Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting the following:

‘Sec. 1. 23 MRSA §1913-A, sub-§1, ¶L, as enacted by PL 2015, c. 403, §4, is amended to read:

L. Temporary signs placed within the public right-of-way for a maximum of ~~6~~12 weeks per calendar year. A temporary sign may not be placed within 30 feet of another temporary sign bearing the same or substantially the same message. A temporary sign may not exceed 4 feet by 8 feet in size. A sign under this paragraph must ~~be labeled with~~include or be marked with the name and address of the individual, entity or organization that placed the sign within the public right-of-way and the ~~designated time period~~date the sign ~~will be maintained~~was erected within the public right-of-way.’

SUMMARY

This amendment replaces the bill, which is a concept draft. The amendment increases the amount of time a temporary sign may be placed in the public right-of-way from a maximum of 6 weeks per calendar year to a maximum of 12 weeks per calendar year. The amendment clarifies that temporary signs within the public right-of-way must include or be marked with the name and address of the individual, entity or organization that placed the sign within the public right-of-way and the date the sign was erected within the public right-of-way.
