SUMMARY

This amendment strikes out the section of the bill that phases out the publication of rulemaking notices in the newspaper and that requires placing those notices solely on a publicly accessible website.

The amendment changes the requirements for public notice of proposed rules in the newspaper with the intention to make the notices shorter. It removes from the newspaper notice the requirement to refer to the statutory or federal authority for the rule and replaces the requirement for the express terms of the proposed rule with a general statement on the substance. The notices posted on the publicly accessible website must meet the original requirements for the notice.

The amendment removes the requirement that adopted rules be published in the newspaper and requires rules to be published on the website. Agencies may choose to publish notice of adopted rules in the newspaper.

The amendment removes the emergency preamble and emergency clause.
