

Government Evaluation Act review of the Maine Human Rights Commission
February 24, 2022

- MHRC report submitted November 1, 2021 complies with statutory requirements.
- Judiciary Committee analysis and evaluation
 - Which may include:
 - 1. Statutory authority. The extent to which the agency or independent agency operates in accordance with its statutory authority; See Report: Program Description, pages 66-68
 - 2. Goals and objectives. The degree of success in meeting the agency's or independent agency's goals and objectives for each program, including population served; See Report: Program Description, pages 66-68
 - 3. Statutory and administrative mandates. The degree of success achieved by the agency or independent agency in meeting its statutory and administrative mandates; and See Report: Program Description, pages 66-68
 - 4. Filing requirements. The extent to which the agency or independent agency has increased or reduced filing requirements and paperwork duplication burdens on the public. See Report: List of Reports, Applications and Other Required Filings, page 100
- Judiciary Committee report to the Presiding Officers – letter indicating the MHRC operates in accordance with its statutory authority or identifying recommended changes