Amend the bill in section 4 in paragraph B-1 by striking out all of subparagraphs (1) and (2) (page 2, lines 1 to 5 in L.D.) and inserting the following:

(1) The person has contact with a victim with whom the person has been ordered not to have contact as a condition of probation;

(2) In the case of a person who has been committed to the Department of Corrections, the person has contact with any victim with whom the person has been prohibited to have contact by the Department of Corrections; or

(3) In the case of a person who has been committed to a county or regional jail, the person has contact with any victim with whom the person has been prohibited to have contact by the county or regional jail.

SUMMARY

This amendment amends the bill by providing that a court may revoke the probation of an offender who has contact with a victim during incarceration at a county or regional jail if contact has been prohibited by the county or regional jail. The bill provides that a court may revoke the probation of an offender who has contact with a victim during incarceration if contact has been prohibited by a condition of probation or by the Department of Corrections.
