

PLEASE NOTE: Legislative Information cannot perform research, provide legal advice, or interpret Maine law. For legal assistance, please contact a qualified attorney.

An Act Pertaining to Railroad Crossing Fees

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 23 MRSA §7229-A is enacted to read:

§ 7229-A. Private crossings; certain costs prohibited

A railroad may not require a person who owns or has a right of way over a private way that is crossed by a railroad crossing to pay a fee or maintain insurance in exchange for the right to pass over the railroad crossing.

SUMMARY

This bill prohibits a railroad from charging a fee from or requiring insurance of a person who owns or has a right of way to pass over a railroad crossing.