SUMMARY

This amendment amends the definition of "campground" to exclude parking lots generally, rather than only those parking lots used for emergency stops of less than 12 hours as proposed in the bill. It restores the definition of "eating and lodging places or lodging places" repealed in the bill and amends it to read, and defines instead, "eating and lodging places" only. It also restores references to eating and lodging places wherever they were removed from the statute in the bill. A definition of "lodging place" is included in the bill. The amendment increases the maximum sum that the Department of Health and Human Services may charge a delegated municipality for a license fee from $60 to $100. The amendment also adds a mandate preamble.
