery used for the production of paper products located in the State and the number of modernization projects undertaken at those paper manufacturing facilities during the period being reviewed; and

(5) Measures of fiscal impact and overall economic impact to the State and to the regions in which certified applicants are located.

Sec. 4. Legislative findings; purpose. PART R

Sec. R-1. Maine State Housing Authority expanded housing projects; project labor agreements; workforce diversity. The following requirements apply to certain housing projects funded with funds allocated in this Part.

1. Maine State Housing Authority to use project labor agreement. As a condition of awarding $20,000,000 of the funds allocated in this Part to the Maine State Housing Authority for existing financing programs to a developer to expand affordable housing options, the Maine State Housing Authority shall require that developer to enter into a pre-hire, collectively bargained project labor agreement with the workers who will build the affordable housing. A project labor agreement must apply to all workers who build the affordable housing, including those employed by a contractor and all subcontractors of the developer. A project labor agreement must protect the collective bargaining rights of the workers involved in building the affordable housing.

2. Requirement to make good faith effort to promote workforce diversity; authority to refuse to award contract based on failure to make good faith effort. A contractor, subcontractor, firm, corporation, partnership or any other entity working on housing built using funds awarded through a financing program using $20,000,000 of the funds allocated to the Maine State Housing Authority in this Part shall make, at all times, a good faith effort to promote workforce diversity, including diversity with regard to race and gender. If the authority determines that a contractor, subcontractor, firm, corporation, partnership or other entity is not making a good faith effort to achieve workforce diversity, the authority may refuse to award that entity a contract for any project funded using allocations provided in this Part for a period of 2 years.

3. Rules. The authority shall adopt rules to implement this section. Rules adopted pursuant to this subsection are routine technical rules as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

CHAPTER 10

H.P. 1278 - L.D. 1723

An Act Regarding Winter Maintenance on Private Roads in the Town of Windham

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Town of Windham has provided winter maintenance service to approximately 101 private ways in the town for several years; and

Whereas, approximately 1,700 residents live on the private ways maintained in the winter by the Town of Windham and have come to rely on this service; and

Whereas, continuation of this service may expose the Town of Windham to legal liability; and

Whereas, cessation of this service may expose the Town of Windham to legal liability; and

Whereas, the Town of Windham has been unable, despite its best efforts, to find an appropriate resolution to this complicated and long-standing situation and is now asking the Legislature for assistance; and

Whereas, the Legislature recognizes the difficulties facing the Town of Windham and is willing to assist the town for a reasonable period of time; and

Whereas, part of the solution for the Town of Windham involves working with the residents living along the private ways prior to the beginning of the next winter maintenance season; and

Whereas, the span of time between 90 days after adjournment of this Legislature and the beginning of the next winter maintenance season is not sufficient time for the Town of Windham to make sufficient progress working with residents; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. Definitions. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.

1. Council. "Council" means the town council of the Town of Windham.

2. Designated private way. "Designated private way" means a private way located in the Town of Windham that satisfies the criteria listed in section 3, subsection 1.

3. Private way. "Private way" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 1903, subsection 10-A.

4. Road association. "Road association" means a road association created pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, chapter 305, subchapter 2.

5. Road commissioner. "Road commissioner" means the road commissioner, as described by the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 2701, of the Town of Windham.

6. Town way. "Town way" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 3021, subsection 3.

7. Winter maintenance. "Winter maintenance" means the snow removal and surface treatment, including sanding and salting, performed on designated private ways.

Sec. 2. Authorization of winter maintenance on designated private ways. The council and the Town of Windham may use public equipment to perform winter maintenance on a designated private way, regardless of the existence of a public easement over the designated private way for the purpose of ensuring the health and safety of the residents of the Town of Windham.

Sec. 3. Ordinance; roster; maintenance standards; termination. The council may enact an ordinance to provide for the winter maintenance of designated private ways according to this section.

1. Identification of designated private ways. The council may identify a private way in the Town of Windham as a designated private way if:

A. The council has evidence that the Town of Windham has performed winter maintenance on the private way for at least 20 years prior to the effective date of this Act; and

B. The road commissioner has determined that the private way cannot meet standards developed or required by generally applicable local ordinances for dedication and acceptance of the private way as a town way pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 3025.

2. Creation and maintenance of designated private way roster and map. The Town of Windham may create and maintain a roster and map of all designated private ways. If a private way is included on the roster and map of designated private ways, no road association or owner of property benefited by the private way may bring a claim asserting that the private way has become a town way by any method or mechanism other than dedication and acceptance pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 3025.

3. Development of basic maintenance standards. The road commissioner may, in consultation with the council, develop basic maintenance standards for designated private ways that the road commissioner may use to determine the necessary maintenance a road association or owners of property benefited by a private way must perform for the private way to be a designated private way.

4. Conditions of suspension and termination. The Town of Windham may suspend or cease to perform winter maintenance on a designated private way as follows.

A. The Town of Windham has no obligation to perform winter maintenance on a designated private way if:

- (1) The council or road commissioner has notified the road association or owners of property benefited by the private way of maintenance necessary to satisfy the road commissioner's basic maintenance standards under subsection 3 and the maintenance is not performed to the road commissioner's satisfaction by September 1st following the date on which notice was given; or
- (2) Owners of property benefited by the private way have not formed a road association within 2 years of the effective date of this Act or before a later date set by the council.

Within 60 days of the creation of the roster and map of designated private ways pursuant to subsection 2, the council may notify the road association or owners of property benefited by a designated private way of the conditions for continued winter maintenance contained in this paragraph.

B. A private way may be removed from the roster and map of designated private ways created pursuant to subsection 2 if:

(1) The council accepts the private way as a town way pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 23, section 3025 and any applicable local ordinance; or

(2) The road association of the private way or a majority of the owners of property benefited by the private way present a petition to the council for the removal of the private way from the roster and map.

5. Ordinance. The council may by ordinance establish additional policies and procedures to effectuate the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. Town of Windham report. The Town of Windham may submit a report to the Joint Standing Committee on State and Local Government by February 1, 2022. The report, if submitted, must include the following information:

- A. A detailed description of the progress made by the council and the town manager to conform the use of public funds to provide winter maintenance on private ways with applicable constitutional and statutory laws;
- B. An assessment by the Town of Windham fire-rescue chief regarding the use of fire-rescue vehicles on private ways in the town for fire and safety protection;
- C. An assessment by the Town of Windham police chief regarding the use of police vehicles on private ways in the town for public health and safety; and
- D. An assessment of whether winter maintenance by the Town of Windham of its designated private ways has an environmental impact on the surrounding water bodies.

The joint standing committee may report out a bill based on the report to the Second Regular Session of the 130th Legislature.

Sec. 5. Repeal. This Act is repealed June 30, 2022.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved.

Effective June 17, 2021.

CHAPTER 11
H.P. 1281 - L.D. 1731

An Act To Create the Belgrade Water District

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, a number of private wells in the Town of Belgrade have evidenced chloride contamination stemming from nearby sand and salt storage facilities, and this poses a serious threat to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of the area; and

Whereas, an adequate supply of pure water is essential to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of the Town of Belgrade; and

Whereas, with an affirmative vote by the inhabitants of the Town of Belgrade, the Department of Transportation will pay the upfront costs to have the distribution system designed, installed and connected to the currently affected properties in order to provide safe water to inhabitants of the Town of Belgrade;

Whereas, the formation of a water district in the Town of Belgrade will ensure the supply of pure water for the town's inhabitants and is necessary in order for the Department of Transportation to transfer the distribution system to the Town of Belgrade; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. Territorial limits; corporate name. Pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, chapter 64, that part of the Town of Belgrade described, as of June 1, 2021, as tax map 7, lots 34, 35, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47-1, 47-14, 53, 55, 55-A, 55-B, 55-C, 55-D, 55-E, 55-F, 55-G, 56-1, 56-2, 56-3, 56-4, 58, 59, 59-A, 59-B, 60, 61, 61-A, 62, 62-B and 63 and its inhabitants constitute a standard water district under the name "Belgrade Water District," referred to in this Act as "the district."

Sec. 2. Powers; authority; duties. The district has all the powers and authority and is subject to all the requirements and restrictions provided in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, chapter 64, except as otherwise provided by this Act.

Sec. 3. Power to take water. The district is authorized to take, to hold and to convey within the Town of Belgrade and from any part of the town water from any surface or groundwater source within the town.

Sec. 4. Number of trustees. The board of trustees of the district is composed of 3 trustees. A trustee must be a resident of the Town of Belgrade but notwithstanding the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, section 6410 need not reside in a household to which the district's service is provided. Notwithstanding Title 35-A, section 6410, subsection 3, any municipal officer, as defined in Title 30-A, section 2001, subsection 10, or other elected official is eligible for appointment as a trustee of the district. At no time may more than 2 municipal officers or elected officials serve as trustees of the district.

Sec. 5. First board. The first board of trustees of the district is appointed by the municipal officers of the Town of Belgrade in accordance with this Act. The terms of the first board are governed by the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, section 6410, subsection 4.

