1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 PART A

3 Sec. A-1. 34-A MRSA §3015 is enacted to read:

4 §3015. Confidential communications

5 A chief administrative officer shall make available to a resident and the resident's 6 counsel a means to engage in confidential communications as required by section 3031, 7 subsection 11 and in accordance with this section.

8 1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 9 following terms have the following meanings.

10 A. "Commission" means the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services
11 established by Title 5, section 12004-G, subsection 25-A.

12 B. "Facility" means a correctional facility or a detention facility.

13 C. "Resident" means a person who resides in a facility.

14 2. Access. A facility shall provide a means to engage in confidential communications 15 between a resident and the resident's counsel in person in space within the facility or by 16 telephone, video or other electronic means without charge to the resident or the resident's 17 counsel.

18 3. Prohibited conduct. A facility may not intercept, record, monitor, disseminate or 19 otherwise divulge any oral, written, telephone, video or electronic communication between 20 a resident and the resident's counsel. The provisions of this subsection apply to any 21 employee of a facility and to any agent, employee, contractor or vendor of communication 22 services that provides services to a facility or works with the facility in any capacity. A 23 violation of this subsection by an agent, employee, contractor or vendor of communication 24 services that provides services to a facility or works with the facility in any capacity is 25 deemed a violation by the facility.

26 4. Logs. A facility and any contractor or vendor that provides communication services 27 subject to this section shall create and maintain for a minimum of 7 years logs of all 28 confidential communications to or from the facility to which a resident is a party, including 29 but not limited to the date and time of the telephone call or video or electronic 30 communication, the telephone number or electronic address involved, the duration of the 31 telephone call or video or electronic communication and the name of the resident. All logs 32 of communications related to a resident and the resident's counsel must be released upon 33 request within 30 days to the resident or the resident's authorized representative or counsel 34 requesting the logs and to the commission.

35 5. Audit. Every 90 days, a facility shall audit its logs of telephone, video and 36 electronic communications to or from telephone numbers and electronic addresses listed as 37 belonging to counsel for a resident and shall, upon completion of the audit, provide that 38 audit to the commission. If an audit concludes that a recording of a telephone call or video 39 or electronic communication exists or that information was obtained or gathered in 40 violation of this section, the chief administrative officer shall inform counsel, the resident 41 and the commission within 3 business days.

1           6. Policy. A chief administrative officer shall adopt policies providing access to 2 communications as required by this section and forbidding conduct prohibited by this 3 section, shall review and update the policies annually and shall publish the policies on the 4 facility's publicly accessible website and provide copies to the commission.

5           Sec. A-2. 34-A MRSA §3031, sub-§9, as amended by PL 2021, c. 263, §4, is 6 further amended to read:

7           9. Menstrual products. Comprehensive access to menstrual products, including, but 8 not limited to, sanitary pads and tampons, provided and available at all times and without 9 inconvenience or charge to a person who menstruates who resides in a correctional or 10 detention facility; ~~and~~

11           Sec. A-3. 34-A MRSA §3031, sub-§10, as enacted by PL 2021, c. 263, §5, is 12 amended to read:

13           10. Gender affirmation. Have the person's consistently held gender identity 14 respected and acknowledged, irrespective of anatomy or physique. Housing placements 15 and search practices must be consistent with the person's consistently held gender identity 16 except when such placement or search would present significant management or security 17 problems to the correctional or detention facility or threaten the health and safety of the 18 person. A person must have access to commissary items, clothing, personal property, 19 programming and educational materials that are consistent with the person's consistently 20 held gender identity. Correctional or detention facility staff shall address a person in a 21 manner that is consistent with the person's consistently held gender identity; and 22           Sec. A-4. 34-A MRSA §3031, sub-§11 is enacted to read:

23           11. Confidential communications. A means to engage in confidential 24 communications as follows:

25           A. Confidential communications with counsel by telephone, video or electronic 26 communication at a minimum twice a day and at all other necessary times by means 27 that ensure that the communications are confidential to the person and the person's 28 counsel and cannot be monitored, recorded or overheard by any other person;

