Fiscal Detail and Notes

This bill includes ongoing Other Special Revenue Funds base allocations of $500 per year beginning in fiscal year 2025-26 for a new created Community Schools Success Fund within the Department of Education to authorize expenditures in the event the funds are received to provide grants to community schools, local education providers and nonprofit organizations to support community schools programs. No funding is provided in the bill. The Department of Education has indicated that it will require a part-time contracted position to oversee the grant program once funding is received at an estimated cost of $40,000 per year.
