17 SUMMARY

18 Current law regarding the physical examination and psychological assessment of 19 children entering state custody requires the physical examination of a child within 10 20 working days after the child enters into the custody of the Department of Health and 21 Human Services and a psychological assessment within 30 days of the examination if an 22 assessment is determined appropriate by the doctor or nurse practitioner performing the 23 physical examination. This bill shortens the time requirement for the physical 24 examination to 3 working days and replaces the language regarding the psychological 25 examination with language requiring a comprehensive medical, dental, behavioral and 26 educational assessment meeting the standards of a national academy of pediatrics within 27 30 days after the department's custody of the child commences.