Sec. 6. Terms of trustees. After the appointment of the first board of trustees of the district, trustees are appointed to 3-year terms by the municipal officers of the Town of Belgrade pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, section 6410, subsection 2.

Sec. 7. Referendum; effective date. This Act takes effect when approved only for the purpose of permitting its submission to the legal voters within the Town of Belgrade at an election called for that purpose and held within 3 years of the effective date of this Act. The election must be called, advertised and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections, except that the registrar of voters is not required to prepare or the clerk to post a new list of voters. For the purpose of registration of voters, the registrar of voters must be in session the secular day preceding the election. The subject matter of this Act is reduced to the following question:

"Do you favor creating the Belgrade Water District?"

The voters shall indicate by a cross or check mark placed against the word "Yes" or "No" their opinion of the same.

The results must be declared by the municipal officers of the Town of Belgrade and due certificate of the results filed by the clerk with the Secretary of State.

This Act takes effect for all other purposes immediately upon its approval by a majority of the legal voters voting at the election. Failure to achieve the necessary approval in any referendum does not prohibit subsequent referenda consistent with this section, as long as the referenda are held within 3 years of the effective date of this Act.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved.

Effective pending referendum.

An Act To Establish the Southern Aroostook County
Emergency Medical Services Authority

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the provision of emergency medical services to the people of southern Aroostook County requires the formation of the Southern Aroostook County Emergency Medical Services Authority immediately for the public health and welfare; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. Establishment. The Southern Aroostook County Emergency Medical Services Authority, referred to in this Act as "the authority," is established to facilitate the provision of emergency medical services to the residents of the towns of Amity, Hammond, Hodgdon, Linneus, Littleton, Ludlow, Merrill, Monticello and Smyrna, and such other towns that elect to join the authority, referred to in this Act as "the member towns."

Sec. 2. Board of directors. The authority is governed by a board of directors, referred to in this Act as "the board." The board consists of the following members:

1. One from Amity, appointed by its municipal officers;
2. One from Hammond, appointed by its municipal officers;

5. One from Littleton, appointed by its municipal officers;
6. One from Ludlow, appointed by its municipal officers;
7. One from Merrill, appointed by its municipal officers;
8. One from Monticello, appointed by its municipal officers;

9. One from Smyrna, appointed by its municipal officers; and

10. One from each town that elects to join the authority after the effective date of this section, appointed by the municipal officers of the town.

The municipal officers of each member town shall appoint an alternate who may serve in the absence of the appointed member for that town.

For the purposes of this section, "municipal officers" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 30-A, section 2001, subsection 10.

The members of the board are appointed for terms of 3 years, except that the initial members from the towns of Amity, Hodgdon, Littleton, Merrill and Smyrna are appointed for terms of 2 years. The members may be reappointed at the pleasure of the municipal officers.

Sec. 3. Powers. The authority may:

3. Hold public hearings and sponsor public forums;
4. Sue and be sued in its own name;
5. Accept funds, grants and services from federal, state, county and municipal governments or any agency thereof, gifts and stipends from its member towns and private gifts from individuals and entities; and
6. Apply for and accept loans and allocate and disburse funds received to carry out the purposes of the authority.

Debts of the authority authorized under this Act do not constitute or create any debt or liability on behalf of the State. Debts incurred under this Act do not directly, indirectly or contingently obligate the State to levy or to pledge any form of taxation or to make any appropriation for their payment. This section may not be construed to prevent the authority from pledging its full faith and credit to the payment of loans or other debts authorized pursuant to this Act.

Sec. 4. Duties. The authority shall:

1. Prepare an annual budget and require an annual audit that is made available for public inspection;
2. Follow uniform standards provided in the Maine Revised Statutes insofar as they relate to Department of Public Safety rules;

3. Make provisions for emergency medical services in the member towns and, on a contract basis, other areas where new services are to be provided; however, where emergency medical services are already provided by existing services, they are not abolished by this Act without the express consent of the governing body of the area where services are being provided and vote of the existing medical services board;

4. Implement a subscription membership program unless otherwise prohibited by law; and

5. Set and annually adjust an approved cost-basis schedule that is uniform throughout the member towns.

Sec. 5. Organization; conduct of business.

The board must be organized and its business must be conducted in accordance with the following.

1. The board shall elect a chair, vice-chair, secretary and treasurer from among its members.

2. The secretary shall keep a record of the board's meetings. These records are public records as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 1, section 402, subsection 3.

3. The treasurer shall keep records of the board's transactions. These records are public records as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 1, section 402, subsection 3.

4. The treasurer must be bonded in an amount to be determined by the board.

5. A quorum of the board is established in the bylaws of the authority and must include the chair or vice-chair and the secretary or treasurer of the board.

6. The board shall adopt such bylaws and mission statements as are necessary for the legal operation and proper management of the authority.

Sec. 6. Meetings. The bylaws must establish the annual meeting of the board. Additional meetings may be scheduled at the call of the chair or at the written request of any 4 members of the board.

A member who fails to attend board meetings 5 consecutive times may be replaced by the municipal officers. Notification of such absences from the secretary of the board to the municipal officers is sufficient to trigger the appointment of a replacement board member by the municipal officers.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved.

Effective June 30, 2021.

CHAPTER 63

H.P. 1237 - L.D. 1666

Resolve, To Require the Public Utilities Commission To Issue a Request for Information on a Statewide, Multiple-use Online Energy Data Platform

Preamble. Whereas, in order to implement comprehensive energy management and efficiency programs, it is necessary to provide customers and other stakeholders with safe, secure access to information about energy usage in homes, businesses and municipalities; and

Whereas, access to energy data is a foundational element for moving the State's natural gas and electric systems to a more efficient paradigm in which empowering customers is a critical element; and

Whereas, by enabling the aggregation of and removal of personally identifiable information from community-level energy data and requiring a consent-driven process for access to or sharing of customer-level energy usage data, as proposed by this legislation, the State can open the door to innovative business applications that will save customers money and allow for better use of the electricity grid and other utility services; and

Whereas, a multiple-use online energy data platform will enable both the private and the public sectors to plan and implement energy programs including energy efficiency, distributed generation, energy storage and transmission and distribution improvements that will help reduce emissions of greenhouse gases in accordance with emissions reduction goals established in law; and

Whereas, implementation of a multiple-use online energy data platform is essential to achieving the greenhouse gas emissions reduction goals established by the State and by municipalities; and

Whereas, information about energy usage is currently held by individual utility companies with varying capabilities to share data, directly affecting customer and stakeholder access to quality energy data; and

Whereas, a centralized online energy data platform with defined standards regarding aggregation, data privacy and data security will create administrative and operational efficiencies for all customers and stakeholders involved in the energy sector; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Public Utilities Commission evaluation of statewide, multiple-use online energy data platform. Resolved: That the Public Utilities Commission shall issue a request for information to evaluate the feasibility of the commission's establishing and operating a statewide, multiple-use online energy data platform, referred to in this section as "the platform," that will provide natural gas and electric utility customers with safe, secure access to information about their energy usage and will allow for the aggregation of and removal of personally identifiable information from community-level energy data. In issuing a request for information on the feasibility of the platform under this section, the commission shall define the relationships among the various categories of data to be included in the platform. The request for information must require that the platform:

1. Consist of a common base of energy data for use in a wide range of applications and business uses;
2. Adhere to specific and well-documented standards for data accuracy, retention, availability, privacy and security;
3. Allow 3rd-party access to customer energy data;
4. Allow for the sharing of individual customer energy data and provide an opt-in option for utility customers when sharing data with 3rd parties;
5. Protect utility customers from unauthorized disclosure of personally identifiable information and ensure customer privacy rights;
6. Provide for the voluntary participation of consumer-owned transmission and distribution utilities and municipal power districts; and
7. Meet the requirements for certification from the Green Button Alliance and support the Green Button "Connect My Data" standard and the energy service provider interface of the North American Energy Standards Board.

The request for information must include an evaluation of a platform that would be funded through the assessment of a fee to be collected by utilities on their customers and transferred to the commission. In evaluating the feasibility of establishing and operating the platform, the commission shall require consideration of online energy data platforms being used in other states. After receiving information, the commission shall evaluate whether the creation, operation and management of the platform can be performed by the commission or whether all or part of the creation, management or operation of the platform would need to be performed by a 3rd party. The commission shall allow public comment on the request for information.

Sec. 2. Report. Resolved: That, by January 31, 2022, the Public Utilities Commission shall submit a report to the Joint Standing Committee on Energy, Utilities and Technology that includes the results of the evaluation required under section 1. The committee may report out a bill to the Second Regular Session of the 130th Legislature based on the report.

