26 and $2 to the clerk or issuing agent.

27 SUMMARY

28 This bill corrects an inconsistency in the fishing license laws resulting from recent fee 29 increases. It clarifies the reporting requirements for agents in order to avoid 30 delinquencies with seasonal agents, and it improves the privacy of Department of Inland 31 Fisheries and Wildlife customers. This bill also allows a person who is eligible for a 32 senior lifetime hunting and fishing license to obtain it at any time in the calendar year that 33 person turns 70 years of age and makes it clear it includes all stamps, permits and other 34 related permissions.
