Committee: Housing and Economic Development

Fiscal Note

Potential current biennium revenue increase - General Fund

Fiscal Detail and Notes

Establishing a fee schedule for certification of contests and authorized participants at Muay Thai contests regulated by the Combat Sports Authority of Maine through the rulemaking process may increase the amount of revenue collected for contests regulated by the authority. By statute, revenue collected in excess of operating expenses must be transferred from the authority's reserve fund to the General Fund at the end of each fiscal year. The amount can not be determined at this time.