2. The minimum amount of student loan debt an individual must have to qualify to participate in such programs;
3. Whether a program participant is required to pay off any remaining student loan debt;

Sec. 1. Maine Public Employees Retirement System to convene working group. Resolved: That the Maine Public Employees Retirement System shall convene a working group of representatives of public employers, including the State and school administrative units, and public employees, including the Maine Service Employees Association and the Maine Education Association, to work together to develop new designs for public employee pensions that are based on social security and have comparable benefits to the current defined benefit plan. CHAPTER 67
H.P. 1169 - L.D. 1572

Resolve, To Analyze the Impact of Sea Level Rise

Preamble. Whereas, the scientific and technical subcommittee of the Maine Climate Council determined it is likely that the sea level in Maine will rise between 3 and 5 feet by the year 2100 based on an intermediate sea level rise scenario, although scenarios of higher rise are physically plausible; and

Whereas, a one-foot increase in sea level in the future will lead to a 15-fold increase in the frequency of nuisance flooding and would cause a 100-year storm flood level to have a probability of occurring once every 10 years; and

Whereas, communities with a strong dependence on waterfront and shorefront industries such as tourism, ports and fishing will be heavily disrupted by increased flood frequency; and

Whereas, sea level rise of 4 feet by 2100 is projected to cause more than $671,000,000 in cumulative building losses and $665,000,000 in gross domestic product losses in Maine; and

Whereas, 1.5 feet of relative sea level rise by 2050 and 4 feet by 2100 would cause immersion and submersion of land and accompanying materials, structures and facilities that are not currently designed for those conditions and, therefore, present a threat of release of pollutants to the environment; and

Whereas, the scientific and technical subcommittee of the Maine Climate Council has recommended that the State manage for 1.5 feet of relative sea level rise by 2050 and 4 feet by 2100; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Department review of laws and rules. Resolved: That the Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry, the Department of Defense, Veterans and Emergency Management, Maine Emergency Management Agency, the Department of Environmental Protection, the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, the Department of Marine Resources, the Department of Transportation and the Office of the Attorney General shall conduct a review of the laws and rules they are charged with administering under the Maine Revised Statutes and, by January 1, 2022, shall recommend to the Joint Standing Committee on Environment and Natural Resources any changes necessary to:

1. Incorporate consideration of 1.5 feet of relative sea level rise by 2050 and 4 feet by 2100 into administration of those laws and rules; and

2. Implement the strategy designated as "Strategy F3" in the state climate action plan issued by the Maine Climate Council in 2020 pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 38, section 577 to enhance community resilience to flooding and other climate impacts.

The Joint Standing Committee on Environment and Natural Resources may report out legislation to implement the recommendations to the Second Regular Session of the 130th Legislature.

H.P. 1253 - L.D. 1684

Resolve, To Strengthen Maine's Workforce by Expanding English Language
Acquisition and Workforce
Training Programs

Sec. 1. Department of Education to establish a grant process for adult education programs for English language acquisition and workforce training programs. Resolved: That the Department of Education's office of adult education, referred to in this resolve as "the office," shall establish a grant process to provide funding on a competitive basis to adult education programs of school administrative units in communities experiencing an increase in immigrant populations or demand to reduce the waiting list for English language acquisition classes or to increase the levels, frequency or intensity of English language acquisition instruction offered as needed by the communities and to provide industry-specific English language acquisition combined with workforce training in the specific skill areas required for identified workforce needs of employers in this State in accordance with this resolve. The office shall award grants to eligible adult education programs in a number and amount determined by available funding.

Sec. 2. English language acquisition courses and workforce training grants. Resolved: That the amount of a grant under this resolve is determined by the office based upon the needs of the area to be served and the availability of funding. The office shall consider grants to cover all areas of the State with an emphasis on areas with large immigrant populations, where there is a need for skilled workers that training under this resolve may provide or areas with growing industries.

1. English language acquisition courses grants. An eligible proposal for an English language acquisition course grant under this subsection must include provisions for initiating or expanding English language acquisition courses for participating students.

2. Industry-specific English language acquisition workforce training grants. An eligible proposal for a grant under this subsection must include provisions for:

A. Intensive industry-specific English language and vocabulary classes for participating potential employees, including immigrants who have not yet received federal work permits, newly hired employees and incumbent employees;

B. Intensive workforce training classes for participating potential employees, including immigrants who have not yet received federal work permits, newly hired employees and incumbent employees that include habits of work, including but not limited to basic skills necessary to obtain, maintain and advance in employment, such as interviewing and communications skills, and that acquaint immigrants with the culture of the workplace;

C. Interviewing immigrant participants and identifying the education level, English language ability, skill sets, work experience, qualifications and credentials of each immigrant participant;

D. Collaboration with participating employers to:

(1) Identify the employers' specific workforce needs;

(2) Identify skills needed for positions required by the employers;

(3) Receive input from the employers for the design of the training classes under this subsection, including information on required English language proficiency, workplace culture, on-site space or other vocational training elements such as tools, manuals or site tours;

(4) For proposals by specific employers to train newly hired or incumbent employees, ensure that the employers provide the time and space to offer training classes under this subsection on site at the employers' workplaces or, where that is not feasible, that employers provide at no cost to participants supports such as transportation and incentives to prioritize, encourage and facilitate employee participation;

(5) Unless participating employers can establish that they have already undergone such training within the 12 months prior to the grant submission date, ensure that, within the first 12 months of participating in the grant process, employers receive at least 12 hours of formal training on systemic bias and inequities and cultural competency regarding bridging effectively across a wide variety of cultural similarities and differences to help establish an inclusive workplace environment. The office is not responsible for arranging for or providing this training; and

(6) Create industry-specific skills trainings in which small employers in a specific sector can participate collectively where it is not practicable for them to offer trainings as individual employers. These collective trainings need not take place at an employer's workplace;

E. One or more training classes to prepare the immigrant participants as potential employees to enter into and retain livable wage employment within 6 to 24 months of the beginning of the training; and

F. Collection and reporting of data including outcomes of employment and job retention.

The office shall give special consideration to proposals for grants under this subsection that provide incentives for immigrants to participate in the training classes under this subsection, such as agreements by employers to pay an employee the employee's hourly rate while attending the training classes.

3. Criteria for applicants. An applicant for a grant under subsection 2 must have demonstrated expertise and experience in the following:

A. Providing English language acquisition training, including the administration of appropriate academic and vocational assessments and research-based instructional approaches appropriate for English language learners;

B. Working with employers to develop relevant employee training; and

C. Working with partners in the state workforce and state agencies with expertise in serving and preparing immigrants for employment through a case management approach.

Sec. 3. Report. Resolved: That the office shall provide a report concerning grants awarded pursuant to this resolve to the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs by November 1, 2022 that includes:

1. The number and amount of grants awarded;

2. The training and services provided by the grant recipients or progress toward establishing new programs to deliver the training and services;

3. Aggregate demographic information about immigrant participants in the training, participating employers, employment opportunities, employment placements and retention by employers of immigrant participants placed under this section; and

4. An evaluation of programs and services most effective in carrying out the purposes of this resolve.

The joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over education matters may report out a bill to the First Regular Session of the 131st Legislature to continue the grant process or to make it permanent.

Sec. 4. Fund established. Resolved: That the Industry-specific English Language Acquisition and Workforce Training Grant Fund is established as a nonlapsing fund under the Department of Education for the purpose of administering state grants funded by state and federal allocations and other sources, including donations from private citizens, corporations and entities for the purposes of this resolve. CHAPTER 87

Resolve, To Increase
Collaboration between the Maine State Housing Authority and the Department of Health and Human Services

Preamble. Whereas, over 19,000 Maine households with extremely low incomes are severely rent burdened, meaning they pay more than 50% of their income toward rent, because they lack access to either the income or rental assistance to afford rent; and

Whereas, due to the number of households struggling to make housing payments, over 5,000 households face eviction every year in the District Court; and

Whereas, the Maine State Housing Authority engages, directly or through grantees, with thousands of households every year who need assistance with rent, utilities or supportive services to find and keep housing and prevent homelessness; and

Whereas, there are over 350,000 families receiving direct financial assistance, food assistance or medical insurance assistance from the Department of Health and Human Services, through the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, the MaineCare program and other related programs; and

Whereas, the Department of Health and Human Services engages with families on a regular basis to determine eligibility for these assistance programs through the department's office for family independence and also interacts with numerous other families through the Office of Child and Family Services; and

Whereas, coordination between the Maine State Housing Authority and the Department of Health and Human Services will help meet the needs of families for supports with housing and income in a more simplified and holistic manner; and

Whereas, the Maine State Housing Authority is currently administering an emergency rental assistance program through community action agencies for which a person is automatically eligible if the person receives benefits through any assistance programs administered by the Department of Health and Human Services, which provides an opportunity for simplified verification; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Collaboration between Maine State Housing Authority and Department of Health and Human Services. Resolved:

That the Maine State Housing Authority, referred to in this resolve as "the authority," shall collaborate with the Department of Health and Human Services, referred to in this resolve as "the department," to seek, identify and implement initiatives to maximize access to housing assistance for recipients of services from the department and maximize access to assistance programs administered by the department for recipients of housing assistance, including students, from the authority or its grantees. Specifically, the authority and the department shall:

1. Consider mechanisms, including direct telephone outreach, program staff training, mailings, website links and telephone queue recordings, that provide opportunities to increase enrollment in housing assistance programs among department clients and increase enrollment in department assistance programs among housing assistance recipients;
2. Evaluate the extent of increased enrollment in programs administered by the department or the authority that can be reasonably attributed to increased coordination pursuant to this resolve;
3. Consider the capacity of the department's and the authority's computer systems to work together in a manner that most effectively facilitates access to additional services for recipients of services provided by the department or the authority, including the potential for applicants applying for assistance from the department to use the same portal to apply for rental assistance, with applicant information sent to the authority to process and finalize, using preverified data from the department, as appropriate;
4. Identify barriers to collaboration between the department and the authority and possible solutions and resources, financial or otherwise, necessary to overcome these barriers and implement the identified solutions; and
5. Identify any costs, including but not limited to personnel costs and those associated with technology changes, considered necessary to substantially improve coordination between the department and the authority.

