4 §905-A. Public comment on initiative questions

5 ~~No later than 10 business days after the Legislature adjourns sine die, the~~ The 6 Secretary of State shall give public notice of a proposed ballot question for any initiative 7 that will be submitted to the voters at the next statewide election or special election by 8 posting all proposed ballot questions on the Secretary of State's publicly accessible
9 website. The Secretary of State may also publish notice for one day in newspapers
10 having general circulation in the State. After giving public notice of a proposed ballot
11 question in accordance with this section, the Secretary of State shall provide a 30-day 12 public comment period for the purpose of receiving comments on the content and form of 13 proposed questions to be placed on the ballot for any pending initiatives. No later than 10 14 days after receiving public comments in accordance with this section and after review of 15 those comments, the Secretary of State shall write the ballot question for any pending
16 initiative. The Secretary of State shall submit the ballot question for a pending initiative 17 to the Legislative Council established in Title 3, section 161 for the council's review and 18 approval. If the Legislative Council does not approve the ballot question, the Secretary of 19 State shall revise the question and submit the revised question to the council for its 20 review and approval.

21 SUMMARY

22 This bill requires the Secretary of State to submit the ballot question for a pending 23 citizen initiative of legislation to the Legislative Council for the council's review and 24 approval. If the council does not approve the ballot question, the Secretary of State is 25 required to revise the question and submit the revised question to the council for its 26 review and approval.
