9. Child welfare services. "Child welfare services" means any services provided by a person to a child who is the subject of a child protection proceeding.

10. Custodian. "Custodian" has the same meaning as in Title 22, section 4002, subsection 5.

11. Department. "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.

1           2. Departmental responsibilities. The department has responsibility for investigating 2 matters relating to the child protection system and other individuals or agencies with 3 responsibility for the care and protection of children in the State.

4           §202. Inspector general

5           The office is under the control and supervision of the inspector general.

6           1. Appointment. The Governor shall appoint the inspector general, subject to review
7 by the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over child welfare
8 matters and confirmation by the Senate. In appointing the inspector general, the Governor
9 shall select an individual:

10           A. Without regard to political affiliation;

11           B. On the basis of integrity and capability for strong leadership;

12           C. With demonstrated ability in law, management analysis, public administration, 13 investigation, criminal justice administration or other closely related fields; and 14           D. Who has not served within the department within the past 5 years.

15           2. Term of office; reappointment. The inspector general serves for 5 years and may 16 be reappointed, except that the inspector general may not serve for more than 10 years
17 without approval of the Legislature.

18           3. Vacancy. A vacancy of the inspector general position must be filled in accordance 19 with Title 5, section 1. The inspector general shall appoint one of the office's deputy 20 inspectors general to perform the duties of the inspector general, in addition to the duties 21 of that deputy, during the inspector general's temporary absence or disability.

22           4. Removal. The Governor may remove the inspector general for just cause.

23           §203. Restriction on political activity

24           The inspector general may not engage in political activity.

25           §204. Powers and duties of inspector general

26           1. Administration. The inspector general shall administer the office in accordance 27 with the requirements of this Title and shall fulfill the duties prescribed to the inspector 28 general by state and federal law.

29           2. Rulemaking. The inspector general shall adopt rules to implement this Title. Rules
30 adopted pursuant to this subsection are routine technical rules as defined in Title 5, chapter
31 375, subchapter 2-A, unless otherwise specified.

32           3. Employees. The inspector general may employ personnel as necessary to carry out
33 the work of the office. All personnel of the office are under the immediate supervision, 34 direction and control of the inspector general.

35           4. Appointments. All deputy inspectors general and office directors are appointed by 36 the inspector general and serve at the pleasure of the inspector general. Deputy inspectors 37 general and office directors appointed pursuant to this subsection must have educational 38 qualifications and professional experience directly related to the functions of and services
39 provided by the relevant unit or office.

1                   (4) In the Long Creek Youth Development Center, a detention facility or a 2                   temporary holding resource;

3                   (5) By employees of the Long Creek Youth Development Center, the detention
4                   facility or the temporary holding resource or a person under contract with the Long
5                   Creek Youth Development Center, the detention facility or the temporary holding 6                   resource;

7                   (6) In any case in which a child or the child's custodian receives child welfare
8                   services or the administration of juvenile justice; or

9                   (7) In any case involving an investigation under the Child and Family Services
10                  and Child Protection Act that has been open for one year or less.

11                  §302. Required reporting

12                  This section governs required reporting to the office regarding a suspicious child death
13                  or serious injury of a child.

14                  1. Death or serious injury. The department shall report to the office all cases of 15                  suspicious child death or serious injury of a child that occurs:

16                  A. In a foster home;

17                  B. In a child care facility licensed under Title 22, section 8301-A, subsection 2 or a 18                  family child care provider licensed under Title 22, section 8301-A, subsection 3;

19                  C. In a children's home, children's residential care facility, children's residential 20                  treatment facility with secure capacity, emergency children's shelter, qualified 21                  residential treatment program, shelter for homeless children or specialized children's 22                  home; or

23                  D. By any other provider of child welfare services.

24                  2. Sexual abuse in state care or custody. The department, the Long Creek Youth
25                  Development Center, a detention facility or a temporary holding resource shall report to 26                  the office all cases of suspected sexual abuse of a state agency client.