Sec. 2. Report. WE, your Memorialists, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirtieth Legislature of the State of Maine now assembled in the First Regular Session, most respectfully present and petition the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States, as follows:

WHEREAS, under current federal law, individuals who receive a Social Security benefit and a public retirement benefit derived from employment not covered under Social Security are subject to a reduction in the Social Security benefits; and

WHEREAS, these laws, contained in the federal Social Security Act, 42 United States Code, Chapter 7, Subchapter II, Federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance Benefits, and known as the Government Pension Offset and the Windfall Elimination Provision, greatly affect public employees, particularly women; and

RESOLVED: That We, your Memorialists, respectfully urge and request that the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States work together to support reform proposals that include the following protections for low-income and moderate-income government retirees:

JOINT RESOLUTION
URGING THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
TO REPEAL AND REPLACE
OUTDATED
AUTHORIZATIONS OF
MILITARY FORCE
S.P. 556

WE, your Memorialists, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirtieth Legislature of the State of Maine now assembled in the First Special Session, most respectfully present and petition the Congress of the United States, as follows:

WHEREAS, nearly 2 decades after the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, United States troops continue to wage war in Iraq, Afghanistan and other parts of the world; and

WHEREAS, our service members accomplished their original objectives in Afghanistan long ago, at great psychological, physical and spiritual cost; and

WHEREAS, the war on terrorism, the "forever war" or "endless war" as many call it, has been used as the basis for an ever-expanding range of military actions; and

WHEREAS, James Madison wrote to Thomas Jefferson in 1798, "The constitution supposes, what the History of all Governments demonstrates that the Executive is the branch of power most interested in war It has accordingly with studied care, vested the question of war in the Legislature"; and

WHEREAS, Congress has mostly abdicated its Article I responsibilities to authorize and oversee military actions by extensive, potentially permanent delegations of congressional war powers; and

WHEREAS, the Authorization for Use of Military Force passed after the September 11 attacks has now been in effect for more than twice as long as the 1964-1971 Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, which gave President Lyndon B. Johnson authorization, without a formal declaration of war by Congress, for the use of conventional military force in Southeast Asia; and

WHEREAS, the United States Department of Defense's 2018 National Defense Strategy outlines a scenario where great power competition, rather than counterterrorism, drives the department's decision making and use of force; and

WHEREAS, a growing number of foreign policy officials have begun to advocate for a drawdown in the Middle East and Central Asia because of the opportunity costs to America's mission of balancing its strength against the so-called revisionist powers of China and Russia; and

WHEREAS, the emphasis on bolstering a deterrent posture in Asia and Europe should have an attendant impact that reduces the United States military's activities in the Middle East, Africa and the Western Hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, from global pandemics to the support of weak and fragile states, the United States faces an unprecedented number of complex global threats that cannot be solved by military power alone; and

WHEREAS, a disproportionate amount of resources is going to military and intelligence solutions along with a more general sidelining of diplomacy amid a continuing militarization of foreign policy; and

WHEREAS, addressing the root causes of violent conflicts overseas through development and diplomacy helps protect Americans and helps reduce the need to send our service members into harm's way; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, your Memorialists, respectfully urge and request that the Congress of the United States work to renew a proper constitutional balance in American foreign policy decision making by repealing and replacing outdated authorizations for the use of military force; and be it further

STATE OF THE BUDGET ADDRESS
OF
GOVERNOR JANET T. MILLS
FEBRUARY 23, 2021

(Submitted in writing to the Legislature on February 23, 2021.)

Governor Mills' 2021 State of the Budget Address

Introduction

There's never a better time than a Maine winter night to look up at the stars.

It was my grandfather — a man from Ashland who looked like Gary Cooper — who showed me how to find Orion in the night sky. And the Big Dipper. And the North Star. I couldn't rely on Google. Or a book on the stars. Or a television series, the Discovery Channel, or a Netflix special on astronomy.

It is not a book or a map that I rely on now to pick out those constellations.

It is my grandfather's loving voice, his outstretched arm pointing my young eyes to the deep sky.

It is not Google alone that will show us how to live today. Not Facebook, Instagram or Twitter that will teach us how to love or teach us wisdom and compassion.

It is experience, resilience and, most importantly, perseverance, the perseverance of an Aroostook County farmer.

We've been through a lot these past twelve months. You and I. And perseverance will see us through these times, no matter who we are or where we live.

Our entire state has been through so much this year. Our whole country.

We have been tested.

A deadly terror invaded our nation, indeed the globe.

Our border with Canada — the world's longest — closed for the first time ever.

Cruise ships cancelled.

Classrooms closed.

Graduations were celebrated in large open parking lots and drive-in theaters.

Weddings were postponed.

Funerals were held to small hug-less gatherings.

Loggers and haulers were idled in a paperless economy, while a paper mill's giant digester blew up in broad daylight, threatening the lives of hundreds and the livelihoods of thousands.

Lunch rooms and popular restaurants were limited to take out and curbside pickup.

Hotels and stores operated at unheralded losses.

Souvenir shops, water slides, agricultural fairs, auto races, church services, baseball games, football contests — all drastically modified, transformed or cancelled.

At the same time, a man named George Floyd was killed at the hands of law enforcement officers in Minneapolis, lighting a firestorm of protests across the country, including many here in Maine proclaiming loudly that Black Lives Matter.

A general election challenged our ability to adapt and yet brought out the largest turnout in Maine history, with more than 62% voting absentee, or voting in advance, including 100-year old Phyllis Nikkel of Rockport who has seen her 26th presidential election. And on the national level, a Presidential contest seemed to test our sanity, even the durability of our democratic institutions.

Everything we have known, everything that was familiar, so much was canceled, modified, restricted.

Our world changed, and we had new words to define it.

We learned or re-invented words, like "quarantine," "PPE," "bubble," "cohort," "flatten the curve," "super spreader," "thruput," "surge," "social distancing," "positivity rate."

Other words have taken on new meanings and popularity: "pivot," "variant," "you're on mute," and, of course, "zoom."

More importantly, however, a half a million Americans have died with COVID-19.

STATE OF THE BUDGET ADDRESS

Nationally, those lives include notables like Herman Cain; Charley Pride; John Prine; Annie Glenn; Larry King; the newly elected New Hampshire Speaker of the House Dick Hinch.

In Maine, we have lost more than 650 people — friends, loved ones, neighbors, each with a life that had meaning and purpose, people like Ron Johnson, father of five, former Major League baseball player, coach and manager of the Portland Sea Dogs; and Kerck Kelsey, member of the historic Washburn family that include Israel Washburn, Maine's governor at the start of the Civil War.

Dozens of Maine veterans — sailors, gunmen, mechanics — died without family members at their bedside, without color guards or taps played at their memorial services: heroes like Rob Fleury, 94, who served in the Navy in World War II and Dr. Jim Paras, also a World War II veteran who dropped out of high school to join the war effort and later enjoyed the big dance bands on the Old Orchard Beach pier.

Another great hero died this year.

"Hammerin' Hank" Aaron — the right fielder who broke Babe Ruth's home run record in 1974 and who holds the record for the most All-Star picks — But a year later, he broke another, equally important, record, surpassing Babe Ruth in RBIs, ending his career with 2,297 runs batted in.

That baseball great who grew up in a family too poor to buy a baseball bat, a Black man who faced hate and adversity, did not just revel in the solo performance of home run hitting, alone in the limelight.

No, his greater accomplishment, I think, was the reward of bringing his teammates home, one after the other. A home run may win a ballgame on occasion, but more often, it is the steady work of base hit after base hit — an effort driven by many, rather than just one — that wins more games.

We too are a team of multitalented players: some known for their home run hitting power or timely base hits; others for tracking down that deep flyball or pinch running the bases — but all, in their own ways, contributing to the success of the team.

