Sec. 17. Maine Revised Statutes headnote amended; revision clause. In the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 22, chapter 1071, subchapter 4, in the subchapter headnote, the words "protection orders" are amended to read "protection orders; permanency guardianship" and the Revisor of Statutes shall implement this revision when updating, publishing or republishing the statutes.'

SUMMARY

This amendment replaces the bill but retains some of the sections with minor changes and continues to carry out the intent of the bill.

This amendment authorizes hospitals, medical personnel and law enforcement personnel to submit emergency reports of child abuse or neglect to the Department of Health and Human Services via an e-mail or a faxed report.

This amendment clarifies that the District Court has jurisdiction over petitions for adoption from permanency guardianship filed by the department.

This amendment revises the provisions on extended care for persons who are 18, 19 or 20 years of age who attained 18 years of age while in the care and custody of the State. In addition to reformatting the language, it provides additional details on the District Court's required review that must occur at least once every 12 months. The person or the department may terminate the agreement of extended care and support without approval by the court; the department must notify the court of the termination. Guardians ad litem and attorneys may not be appointed for persons who are at least 18 years of age.

This amendment provides specific elements that must be included in a petition for adoption from permanency guardianship. A background check of each prospective adoptive parent must be included, as well as the home study of the permanency guardian or an updated home study if the original home study was completed more than 2 years before the filing of the petition. This amendment requires a case management conference after a petition has been filed and requires the court to appoint a guardian ad litem and attorneys for indigent parents and custodians. This amendment also requires service of the petition for adoption and the notice of the case management conference on the child's parents. If the parents do not consent, the court must dismiss the adoption petition.

This amendment revises the language on the reinstatement of parental rights. As provided in the bill, only the department may petition to have parental rights reinstated, and only in specific circumstances. This amendment includes specific elements of the petition for reinstatement and includes a specific process that the court must follow.
