Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.

SUMMARY

This amendment removes the appropriations and allocations section and repeals Public Law 2007, chapter 539, Part LLLL, sections 1 and 3, which reduced positions in the Office of Program Evaluation and Government Accountability and required the submission of recommendations to make changes to the office. The lapse of balances in the accounts of the office to the General Fund is retained.
