Representatives: BEAR of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, BLACK of Wilton, CRAFTS of Lisbon, CRAY of Palmyra, DILL of Old Town, GIFFORD of Lincoln, LONG of Sherman, SHAW of Standish.

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 25 MRSA §3503-A, as amended by PL 2003, c. 657, §11, is repealed and 3 the following enacted in its place:

4 §3503-A. Disposition of firearms and ammunition

5 1. Disposition of firearm and ammunition forfeited to or acquired by the State.
6 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a law enforcement agency in 7 possession of a firearm or ammunition that is covered by this chapter; Title 15, section 8 3314 or chapter 517; or Title 17-A, section 1158-A; that was originally acquired by the 9 State or a political subdivision of the State for use by the State or political subdivision of 10 the State that is no longer needed; or that was turned in by a member of the public shall 11 transfer the firearm or ammunition to the Department of Public Safety to be:

- 12 A. Auctioned to a dealer as defined in 18 United States Code, Section 921(9)(11);
- 13 B. Used for training or experimental purposes;
- 14 C. Destroyed; or
- 15 D. Transferred to the Maine State Police Crime Laboratory for training or 16 experimental purposes, the Maine State Museum or an appropriate historical society.

17 A firearm or ammunition under this section that the department determines is unsafe for 18 use because of wear, damage, age or modification must be destroyed or transferred 19 pursuant to paragraph C or D at the determination of the department. All other firearms
20 or ammunition under this section must be disposed of pursuant to paragraph A, B or D.

21 2. Determination of owner. Prior to disposition of a firearm or ammunition 22 transferred to the Department of Public Safety under subsection 1, the department shall 23 determine if the firearm or ammunition has been lost by or stolen or otherwise unlawfully 24 obtained from an owner not involved in a crime. If the department determines that the 25 firearm or ammunition was lost by or stolen or unlawfully obtained from an owner not 26 involved in a crime, the department shall return the firearm or ammunition to the owner 27 unless the owner is ineligible to receive or possess a firearm or ammunition under state or 28 federal law.

29 3. Auction. The Department of Public Safety shall hold an auction under subsection
30 1, paragraph A either on the Internet on a rolling basis or at a live event that may be held
31 up to twice a year. An employee of the Bureau of State Police or of the law enforcement 32 agency from which the firearm or ammunition was received may not bid in an auction 33 held under this subsection. The Department of Public Safety may retain from the 34 proceeds of an auction under subsection 1, paragraph A an amount to reimburse the 35 department for the administration of this section with the remainder to be transferred to 36 the Treasurer of State to be used by the Department of Education for the purpose of 37 purchasing new textbooks or instructional software for students or to augment physical 38 education in elementary and secondary schools, except that the Department of Public 39 Safety may retain the entire proceeds of the auction of a firearm or ammunition originally 40 acquired by the State or political subdivision of the State for use by the State or political 41 subdivision of the State.