27                  3. Types of conduct. The department shall report to the office allegations of any of the 28                  following types of conduct that occurs by or to a child in a foster home, the Long Creek
29                  Youth Development Center, a detention facility or a temporary holding resource:

30                  A. Assault;

31                  B. Escape;

32                  C. Attempted suicide or self-harm;

33                  D. Deliberate property damage;

34                  E. The use of mechanical restraints; or 35                  F. A significant medical event.

36                  The office shall adopt rules to clarify the reporting requirements pursuant to this subsection,
37                  if requested by the department.

38                  4. Leadership changes. The department shall notify the office of any leadership
39                  changes within the department and within any children's home, children's residential care 40                  facility, children's residential treatment facility with secure capacity, emergency children's

1 shelter, qualified residential treatment program, shelter for homeless children or specialized 2 children's home.

3 5. Misconduct of employee. The department shall notify the office of potential
4 misconduct, misfeasance, malfeasance or violations of statutes, rules or written protocols
5 by a department employee.

6 §303. Complaints

7 This section governs complaints of misconduct, misfeasance, malfeasance or violations
8 of statutes, rules or written protocols.

9 1. Form. Complaints to the office may be made in writing or through a toll-free 10 telephone line established by the office.

11 2. Evaluation. The office shall evaluate complaints to determine whether a full 12 investigation is warranted.

13 3. Investigation. The office shall conduct an investigation of a complaint if:

14 A. It contains an allegation of misconduct, misfeasance, malfeasance or violations of 15 statutes, rules or written protocols;

16 B. It is against a person within the jurisdiction of the office; and 17 C. The allegation can be independently verified by the office through an investigation.

18 §304. Independent investigation

19 The inspector general shall conduct an investigation under this subchapter independent 20 of and separate from an investigation pursuant to any other provision of law.

21 §305. Procedures

22 This section governs procedures relating to investigations by the office.

23 1. Determination. Within 14 days after receipt of a complaint under section 303, the 24 office shall determine whether it will conduct an investigation. The inspector general is 25 not required to investigate all complaints. The inspector general, with input from the Office
26 of the Attorney General, shall prioritize and select investigations that further the intent of 27 this Act and assist in legislative oversight of the Child and Family Services and Child
28 Protection Act and the administration of juvenile justice. If the inspector general does not 29 investigate a complaint the inspector general may recommend an alternative means to 30 resolve the issues in the complaint.

31 2. Retrieval of records; unannounced visits. The office shall retrieve relevant 32 records through request, subpoena or unannounced visit and review those records. If the 33 office makes an unannounced visit to a foster home or a provider of child welfare services
34 or administration of juvenile justice services, or a Department of Corrections facility, the 35 office may request a statement signed by a person responsible for the records or a 36 supervisor that includes:

37 A. Validation of the integrity and security of the records;

38 B. A statement that the person conducted a diligent search for the records; and 39 C. A statement that the person agrees to immediately provide to the office any relevant 40 records received, located or generated after the visit with the names of the persons who

1 had access to the records since the records were secured and whether any of the records
2 were removed from or added to the records since the records were secured.

3 A person may make photocopies of the original records provided in response to an 4 unannounced visit in the presence of a representative of the office for the purposes of 5 creating a working record in a manner that ensures confidentiality.

6 The office shall provide to a person responsible for the records or a supervisor a copy of 7 the request, including the date and the titles of the records received pursuant to that request.

8 If the office receives original records in response to a request, the office shall return the 9 original records as soon as practicable and not later than 10 working days after the records
10 were received.

11 3. Interviews. The office shall interview all relevant individuals in a manner that 12 respects the dignity and human rights of the individual and in a manner that does not disrupt 13 providers of child welfare services. If advance notice to a foster parent or a supervisor of 14 a provider of child welfare services is not provided, a representative of the office shall,
15 upon arrival at the location of the interview, request that an on-site employee notify the 16 supervisor of the representative's arrival.

17 4. Preservation of evidence. The office shall conduct all investigations in a manner
18 designed to ensure the preservation of evidence for possible use in a criminal prosecution.

