The Department of Health and Human Services will require Other Special Revenue Funds allocations of $33,068 in fiscal year 2017-18 and $1,033 in fiscal year 2018-19 to implement this bill. $30,000 in fiscal year 2017-18 would be the one-time cost to update an existing computer program called ChildLINK, which tracks all newborn screening data. The remaining allocation would be to produce, print and distribute brochures. Funding for the allocations will come from Newborn Bloodspot fees.