This is the story of Maine as well: one team of many, a team that includes unsung heroes, some of whom face adversity day after day, but all of whom contribute to our success.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

They are nurses, bus drivers, CNAs, teachers and ed techs, volunteers, working parents stretched to the nines, delivery drivers, grocery clerks, fishermen, haulers and farmers, and so, so many more. You know who you are.

During this pandemic, despite risks to yourselves and the adversity of our time and through courage, compassion and perseverance, you have helped our state succeed.

You have saved lives and secured the future of many children.

You, the people of Maine, are our Most Valuable Players.

Private and Public Partnerships

For that true team effort, we need look no further than innovative Maine companies like IDEXX, Jackson Labs, Puritan, and Abbott who are meeting the challenges of our times.

IDEXX, well known for its work in veterinary science, shifted to produce innovative test materials for COVID-19 at a time when testing was so very scarce.

They helped us more than triple our capacity to test Maine people — a huge life saver in those early, dark days of the pandemic.

Other companies, like MaineSource Machining, which makes barbeques, switched to manufacturing ballot dropboxes, designed by members of the Community Colleges, to help us conduct a safe election; breweries and distillers, like Maine Craft Distilling, shifted to producing hand sanitizer; LL Bean and Flowfold produced face masks and face shields; Lee Auto produced public service ads on public health precautions; Bangor Savings funded internet devices for needy school children.

The Maine Coast Fishermen's Association started the Fishermen Feeding Mainers Program to purchase fish directly from fishermen handing it off to local processors to cut, package, and freeze fish to feed hungry Maine people. And the state was happy to help with this effort.

I also applaud the more than 3,000 hospitality workers who participated in COVID-19 safety training, offered by the Maine Community College System, to protect Maine people and visitors alike.

This is innovation.

This is ingenuity.

This is perseverance.

This is Maine people working together.

State of Maine COVID-19 Response

My Administration has sought to do its part to protect the lives and livelihoods of Maine people. With help from the Maine Legislature last spring, we began rallying the forces necessary to help people who were suffering job losses, to get food to school children and to build out our team of health professionals to protect Maine families from this dangerous virus.

My Administration implemented public health and safety measures, dialing them up and then scaling them down when we believed the circumstances demanded it. We directed people to wear masks in public, much the same as they would wear a hard hat at a construction site or safety glasses and ear protectors in a paper mill. We asked you to watch your distance and avoid large gatherings. And you did.

We then went to work distributing Federal funds to support the Maine economy and to aid Maine people in desperate need:

- We distributed more than $255 million in economic recovery grants to small businesses and $294 million to bolster the Unemployment Trust Fund and avoid large tax hikes on small businesses;
- We gave out more than $25 million for one-time $600 payments to 40,000 unemployed Maine people who were about to lose their benefits;
- We provided $28 million for rental assistance to prevent eviction and;
- We bought $9.3 million worth of at-home learning devices, like tablets, and Wi-Fi hotspots for more than 21,000 students who were trying to learn remotely but didn't have internet access.

We even partnered with local broadband providers, dedicating $5.6 million to build out broadband infrastructure and deliver high-speed internet to more than 730 students in rural Maine.

We distributed $20 million in Federal relief funds to Maine fishermen and $18 million to farmers and foodbanks.

We partnered with towns and cities, allocating $13 million for the Keep Maine Healthy program, promoting public health and educational initiatives during the busy tourist season, including beach ambassadors to keep people safe.

The collective efforts of our people and their government, for now, are working.

Maine COVID-19 Results

According to the Maine Department of Health and Human Services, adjusted for population, Maine ranks second lowest in the nation in total hospitalizations; third lowest in total number of cases, and fourth lowest in number of deaths from COVID-19. Our testing volume is seventh best in the nation, and our positivity rate over the past fourteen days is second lowest in the nation.

Vaccine Distribution

And right now, Maine is in the top tier of states in distribution of the vaccine.

I am pleased that we are beginning to see an increase in the supply of these vaccines, though demand everywhere continues to far outpace supply, and that has compelled us to make hard choices.

Like nearly every state, we started with frontline health care professionals – our nurses and doctors who are working day in and day out to keep us alive and healthy. We also vaccinated police, firefighters, EMT's, and other critical first responders to ensure that our emergency response system remains strong; to know that even if we experience another surge, our life saving professionals will be there for us.

In designating other categories eligible for the limited supply of vaccine, each state must then consider its unique circumstances. Maine has the oldest population of any state in the country.

And, while younger people are often exposed to the public to a large extent, it is our older people who are much more likely to get sick and die if they do contract the virus. It is also easy to verify their status, making vaccination clinics move swiftly and efficiently.

Our fundamental goal is to protect our most vulnerable, and that is what we're doing by vaccinating those who are 70 and older now.

Today, thanks to the Department of Health and Human Services, the Maine CDC, Northern Light, MaineHealth, hospitals and health care providers across Maine, more than 200,000 people have received their first dose of vaccine — more than 15% of our population.

Many of them, like the people I met at the Bangor clinic, are folks who literally have not been out of the house in ten or eleven months, not hugged a grandchild, not had coffee with their best friend, not taken walks with a neighbor.

But they have persevered. And the sense of relief they have is palpable.

Now Maine is among the top twenty states in the nation for getting shots in arms. It has not been easy undertaking the greatest mass vaccination effort in modern day history, especially in such a rural state as ours.

There have been bumps, and the road ahead is difficult. But now we are in a race between vaccinations and the emergence of more contagious variants.

We hope in the foreseeable future we can win this race and we will be able to welcome all children back to the classroom and fully open gyms, restaurants, stores, churches, stadiums, auditoriums, theaters, museums and playing fields.

As always, we start with fact and science and base our decisions on how we can accomplish the most good for the most people.

And, as for all things COVID, we owe a great deal of thanks to two of the hardest working, smartest and most ethical professionals I have ever worked with: DHHS Commissioner Jeanne Lambrew and CDC Director Nirav Shah.

Meanwhile this pandemic hit our economy hard. But our economy is recovering. Building supplies, consumer sales, auto and business operating sales, retail sales are all up.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

Home sales reached record highs in 2020 as people realized that Maine is one of the safest states in the nation.

They know that we have a strong public health focus — with some of the best COVID-19 statistics in the nation — as well as the lowest violent crime rate, one of the lowest property crime rates, low prison rates, unmatched natural resources, and a quality of life that is the envy of many.

In December alone, housing sales rose 31.5 percent and the median sales price jumped by more than 15 percent since December 2019. One in three home sales went to out-of-state buyers.

Maine has had a 4.6-percent growth in construction jobs during the pandemic, according to the Associated General Contractors of America. Maine's increase in construction jobs was the fifth highest in the nation.

Maine ranks highest of all the New England states in returning to pre-pandemic economic activity, according to the CNN Business' Back to Normal Index.

While this is welcome news, many Maine people and some Maine businesses are still hurting, but still persevering — and there is much more to be done, starting with work on the state budget.

That budget carries forward the work we began two years ago on Healthcare, Education and the Economy and responds to public health needs exacerbated by the pandemic.

Budget Proposals

From the beginning, my Administration has worked to make health care more affordable so that every person can see a doctor, obtain life-saving medications, stay healthy and support their families.

From the beginning, we have focused on improving public education too so that every child, no matter their zip code, has the same chance at success.

From the beginning too we have focused on expanding economic opportunity for people across the state.

Those priorities were strongly reflected in our first budget, which began to rebuild our public health infrastructure, protected public safety, funded voter-approved Medicaid expansion that now provides health care to more than 70,000; invested in public schools and raised the minimum teacher salary.

We increased our ability to protect children from abuse and neglect, we budgeted for services for our most vulnerable citizens, and we focused on economic development to attract good paying jobs to Maine.

This pandemic has not changed those priorities but, rather, only underscored their importance and the importance of our investments in them.

Now is the time to maintain those investments.

Like many states, last spring Maine faced a significant budget shortfall, caused by the pandemic, that made crafting a biennial budget challenging.

To fill a potential hole in the budget, we curbed spending without sacrificing general purpose aid to education, without laying off hardworking state employees, without diminishing our basic social safety net or hampering our COVID-19 response.

It worked.

As a result of those cost-saving actions we took early on, and with the help of Federal funds for which Senators Susan Collins and Angus King and Representatives Chellie Pingree and Jared Golden deserve great credit, we closed the gap and we have presented comprehensive balanced budget proposals to the Legislature.

These proposals are straightforward and no-nonsense. They have basic goals: 1). to beat back the pandemic to keep Maine people healthy and save lives; 2). to fund education and 3). to maintain a stable economy and get people back to work. These budgets continue cost saving measures we put in place at the onset of the pandemic, while protecting services that Maine people count on.

