SUMMARY

This amendment does the following:

1. It specifies that no current or former Legislators or legislative staff may be appointed to the State Compensation Commission. The bill prohibits only current Legislators from such appointments;
2. It clarifies that the work of the commission does not prevent the Chief Justice and other judicial staff from making recommendations regarding judicial compensation; and
3. It removes from the duties of the commission making recommendations for compensation of the Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State and State Auditor.
