An Act To Create the Insurance Fraud Division within the Bureau of Insurance

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 16 MRSA §614, sub-§1, as amended by PL 1999, c. 155, Pt. A, §5, is further amended to read:

1. Limitation on dissemination of intelligence and investigative information.

Reports or records that contain intelligence and investigative information and that are prepared by, prepared at the direction of or kept in the custody of a local, county or district criminal justice agency; the Bureau of State Police; the Department of the Attorney General; the Maine Drug Enforcement Agency; the Office of State Fire Marshal; the Department of Corrections; the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation, Bureau of Insurance, Insurance Fraud Division; the criminal law enforcement units of the Department of Marine Resources or the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife; or the Department of Conservation, Division of Forest Protection when the reports or records pertain to arson are confidential and may not be disseminated if there is a reasonable possibility that public release or inspection of the reports or records would:

- A. Interfere with law enforcement proceedings;
- B. Result in public dissemination of prejudicial information concerning an accused person or concerning the prosecution's evidence that will interfere with the ability of a court to impanel an impartial jury;
- C. Constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- D. Disclose the identity of a confidential source;
- E. Disclose confidential information furnished only by the confidential source;
- F. Disclose trade secrets or other confidential commercial or financial information designated as such by the owner or source of the information or by the Department of the Attorney General;
- G. Disclose investigative techniques and procedures or security plans and procedures not generally known by the general public;
- H. Endanger the life or physical safety of any individual, including law enforcement personnel;
- I. Disclose conduct or statements made or documents submitted by any person in the course of any mediation or arbitration conducted under the auspices of the Department of the Attorney General;
- J. Disclose information designated confidential by some other statute; or

K. Identify the source of complaints made to the Department of the Attorney General involving violations of consumer or antitrust laws.

Sec. 2. 24-A MRSA §2179, as amended by PL 1973, c. 585, §12, is repealed.

Sec. 3. 24-A MRSA §2186, sub-§4, ¶C is enacted to read:

C. An insurer having knowledge or a reasonable belief that a fraudulent insurance act is being, will be or has been committed shall provide to the superintendent the information required by the superintendent in a manner prescribed by the superintendent by rule. Rules adopted pursuant to this paragraph are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A. For purposes of this subsection, "insurer" does not include an insurance producer or other person acting on behalf of an insurer.

Sec. 4. 24-A MRSA §2186, sub-§4, ¶D is enacted to read:

D. Any person having knowledge or a reasonable belief that a fraudulent insurance act is being, will be or has been committed may provide to the superintendent the information required by the superintendent in a manner prescribed by the superintendent by rule. Rules adopted pursuant to this paragraph are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A.

Sec. 5. 24-A MRSA §2187, sub-§1, ¶B, as amended by PL 2005, c. 433, §1 and affected by §28, is further amended to read:

B. "Authorized agency" or "authorized agencies" means:

- (1) The Attorney General;
- (2) A district attorney responsible for prosecution in the municipality where the fraud occurred;
- (3) The Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any other federal agency, only for the purposes of subsection 2;
- (4) The State Fire Marshal;
- (5) The Superintendent of Insurance;
- (6) The Superintendent of Financial Institutions;
- (7) The United States Attorney's office when authorized or charged with investigation or prosecution of the insurance fraud in question, only for the purposes of subsection 2;

Sec. 6. 24-A MRSA §2187, sub-§4, as enacted by PL 1997, c. 675, §2, is repealed.

Sec. 7. 24-A MRSA §2187, sub-§5, as enacted by PL 1997, c. 675, §2, is amended to read:

5. Immunity. In the absence of fraud, malice or bad faith, any person, including, but not limited to, an insurer or authorized agency, that furnished information relating to suspected, anticipated or completed fraudulent insurance acts is not liable for any damages in any civil action for furnishing the information if that information is furnished to or received from an authorized agency. In the absence of fraud, malice or bad faith, an insurer that furnished information to or received information from another insurer for the purpose of detecting, prosecuting or preventing fraudulent insurance acts is not liable for any damages in any civil action for furnishing that information. Nothing in this subsection is intended to abrogate or modify in any way any common law or statutory privilege or immunity previously enjoyed by any person.

Sec. 8. 24-A MRSA §2188 is enacted to read:

§ 2188. Insurance Fraud Division

1. Division established. The Insurance Fraud Division, referred to in this section as "the division," is established within the bureau. The division shall work in coordination with other bureau divisions and staff and other regulatory and law enforcement agencies to accomplish its duties.

2. Duties. The duties of the division are, with respect to a fraudulent insurance act as defined in section 2186, a deceptive insurance practice under Title 17-A, section 901-A or an insurance deception under Title 17-A, section 354-A, to:

- A. Initiate independent inquiries and conduct independent investigations when the division has cause to believe that a fraudulent insurance act, a deceptive insurance practice or an insurance deception may be or has been committed;
- B. Review reports or complaints of alleged fraudulent insurance acts, deceptive insurance practices and insurance deception from federal, state and local law enforcement and regulatory agencies, persons engaged in the business of insurance and the public to determine whether the reports required further investigation and to conduct these investigations;
- C. Conduct independent examinations of alleged fraudulent insurance acts, deceptive insurance practices and insurance deception and undertake independent studies to determine the extent of fraudulent and deceptive insurance acts and practices;
- D. Assist the superintendent in developing and implementing programs to prevent fraudulent insurance acts, deceptive insurance practices and insurance deception;
- E. Assist the Attorney General in the prosecution and prevention of insurance fraud, deceptive insurance practices and insurance deception; and
- F. Prepare any reports regarding insurance fraud, deceptive insurance practices and insurance deception required by law.

3. Other law enforcement; regulatory authority. This section does not:

- A. Preempt the authority or relieve the duty of other law enforcement or regulatory agencies to investigate, examine and prosecute suspected violations of law;
- B. Prevent or prohibit a person from disclosing voluntarily information concerning insurance fraud, deceptive insurance practices or insurance deception to a law enforcement or regulatory agency other than the division; or
- C. Limit the powers granted elsewhere by the laws of this State to the superintendent or the division to investigate and examine possible violations of law and to take appropriate action against wrongdoers.

4. Confidentiality. Records prepared by, prepared at the direction of or kept in the custody of the division that contain investigative information are subject to the requirements of Title 16, section 614, except that the superintendent may share information with an authorized agency, as defined in section 2187. Except as provided in Title 16, section 614, or required for a criminal or civil proceeding, an authorized agency shall hold the information in confidence and may not release the information to any person other than an authorized agency.

SUMMARY

This bill establishes the Insurance Fraud Division within the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation, Bureau of Insurance. The bill requires insurers with knowledge or suspicion of fraudulent insurance acts to report those acts to the Bureau of Insurance. The bill provides for the confidentiality of records relating to insurance fraud investigations in a manner similar to the provision of confidentiality under current state law for investigative and intelligence information in the possession of other law enforcement entities. The bill does permit the Insurance Fraud Division to share investigatory information with certain national and international agencies. The bill also extends the immunity provision in current law to certain communications between insurers with respect to fraudulent insurance acts.