These budgets include:

- $3 million for the Health and Environmental Testing Lab, the Health Inspection Program, the Maine Immunization Program, and the Public Health Emergency Preparedness Program;
- $5 million for COVID-19 testing, vaccines, and support services for people in quarantine;
- $45 million in additional funds for K-12 public education, making progress toward a minimum teacher salary of $40,000 and helping school districts manage in-person, remote, and hybrid learning options during the pandemic. If approved, the increase will result in the highest level of state funding for education ever;

- $6 million to fund Section 29 services for adults with developmental disabilities in their communities;
- $25 million for the Medicaid Stabilization Fund to protect basic health care during this challenging time;
- $45 million for MaineCare rate increases for nursing facilities, residential facilities for children and older Mainers, services for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and other providers;
- $7.5 million for mental health and substance use disorder, including community mental health and $2 million for our OPTIONS Initiative to dispatch mobile response teams to those communities that have high rates of drug overdoses — something that is more important than ever, given the increase in overdose deaths in Maine and the rest of the nation during the pandemic;
- And $82 million in tax relief for all Maine small businesses who received the Paycheck Protection Program, or PPP, relief, including complete relief for 99.1% of them and significant but partial relief for the less than one percent of larger businesses that received more than $1 million dollars of PPP.

In all, my budget proposals do their best to hold spending steady and preserve public health and education during the pandemic. Together they maintain the state's important relationship with town, county and school administrative units, who receive more than a third of all General Fund appropriations.

Now, I have heard the calls of those who say we should enact sweeping budget cuts.

I agree that State government cannot be all things to all people all the time. And that it cannot solve all our problems or address the needs of all people.

But history has shown that we cannot cut our way to prosperity. During emergencies such as this, people depend on us to protect children, to secure health care, to safeguard educational and career opportunities and to protect the most vulnerable of our citizens.

I am not going to walk away from, or abandon, Maine families in their time of greatest need – especially those who are out of work through no fault of their own because of a worldwide pandemic.

Now, I have also heard the calls of those who say we must spend a lot more, even if it means we must dip into our savings.

This, too, we should not do.

When you have a fever — or when your state has had a fever — you don't say, "Now, get up and run laps and do a hundred pushups." Recovery, getting back in shape, is not immediate, its course not always predictable.

This budget, though, provides basic continuity, consistency and stability, something our state needs at this time. It is focused on recovery.

There is more to do.

During the pandemic, as before, our focus is on health care, education, and the economy.

I want to diversify our economy, provide good-paying jobs in every corner of this state and opportunity for all Maine families.

I want a future in this state for every Maine child. I want people to see Maine not simply as "Vacationland" but as a great place to live year-round, to work and raise a family.

And I want our young people to know that they don't have to leave the state to get a first-class education and to find work that is gratifying, useful and financially rewarding. We want career ladders that give us more plumbers, mechanics, nurses and carpenters as well as entrepreneurs who will work in software design, robotics and "Artificial Intelligence" without having to leave the state for places like Silicon Valley.

We will build that Maine and we will build a better, brighter future for all.

So, where do we start?

My Administration's 10-year economic development plan, as well as the recommendations of the Economic Recovery Committee I convened last year, point the way.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

We need a strong, vibrant, and skilled workforce here in Maine.

Maine's Workforce

There are good paying jobs in the trades, in electrical or plumbing work, in construction and manufacturing, in health care and life sciences and in clean energy that are going unfilled. We have to connect the workforce with those jobs and make an investment in new jobs at the same time.

That is why my Administration in the coming weeks will lay out a "Back to Work" bond proposal that asks for $25 million to partner with Maine's career and technical education centers and our community colleges to provide equipment and to train skilled workers to fill jobs in high-growth industries, including manufacturing and clean energy.

To that same end, I have set a goal of doubling Maine's clean energy jobs in the next ten years, and in the coming weeks my Administration will stand up a key recommendation of the State's 10-year economic plan: the Maine Career Exploration Program.

Backed by funding secured through the New England Clean Energy Connect project, we are launching a program in Franklin and Somerset Counties to provide scholarships and paid internships for local students with local employers.

These internships will provide real world job experience in the trades, healthcare and other fields, connecting Maine kids to our economy and putting them on a path to good-paying jobs here in Maine.

Ultimately, our goal is to expand this program statewide to ensure that 100 percent of Maine students have the option for a six-month paid internship between their junior year of high school and one year after high school graduation.

The time for innovation is also now.

Heritage Industries

Maine was built by farmers, foresters, and fishermen, and we have carved our lives and livelihoods out of the bold, rocky coast, the tall pines, and the rolling fields. These industries, and all whom they employ, are the foundation of our economy and are central to our future. We must help them through this time of hardship and transition, and we must fight against ineffective Federal regulations – like the proposed Right Whale Rule – that threaten their success.

In our Back to Work proposal, we will ask for $50 million for these heritage industries to increase local processing infrastructure, to improve access to markets, and to allow Maine companies to modernize and add value to products grown, caught, cultured and made here in Maine.

We know what this future looks like.

Just last week, LP Building Solutions, a Tennessee-based wood products manufacturer, announced that it is investing about $150 million to convert part of its mill in New Limerick to manufacture advanced engineered wood siding.

They chose to expand here in Maine because of our work ethic and because of our wood supply. They expect to increase local wood consumption by 30 percent and utilize local suppliers and small businesses. The result: good-paying jobs and a stronger economy.

In Western Maine "Go-Labs" is repurposing the shuttered Madison Paper Mill and is on track to become the first North American producer of home and building insulation made from wood fiber.

These heritage industries are not merely things of the past – they are also the economic engines of our future.

Broadband

There are also challenges that are common to all economic sectors: broadband and childcare, in particular.

The stories are all around us: a father of four in Owl's Head who has to bring his daughters to a restaurant to connect to WiFi in order to get their homework done. A Blue Hill doctor struggling to view his patients' charts during remote telehealth sessions. A high school student in Hope, Maine, who missed sixteen days of school because of dropped connections. And, yes, even a Governor of Maine who couldn't connect to a public health media briefing in the State's Capitol.

It seems like everyone has a story about slow or no internet access in Maine. Sometimes it can seem like that's just the way things are and that's the way it will always be. But I don't believe that.

Roads and bridges continue to demand our attention and are a major focus of bonding especially during times of historically low interest rates.

But high speed internet is as fundamental as electricity, heat, and water. It is the primary way of connecting with others in the 21st century. It is the modern equivalent of rural electrification in the 1930's and the interstate highway system in the 1950's.

We need to have high speed internet throughout our state, and with willpower and perseverance we will get there.

With the buildout of the NECEC transmission line we will have the advantage of new fiber infrastructure from Jackman to Pownal and from Windsor to Wiscasset and ten million dollars in grants for middle mile and last mile connections for all host communities.

Last year, my Administration asked for $15 million in bond monies to expand broadband — the first new investment in internet expansion in more than a decade — and you approved.

This year, I will be asking for an additional $30 million for infrastructure and for internet that is affordable for Maine families, students, seniors, businesses and workers across the state.

I am asking this on behalf of every child who could not learn remotely this year because they could not zoom into the classroom. I am asking for every entrepreneur who could not open the door of their new business because they could not get online. I am asking for the father or mother who wanted their child to Zoom with their grandparents but could not. I am asking for every person who is considering moving to Maine but wondering if they'll be able to work remotely.

A software engineer named Ryan told a newspaper recently that he and his wife moved from Boston to Maine in July because in part, they found a place where they can work remotely.

We know that if we build it, they will come.

Reliable high-speed internet is one thing families need desperately.

Affordable accessible childcare is another.

Childcare

A mother named Savannah in Cherryfield told us she was on a waitlist for more than a year and a half for childcare for one of her children.

Another woman named Cassie in Sidney started looking for childcare when she was five months pregnant and called more than 40 childcare facilities. After having her baby and right after she was scheduled to return to work, she was finally able to find a slot in a home-based childcare facility thirty minutes away.

Before the pandemic, close to 5,000 Maine children with working parents, mainly in rural areas, did not live close to a childcare provider.

Millions of women nationwide, including thousands in Maine, have been forced to leave the workforce during the pandemic because they lacked reliable childcare.

My Back to Work proposal will seek $6 million for low- or no-interest loans to renovate, expand, or construct childcare facilities and increase the availability and quality of childcare slots, with half of that money going to underserved communities in rural Maine.

Knowing your child is being taken care of is key to staying in the workforce and providing for your family.

As someone who raised five daughters, and as the grandmother of two little girls, I know how precious that peace of mind is.

We will have more to say in the coming weeks on the Back to Work proposal. It will also include investments in roads and bridges, working lands and waterfronts, research and development, and energy efficiency. All these proposals will create jobs and strengthen our economy, particularly in rural Maine.

We will use every tool we have to build a healthy, strong and safe state – from the supplemental and biennial budgets, to a Back to Work bond proposal, to other legislation, and partnerships with the private sector.

Just as we rose to meet the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic, we will rise to meet the challenge of restoring our economy, never resting until we are stronger than ever before.

Conclusion

I have received hundreds, if not thousands, of handwritten notes from Maine people this past year. I read about their stories, their hopes and their heartaches. Some of the messages I have read have stayed with me long after.

One young mother writes every week. She is busy teaching her children, keeping a small business going with her husband and training the new family dog.

