1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 20-A MRSA §4801, sub-§1, ¶F, as enacted by PL 2015, c. 60, §1, is
3 repealed and the following enacted in its place:

4 F. In order for a school administrative unit to make up school days missed due to 5 weather or emergency closures, a school administrative unit may:

6 (1) Reschedule or shorten scheduled vacation periods;

7 (2) Postpone the regular end of the school year;

8 (3) Conduct classes during the weekend;

9 (4) Operating under a plan approved by the commissioner, provide for a one-

11 Notwithstanding the required number of school days under this subsection, 5 one-

13 administrative unit may, with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to rules
14 adopted in accordance with this subsection, implement extended days pursuant to 15 this subparagraph; and

16 (5) Provide students with packets of homework the completion of which counts
17 as completion of a regular school day.

18 A school administrative unit may develop ways to make up school days not included 19 in this paragraph as long as they are incorporated into a plan approved by the 20 commissioner.

21 SUMMARY

22 This bill includes in the statutes Department of Education rules governing how school
23 administrative units may make up school days missed due to weather or emergency 24 closures, including rescheduling or shortening scheduled vacation periods, postponing the 25 scheduled closing date of school and conducting classes during the weekend. It also 26 allows school administrative units to make up school days by providing students with 27 packets of homework the completion of which counts as completion of a regular day of 28 school and to develop ways to make up school days not included in law as long as they 29 are incorporated into a plan approved by the Commissioner of Education.