29           B. Written notice that the person's counsel has contacted the facility to request that the 30 person call or contact the person's counsel. The facility shall keep a written record of 31 the contact by the person's counsel and the notice to the person from the facility.
32 Failure of the facility to maintain a copy of the notice to the person is prima facie 33 evidence that notice was not provided; and 34           C. An opportunity to receive from and review with counsel all documents sent to the 35 person by counsel, including but not limited to letters, pleadings and discovery in any 36 format or form, and to send documents to counsel without interception, monitoring, 37 copying, redaction or other action or review by the facility or anyone acting on behalf 38 of the facility or the State.

39           Sec. A-5. Communications policy. Within 90 days of the effective date of this 40 Act, the chief administrative officer of each Department of Corrections correctional facility 41 or detention facility shall adopt a policy providing each resident of the correctional facility 42 or detention facility a means to engage in confidential communications as required by the 43 Maine Revised Statutes, Title 34-A, section 3015 and section 3031, subsection 11 and shall 1 publish the policy on the facility's publicly accessible website and provide a copy to the 2 Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services established in Title 5, section 12004-G, 3 subsection 25-A.

4 PART B

5 Sec. B-1. 30-A MRSA §1566 is enacted to read:

6 §1566. Confidential communications

7 A person who is incarcerated in a jail has a right to a means to engage in confidential 8 communications with the person's counsel as required by section 1663 and in accordance 9 with this section.

10 1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 11 following terms have the following meanings.

12 A. "Commission" means the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services
13 established by Title 5, section 12004-G, subsection 25-A.

14 B. "Jail" means a jail or other county correctional facility or a regional correctional 15 facility operated pursuant to this chapter.

16 C. "Person" means a person who is incarcerated in a jail.

17 2. Access. A jail shall provide a means to engage in confidential communications 18 between a person and the person's counsel in person in space within the jail or by telephone, 19 video or electronic communication without charge to the person or that person's counsel.

20 3. Prohibited conduct. A jail may not intercept, record, monitor, disseminate or 21 otherwise divulge an oral, written, telephone, video or electronic communication between 22 a person and the person's counsel. The provisions of this subsection also apply to any 23 agent, employee, contractor or vendor of communication services that provides services to 24 a jail or works with a jail in any capacity. A violation of this subsection by an agent, 25 employee, contractor or vendor of communication services that provides services to a jail 26 or works with a jail in any capacity is deemed a violation by the jail.

27 4. Logs. A jail and any contractor or vendor that provides communication services 28 subject to this section shall create and maintain for a minimum of 7 years logs of all 29 confidential communications to or from the jail to which a person incarcerated in the jail is 30 a party, including but not limited to the date and time of the telephone call or video or 31 electronic communication, the telephone number or electronic address involved, the 32 duration of the telephone call or video or electronic communication and the name of the 33 person. All logs of confidential communications related to a person and the person's 34 counsel must be released upon request within 30 days to the person or that person's 35 authorized representative or counsel requesting the logs and to the commission.

36 5. Audit. Every 90 days, a jail shall audit its logs of telephone, video and electronic 37 communications to or from telephone numbers and electronic addresses listed as belonging 38 to counsel for a person and shall, upon completion of the audit, provide that audit to the 39 commission. If an audit concludes that a recording of a telephone call or video or electronic 40 communication exists or that information was obtained or gathered in violation of this 41 section, the administrator of the jail shall inform counsel, the person and the commission 42 within 3 business days.

1           2. Prohibited use of documents and information in court. With respect to a 2 document or information of any kind and in any format or form that was obtained in 3 violation of Title 30-A, section 1566, subsection 3 or Title 34-A, section 3015, subsection 4 3, all information and materials derived from the document or information are inadmissible
5 in any court proceeding. The doctrines of inevitable discovery and exigency do not apply 6 to evidence that is inadmissible in court pursuant to this subsection. A claim of 7 inadvertence, negligence, recklessness or mistake does not render admissible a document 8 or information that is inadmissible under this subsection.