Recently she watched the movie The Fellowship of the Ring with her kids. She wrote me about the scene in which Frodo says, "I wish the Ring had never come to me. I wish none of this had happened."

And Gandalf responds, "So do all who live to see such times; but that is not for them to decide. All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given to us."

None of us wished to see the times we have seen these last twelve months, but that is not for us to decide. All that we can do is decide what to do with the time that is given to us. And that's what Maine people have done.

We, like the rest of the nation, were dealt a bad hand last year. But we are pushing through. We will get to the other side. We will not only survive, we will rise a better, greater state for all that we have endured and all that we have learned, all whom we have saved.

We are a country, and we are a state, that knows compassion, that acts with courage, that values community. We are a people who persevere.

That is us. Now it is time to get our state back on track, focus on the future, and aim for the stars.

Last Friday an American made Rover named Perseverance, operated remotely from NASA headquarters, landed on Mars. We rooted with pride for this little vehicle just as we did fifty years ago when American heroes first set foot on the moon.

That Rover's fiery entry through the Martian atmosphere was made possible by heat shield materials produced by a company in Biddeford, Maine.

The next Rover, a human mission, we expect will be aided by a deceleration system invented by engineers at the University of Maine's Advanced Structures and Composites Center. And one day, commercial rockets launched with bio-derived fuels made at Brunswick Landing may take to the skies from Limestone Maine.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

STATE OF THE BUDGET ADDRESS

For now, Perseverance has put Maine on the map.

For now, perseverance is also our prerequisite for the future, our password to success, our passport for getting our state back on track.

As we look up at the stars tonight, as I did with my grandfather many years ago, we will tell our children about American ingenuity, about Maine's place in the future, about the beauty of our world and our state and about the perseverance of our people.

With that perseverance, our state will prevail.

Thank you.

Please keep the faith and stay safe.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS
OF
ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE ANDREW M. MEAD
MARCH 10, 2021

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH
THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY
A Report to the Joint Convention of the First Regular Session
130th Maine Legislature

Presented by Acting Chief Justice
Andrew M. Mead
March 10, 2021

Governor Mills, President Jackson, Speaker Fecteau, distinguished Members of the historic 130th Maine Legislature, and people of the State of Maine.

My name is Andrew Mead. I am the Senior Associate Justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court; I have been serving since April 2020 as the Acting Chief Justice pursuant to statute.

Thank you for the honor of inviting me to address you on the state of the judiciary. It has been an eventful year, to put it mildly, and I have much to report. However, before moving to the events of the year, I have some heartfelt thanks to express to some very special people.

My preference would be to personally thank by name each and every one of Judicial Branch's 518 employees who have worked tirelessly to keep the doors of justice open in Maine to the maximum extent that we safely can. They have truly gone above and beyond the call of duty. Unfortunately, time constraints prevent me from naming each of them, but please understand that we are blessed with an extraordinary team of dedicated public servants who constitute the Maine Judicial Branch.

The day-to-day operation of the trial courts is overseen by a team of exceptional managers. At the top of that team are the Trial Court Chiefs:

Chief Justice Robert E. Mullen of the Superior Court
Chief Judge Jed French of the District Court, and Deputy Chief Judge Rick E. Lawrence also of the District Court

The administrative team is led by our State Court Administrator extraordinaire James "Ted" Glessner.

The Trial Court Chiefs and Ted have been at the epicenter of our response to the pandemic. We have placed enormous burdens upon them during this COVID era as we have been forced to reinvent almost all of what it is we do. They have consistently and unflinchingly and successfully risen to the task in every instance. Chiefs: Thank you. You have been pillars of strength during this time.

The Maine Supreme Judicial Court serves as a de facto Board of Directors for the operation of the courts and I could not be more honored and pleased to serve with my extraordinary colleagues. They are:

Associate Justice Catherine R. Connors
Associate Justice Andrew M. (Mark) Horton
Associate Justice Thomas E. Humphrey
Associate Justice Joseph M. Jabar

I thank them all for their unfailing support and assistance.

And I must single out Acting Senior Associate Justice Ellen Anne Gorman for particular recognition and my enduring and profound thanks.

The role of Chief Justice is a demanding one, even in the best of times. During the COVID era, it is a formidable task for one person. Fortunately, I have had the enormous, and absolutely indispensable, support of Justice Gorman. Her tireless efforts and boundless talents and commitment to the effective operation of the courts are immeasurable. Justice Gorman: Thank you, a thousand times over.

Finally, I would like to thank my wife Kelly. To her I say: As you know, I have been largely absent from the home scene over these last eleven months, but you have kept the family circle tight during these times, and your unfailingly cheerful support has buoyed me even during the most challenging times. "Thank you" isn't nearly enough. There simply aren't any words that are truly up to the task, so I will just say, "143."

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

I'm going to offer this address in three segments:

First, where we've been;

Second, where we are; and Third, where we're headed.

Let's go back in time.

Back to January 2020. Things were very much "business as usual." Little did we know, it all would change in very short order. And I am sure you remember all too well the dark days of March 2020, when the enormity of the threat of the novel coronavirus became apparent. Everyone immediately and urgently attempted to adjust and plan for a very uncertain future.

For those of us in court leadership, we knew we couldn't simply close our doors. We remained open, but only for matters involving life and liberty interests such as child protection matters, protection from abuse petitions, and individuals being held in lieu of bail awaiting trial.

We in court leadership knew we had to move forward, starting essentially from zero — a daunting task considering the geographical range of our court locations, the multitudes of people we serve, and the gravity of our mission.

We mustered all available resources and started the thoughtful response process that continues to this day.

Our mission then, as it is now, was to open the courts to the maximum degree possible while still taking responsible steps as recommended by health experts for the safety of the public and our people.

We meticulously reviewed data from all court locations and assessed urgent needs. We expanded court operations in several locations on a limited basis and staggered the attendance of court employees to minimize overlap. We carefully complied with all CDC safety measures.

We cancelled preexisting dockets, recalled warrants for unpaid fines, reviewed bail orders, and set personal recognizance bonds wherever possible.

We established basic safety rules for in-court proceedings. Everyone who could work from home was directed to do so. We had our IT department arrange for secure internet connections and telephone forwarding services. We obtained and deployed plexiglass barriers, masks, face shields, and air purifiers for all judicial branch locations throughout the state. We were able to accomplish these efforts in fairly short order as a result of the hard work and dedication of individuals throughout the judicial branch.

During those first weeks, we addressed the changing circumstances through ad hoc orders and directives, but it soon became apparent that we needed a new format and specific archive location for measures undertaken to address the realities of the pandemic. Thus, a new genre of judicial directives was created: the Pandemic Management Order — the "PMO."

PMOs are efficient court administration and process tools. They can be quickly implemented and revised — most have gone through multiple revisions to date — and they can be equally easily vacated when necessary. They are archived on the Judicial Branch website for quick and easy access. You can find them under the yellow "COVID" banner.

The PMOs filled a critical need as we have endeavored to reinvent almost everything we do. Input and suggestions from within and outside the judicial branch provided critical insights and information that informed the drafting of the PMOs. The PMOs have addressed, for example:

- Courthouse scheduling;
- Obtaining protection orders;
- Conditions for entry into courthouses;
- Boards and committee activities;
- Oral arguments before the Supreme Judicial Court;
- Creation of stakeholders meetings;
- Limitations on summoning for specific court dates;
- Conditions for the taking of depositions;
- Approved mailing of pleadings by email (this is not e-filing!);
- Extended deadlines for filing;
- Approved electronic signatures;
- Rescheduled bar exams;
- Promulgated special rules for eviction proceedings;

- Promulgated rules for remote video (Zoom) proceedings;
- Specified matters requiring in-person hearings;
- Approved written waivers of first appearances and arraignments;
- Established special rules for child protection hearings.

The original plan was that PMOs would be promptly vacated when the COVID siege was over. However, it is becoming increasingly apparent that many of the innovations — such as emailed filings and remote video proceedings — have demonstrated their value and will likely be retained in the future in some fashion.

As April moved toward May, it became abundantly clear that we needed a plan for scheduling that extended beyond the two-week periods that we were addressing at the time. On May 27, 2020, we issued our "State of Maine Judicial Branch COVID-19 Phased Management Plan."

The Plan, which consists of five discrete phases, required us to do two things as we moved cautiously toward reopening the courts: first, it required us to complete a comprehensive review of each of our 34 courthouses and 2 judicial branch facilities to establish capacity controls and create coronavirus containment processes, and secondly and separately, it required us to create new processes for handling matters based upon case types. All matters are classified and prioritized in differentiated case types based upon the specific nature of the proceeding.

Before moving to each next phase, we ensured that the necessary modified procedures were in place and that our containment measures were adequate. In each instance, we sought and obtained review and approval of our efforts by the Maine CDC and DHHS.

Throughout the summer of 2020, we moved through the phases according to the Plan. In the earliest phases, only a few case types were approved for scheduling, but as we progressed to later phases, additional case types were added to the approved list. In the meantime, however, new cases were still being filed. These newer cases, added to those cases that were pending when the pandemic hit, have created a backlog, which continues to grow.