19 5. Court review. A report prepared by the inspector general and other work product
20 of the office is not reviewable by a court. The inspector general or any deputy inspector 21 general, office director or employee of the office may not be required to testify or produce 22 evidence in a judicial or administrative proceeding, except in a proceeding brought to 23 enforce this Act or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

24 6. Licensing referrals. If a complaint received by the office or a report prepared by 25 the inspector general contains allegations that could be a basis for discipline under an 26 individual's license, the office shall report the facts to the appropriate licensing board.

27 7. Criminal or civil violation referrals. The inspector general shall make, at any time, 28 referrals to local, state or federal authorities with regard to any criminal or civil violation.

29 8. Notice. If an investigation is opened on a person that contracts with the State, the 30 office shall give notice of the investigation to the relevant state agency.

31 9. Coordination with ombudsman program. The inspector general shall consult and 32 cooperate with the ombudsman program established under Title 22, section 4087-A, 33 including sharing information and conducting joint activities in furtherance of the 34 protection of children in the State from death, serious injury or abuse or neglect.

35 §306. Access to records

36 The department and the Department of Corrections shall provide the office with direct 37 computer access to all computerized records, reports and documents maintained by the 38 department in connection with the administration of the Child and Family Services and 39 Child Protection Act and the administration of juvenile justice.

40 §307. Cooperation required

41 This section governs cooperation of relevant persons or state agencies with 42 investigations by the inspector general.

1            1. Cooperation defined. For purposes of this section, "cooperation" or "cooperate"
2 means, with respect to an investigation under this subchapter:

3            A. Providing full access to and production of information and records to the office;

4            B. Diligently searching for requested records;

5            C. Disclosing all requested records and information fairly and honestly;

6            D. A continuing obligation to immediately provide the office any additional records
7 received, located or generated after the date of the request;

8            E. Encouraging employees to fully comply with requests of the office;

9            F. Prohibiting retaliation by persons supervising employees for producing records or 10 information or making a complaint to the office;

11           G. Not requiring permission of supervisors before providing records or information or 12 making a complaint to the office;

13           H. Providing complete and truthful answers to questions posed by the office; and 14           I. Not interfering with or obstructing the investigation.

15           2. State agencies; providers. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, 16 any state agency or any person under the jurisdiction of the inspector general shall 17 cooperate with the office.

18           3. Law enforcement agencies; exceptions. Regardless of whether a criminal 19 investigation or prosecution is pending, a law enforcement agency and prosecuting attorney 20 shall cooperate with an investigation conducted by the inspector general in accordance with 21 this subsection.

22           A. Except as provided in paragraph B, a law enforcement agency and prosecuting
23 attorney shall provide the inspector general with copies of all records or reports relevant 24 to the inspector general's investigation.

25           B. Upon request of a law enforcement agency and prosecuting attorney and if the 26 inspector general and prosecuting attorney determine appropriate, the inspector general 27 may suspend an investigation by the office until the criminal investigation or 28 prosecution is completed or has proceeded to a point that, in the judgment of the 29 inspector general, resuming the investigation will not impede or infringe upon the 30 criminal investigation or prosecution.

31           C. The inspector general may not interview a child who has already been interviewed
32 by a law enforcement agency, the department or a child advocacy center in connection 33 with a relevant ongoing investigation of a law enforcement agency.

34           4. Office of the Attorney General. In a case involving a suspicious child death or 35 serious injury of a child, the office may submit a written request to the Office of the 36 Attorney General. The Office of the Attorney General shall provide the requested 37 information to the office within 5 days.

38           5. Cooperation required. A person shall cooperate with an investigation by the office.

39           A. The office shall report to the relevant licensing board a person who fails to cooperate 40 with an investigation by the office.

1 B. A person who violates this subsection commits a civil violation for which a fine of 2 not more than $1,000, plus reasonable costs of prosecution, may be adjudged.

3 (1) The Superior Court has exclusive jurisdiction over proceedings brought 4 pursuant to this subsection.

