18 purchase price given for the item.

19 In addition to the provisions of subsection 4, a violation of this subsection is a Class E
20 crime.

21 SUMMARY

22 Current law requires pawnbrokers to provide before the 15th day of every month to 23 the law enforcement agency of jurisdiction a summary of the pawn transactions entered 24 into during the preceding month. This bill requires pawnbrokers within 10 days of a 25 pawn transaction to submit a report of the transaction to the law enforcement agency of 26 jurisdiction and to a regional property and recovery tracking system administered by a
27 regional law enforcement agency, currently the Regional Information Sharing Systems
28 Program administered by the New England State Police Information Network, listing
29 information concerning the consumer or seller in the transaction and of every item
30 pawned or sold in the transaction. This bill makes a violation of the reporting
31 requirements a Class E crime.