Phase Five, the final phase of the Plan, which opens up virtually all case types for scheduling including jury trials, was on track for commencement last October.

After months of planning and modification of processes and facilities, we successfully conducted jury trials in Bangor and Augusta in late September and early October. Through the tremendous efforts of court staff, judges, and the bar, and with the implementation of modified processes and the protective measures, those jury trials were held without any reports of viral spread or outbreak.

Unfortunately, as you know, coronavirus cases started ramping up significantly in October and November. By early November, it was obvious that the infection rates and deaths attributable to the virus were rising at an alarming rate — new case numbers that hovered in the low double digits statewide during the summer increased dramatically into three digits — and our hopes for a return to almost full operational ability in early winter were not to be realized. We issued an Addendum to the Phased Plan, and I issued a statement, explaining that the Plan's anticipated reopening dates could not be accomplished as hoped. We were unable, nor would it have been appropriate, to project a date for expansion of court operations given the uncertainty of the trajectory of the virus.

In-person dockets were already running at maximum capacity given the limitations of capacity controls, judicial resources, and availability of judicial marshals.

Let me digress for just a moment. As you likely know, judicial marshals provide security screening, among other duties, at courthouses — entry screening that now must include COVID screening measures. The ability to schedule in-person proceedings was and continues to be limited by the inadequate numbers of judicial marshals. We can't open a courthouse to the public without judicial marshals, and we simply do not have enough marshals to provide full coverage throughout the state at any one time. No technological advances could ever replace our need for additional marshals at courthouse entry points.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

Given the limitations on in-person hearings, we acquired Zoom licenses for judges and court clerks during the summer of 2020 to allow for remote video proceedings. We acquired "Zoom carts" — mobile rolling Zoom terminals with large screen video displays — all fully reimbursed with Cares Act funding later in the year.

Our proficiency with Zoom-based judicial proceedings continues to grow and our number of Zoom sessions — including both meetings and judicial proceedings — is expanding exponentially. In August 2020, we conducted 270 remote video sessions. In the month of January 2021, we conducted 1,680.

However, the simple reality is that even with these in-person and remote video processes being fully utilized, court dockets continue to be filled to capacity with priority cases involving protection, families, and criminal matters. Neither cases further down the priority list, nor jury trials, even for criminal cases, are being heard. This is a deeply distressing and frustrating circumstance for the court and litigants alike.

We have pushed forward, maximizing our available resources, and creating strategies and tools for monitoring local coronavirus trends with color-coded indicators for specific locations around the state. We involved Regional Judges, in conjunction with the Trial Court Chiefs, in making decisions regarding openings and closings on a local basis, as opposed to the statewide decisions we had previously been making. The Judges are provided with detailed weekly reports on local conditions to assist in the decision-making process.

This brings us to where we are now.

We are basically holding our own, but not moving forward in the way we would hope. We have reached the limitation of our existing resources under the current conditions of the ongoing pandemic.

The "currently pending" numbers for most case types are up from 2019 levels. Most notable are the pending criminal numbers.

At the end of January 2020, on the eve of the arrival of the pandemic, slightly over 17,000 criminal cases were listed as pending.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

At end of February 2021, slightly over 27,000 criminal matters were pending.

In other words, the number of pending criminal matters increased by approximately 10,000 cases during the past twelve months. Of that number, 52 are homicide cases, which because of their typical length and complexity tend to dominate and slow down criminal dockets.

On the civil side, here are some rounded-off, representative numbers:

General civil cases:

Pre-COVID — about 3,000; currently — about 4,300; up — about 1,300

Real Estate:

Pre-COVID — about 2,000; currently — about 1,500; down — about 500

Evictions:

Pre-COVID — about 1,300; currently — about 1,700; up — about 400

Small Claims:

Pre-COVID — about 1,300; currently — about 4,700; up — about 3,400

These numbers do not include cases that involve bankruptcies or are otherwise stayed by judicial order.

The numbers speak for themselves.

Where are we headed?

As you know, the coronavirus numbers have improved in the recent past and vaccinations are being administered throughout the state. I'm pleased to say I received my first injection a week ago when my age group was opened up!

We are cautiously optimistic that we can return to the reopening process set out in the Phased Plan. We are currently actively exploring the feasibility of resuming jury trials in several locations in the very near future.

We are seeking funding for the additional critical marshal positions.

If the coronavirus figures continue to improve, we will move tenaciously forward with the Phase Five plans.

When the virus allows us to return to something like normal, in addition to reinstating those practices that allowed us to process cases far more expeditiously prior to the pandemic, we will also look for new and innovative ways to move the dockets. We are in the process of creating working groups to develop and propose new, improved, and efficient practices in the post-COVID era.

It is difficult, if not impossible, to predict when "back to normal" will occur — that date is directly tied to the status of the virus, but we stand ready to go full steam ahead as soon as safely possible.

Although emerging victoriously from the pandemic is our primary focus these days, we are moving forward on a number of very important and exciting initiatives.

We are deeply committed to equal justice for all. We have spoken loudly and clearly on the critical need for justice systems to operate free from the scourge of racial bias and discrimination. Justice and the rule of law demand no less. The Judicial Branch has conducted critically important in-house educational programs on implicit racial bias in the past. Our current and future educational efforts, including a three-component series on racial justice, will continue to focus upon diversity, equality, and inclusion issues.

In addition to continuing educational efforts, we will be embarking on a comprehensive, introspective study to identify and address systemic racial bias within the judicial system. We need to gather and analyze the data and, where any racial inequity appears, ask the question, "Why?" and implement systemic changes as necessary to alleviate disparate treatment. We have been gathering information on resources and seeking knowledgeable consultants to help us plan for this major initiative. We will be moving to the actual planning stages in the very near future.

Construction on the York Judicial Center is underway. The new building is slated for occupancy in 2023. It will be a spacious, well lit, efficient, and safe place for judicial proceedings. Photovoltaic cells will be mounted on the roof of the building and canopies in the parking area, providing for an extremely energy and cost-efficient building that will take us well through the twenty-first century.

Our new Odyssey case management and e-filing system is up and running on a pilot project basis in Bangor and in the Business and Consumer Docket. It is, at present, in a working but evolving status with additional components and case types to be added as we gain experience.

This is truly a "shakedown cruise," during which we will identify and address any aspects requiring modification before moving to deployment in other areas. We have created an email address and secured a dedicated telephone number (available on our website) for users and stakeholders to register suggestions or concerns.

Before we vacate our PMOs, we will closely review the innovations and new processes that we created during the COVID crisis to determine which of them should be retained when this siege is over.

We will create disaster management plans so we won't have to reinvent our processes on the spot if — heaven forbid — we are faced with another widespread systemic crisis.

We have completed our Annual Report that has all of the usual facts and figures. Copies will be appearing in your mailboxes soon, if they haven't already arrived. If you would like to receive a digital copy, our legislative liaison, Julie Finn, will be happy to provide it to you upon request.

When we talk of future plans, it is important to remember that we are still in the midst of this pandemic, and there is still much to be done. However, when I envision the future, I am fully confident we will emerge better, stronger, more efficient, and more effective as a result of experiences and lessons learned during the COVID crisis.

I know this because we have exceptionally skilled and dedicated people on our team — people committed to our Mission statement which is:

"To administer justice by providing a safe, accessible, efficient and impartial system of dispute resolution that serves the public interest, protects individual rights, and instills respect for the law."

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

Finally, I would be remiss if I did not mention the recent departure of three esteemed members of the Supreme Judicial Court:

Associate Justice Jeffrey L. Hjelm retired from the court at the end of 2019, but we are grateful that he continues to be a resource to the court in his role as Active Retired Justice.

Senior Associate Justice Donald G. Alexander — the "legendary" Justice Donald G. Alexander — retired in January 2020 but not before securing the distinction of being the longest continuously serving judge in the history of the State of Maine. His books, writings, and contributions to continuing legal education will guide the profession for generations to come.

Chief Justice Leigh Ingalls Saufley resigned in early 2020 to accept the position of Dean of the University of Maine School of Law after a long record of innovation and progress that have occurred within the Judicial Branch under her inspired leadership.

In better times, we would have convened gatherings to offer fitting tributes to these distinguished jurists, but for the meantime we are constrained by the circumstances of the pandemic.

SELECTED ADDRESSES TO THE LEGISLATURE

We wish them well.

And I thank you, Governor Mills and distinguished Members of the historic 130th Legislature for your kind attention. We wish you well in your important service to the people of the State of Maine.

And as I close, I would like to take a moment to acknowledge the challenges and losses that have confronted the people of Maine during this difficult time.

It has been an exceptionally difficult time, but I do believe we are turning a corner.

I will leave you with a short quote from Alfred Lord Tennyson:

"Hope smiles from the threshold of the year to come, whispering 'it will be happier'..."

True enough.

Be safe. Be well. And thank you.