5 (2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any fines or costs
6 collected under this subsection must be transferred to the General Fund.

7 §308. Subpoena authority

8 The inspector general may issue a subpoena, enforceable by an action in court, to 9 compel any person to appear, give sworn testimony or produce reports or other information
10 relevant to an investigation. The inspector general shall provide a person compelled by a 11 subpoena to appear with travel allowances and fees authorized by the District Court. A 12 person compelled by a subpoena may obtain counsel at the person's own expense.

13 §309. Confidentiality of records

14 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all information obtained by the 15 office is confidential and is not subject to subpoena, discovery or introduction into evidence 16 in a civil or criminal action.

17 SUBCHAPTER 4

18 REPORT OF INVESTIGATIONS

19 §401. Review; final report

20 This section governs the review of a report of an investigation by the department, 21 Department of Corrections or other person over which the inspector general has 22 jurisdiction.

23 1. Initial review by state agency; final report. The department or Department of 24 Corrections shall, within 15 days of receiving a report, provide a written response to the 25 inspector general accepting, rejecting or requesting a modification to the report, including 26 recommendations or factual errors. The inspector general, in consultation with the 27 Attorney General, shall consider the written response, but is not required to make changes 28 to the report. The report is final within 15 days of receiving the written response from the 29 department or Department of Corrections.

30 2. Initial review by providers; final report. A person, other than the department or 31 the Department of Corrections, over which the inspector general has jurisdiction shall,
32 within 30 days of receiving a report, provide a written response to the inspector general
33 accepting, rejecting or requesting a modification to the report, including recommendations 34 or factual errors. The inspector general, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall 35 consider the written response, but is not required to make changes to the report. The person,
36 other than the department or the Department of Corrections, over which the inspector 37 general has jurisdiction may request of the inspector general that all or a part of its written 38 response be appended to the report. The report is final within 15 days of receiving the 39 written response.

40 §402. Distribution

1           This section governs the distribution of reports of investigations of the office.

2           1. General; exceptions. Reports of investigations may be distributed only to the state
3 agency or provider over which the office has jurisdiction that is the subject of the report,
4 unless the inspector general:

5           A. Consents to distribute the report to another person; or 6           B. In the inspector general's judgment, determines disclosure of the report to a chair of 7 the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over health and 8 human services matters or judiciary matters or the Governor is desirable to inform the 9 chairs or the Governor of important events, issues and developments under the Child

10 and Family Services and Child Protection Act.

11           2. Redaction; exceptions. The office shall redact confidential information before 12 distributing a report of an investigation, except when distributing the report to:

13           A. A guardian ad litem;

14           B. An attorney in a proceeding relating to the administration of juvenile justice;

15           C. A chair of the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over 16 health and human services matters or judiciary matters; or 17           D. The Governor.

18           3. Public distribution. The inspector general may publicly distribute a summary of a 19 report of an investigation in order to bring awareness to systemic issues:

20           A. After disclosure of the report to a chair of the joint standing committee of the 21 Legislature having jurisdiction over health and human services matters or judiciary
22 matters or the Governor; and

23           B. If the inspector general and the Governor determine that disclosure would be in the 24 best interest of the public.

25           4. Protection of sources. The inspector general may withhold the identity of sources
26 of information to protect the sources from retaliation for providing information to the office
27 or making a complaint to the office.

28           §403. Legislative review

29           No later than September 15th annually, the inspector general shall provide 30 electronically to the joint standing committees of the Legislature having jurisdiction over 31 health and human services matters and judiciary matters a summary of the reports and 32 investigations made under this Act for the preceding year in accordance with this section.

33           1. Content. The summaries must include detailed recommendations and the status of 34 implementing the recommendations, including recommendations on:

35           A. Increasing accountability and legislative oversight of the department with regard to 36 the jurisdiction of the inspector general;

37           B. Increasing accountability and legislative oversight in the administration of juvenile 38 justice; and

39           C. Deterring and identifying fraud, abuse and illegal acts.
