Fiscal Detail and Notes

This bill requires the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) and the Office of the Public Advocate (OPA) to apportion the existing assessments collected from public utilities between investor-owned utilities and consumer-owned utilities. It also requires the PUC to report on any filing fees or penalties collected during the previous year that have not been adjusted in the previous five years and to recommend adjustments based on the consumer price index. It also requires the PUC and OPA to include information regarding their activities devoted to investor-owned utilities and consumer-owned utilities in annual reports. Finally, the bill authorizes the PUC to increase filing fees for reorganizations of utilities from $50,000 to an amount not to exceed 5/100 of 1 percent of the estimated total value of the reorganization.

Recommendations to change the filing fees or penalties based on the consumer price index and changes to the filing fees for reorganizations of utilities will increase Other Special Revenue Funds revenue to the PUC. No estimate of the amount is made at this time. Any additional costs to the PUC and OPA from the activities required in this bill are anticipated to be minor and can be absorbed within existing budgeted resources.