9           3. Prohibited participation in court. Except as provided in this subsection, a person 10 who has accessed or received any document, recording or information of any type in 11 violation of Title 30-A, section 1566 or Title 34-A, section 3015, whether or not the person 12 has reviewed the substance of the document, recording or information, may not participate 13 in any investigation, prosecution, mental health or child protective proceeding or any other 14 matter before a court in this State, including through formal or informal communications.
15 A person is not prohibited from participation under this subsection if the person has the 16 exclusive ability to provide relevant factual information and a judicial officer other than 17 the presiding officer has reviewed the facts regarding the participation of the person and 18 has issued findings and a ruling on the scope and exclusivity of the testimony that the 19 person may provide.

20           4. Additional post-conviction review. In addition to any other post-conviction 21 remedy provided to a person convicted of a crime in this State pursuant to chapter 305-A, 22 a person whose confidential communications with counsel have been intercepted in 23 violation of Title 30-A, section 1566 or Title 34-A, section 3015 or in any other way by the 24 State, a prosecutor or a law enforcement agency may file a petition for post-conviction 25 review up to 2 years from the date that the person is notified by the person's counsel of the 26 interception of the communication.

27           5. Civil remedies. A person who, without permission from all parties to a 28 conversation or oral communication, knowingly eavesdrops on, records or transmits the 29 conversation or oral communication or any portion thereof between a person who is in the 30 physical custody of a law enforcement officer or other public officer and the person's 31 counsel or between a person who is on the property of a law enforcement agency or other 32 public agency and the person's counsel is subject to a civil action in Superior Court and a 33 civil penalty of not more than $10,000 per occurrence, payable to the Maine Commission 34 on Indigent Legal Services, established in Title 5, section 12004-G, subsection 25-A, to be 35 applied by the commission to noncounsel costs associated with promoting effective 36 representation of indigent clients.

37           6. Private cause of action. A person who is aggrieved by the action of another 38 individual who, without permission from all parties to a conversation or oral 39 communication, knowingly eavesdrops on, records or transmits the conversation or oral 40 communication or any portion thereof between a person who is in the physical custody of 41 a law enforcement officer or other public officer and the person's counsel or between a 42 person who is on the property of a law enforcement agency or other public agency and that 43 person's counsel has a private cause of action against that individual in Superior Court for 44 which the aggrieved person may be awarded by the court actual damages, restitution, 45 attorney's fees and costs and such other equitable relief as the court determines to be 46 necessary and proper.

1 communication and person-to-person contact. The bill prohibits intercepting, recording, 2 monitoring, disseminating or otherwise divulging any oral, written, telephone, video or 3 electronic communication between clients and their counsel. The bill requires facilities to 4 maintain logs of telephone calls and communications between clients and their counsel and 5 requires periodic auditing of logs. The bill requires a facility to provide written notice to a 6 client when the client's counsel contacts the facility and asks for the client to contact 7 counsel. The bill requires a facility to provide an opportunity to review documents with 8 counsel. The bill requires periodic audits and requires the adoption of policies that are 9 published publicly and submitted to the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services.
10 For violations of the law, the bill establishes civil penalties, a private cause of action and 11 post-conviction review in addition to review provided pursuant to the Maine Revised 12 Statutes, Title 15, chapter 305-A. The bill prohibits use of illegally obtained information 13 in court and prohibits participation in court by a person who has accessed or received a 14 document, recording or information in violation of the law. The bill creates a new Class C 15 crime of unauthorized eavesdropping. The bill requires the Maine Commission on Indigent 16 Legal Services, the Department of Corrections and the county jails and other county 17 correctional facilities to conduct a retrospective review of telephone calls and electronic 18 communications between clients and their counsel, who are required to provide notice to 19 their clients affected by prohibited recordings.
