'O. The disclosure of the financial records of a customer for the same reasons that such disclosure is permitted for nonpublic personal information under paragraph M and the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 United States Code, Section 6802(e) (2010).'

SUMMARY

This amendment clarifies the bill to ensure that disclosure of financial records of a business and, in particular, business records of a sole proprietor may be made by a financial institution to protect against fraud, unauthorized transactions and other liability.
