4           subsection 5, paragraph A, subparagraph (5) that makes expenditures in the aggregate 5           in excess of $5,000 shall register with the commission within 7 days of exceeding the 6           applicable amount.

7           B. A committee shall amend the registration within 10 days of a change in the 9           C. A committee shall file an updated registration form between January 1st and

11          waive the updated registration requirement for a newly registered political action
12          committee or other registered political action committee if the commission
13          determines that the requirement would cause an administrative burden 14          disproportionate to the public benefit of the updated information.

15          2. Disclosure of treasurer and officers. A committee must have a treasurer and a 16          principal officer. The same individual may not serve in both positions. The committee's

10 penalties assessed against the committee. The commission shall notify the committee of 11 any individual who has failed to submit the acknowledgment statement. Failure to return 12 the acknowledgment statement is a violation of this subchapter for which a fine of $100 13 may be assessed against the committee. This section also applies to individuals named in 14 an updated or amended registration required by this subsection who have not previously 15 submitted an acknowledgment statement for the committee with the commission.

16 5. Resignation and removal. An individual who resigns as the treasurer, principal 17 officer or primary decision-maker of a committee shall submit a written resignation 18 statement to the commission. An individual's resignation is not effective until the 19 commission receives the written resignation statement from the individual. If an 20 individual is involuntarily removed from the position of treasurer, principal officer or 21 primary decision-maker by the committee, the committee shall notify the commission in 22 writing that the individual has been removed from the position. The commission may 35 required to register and file reports if the committee's only financial activity within the 36 State is to make contributions to candidates, party committees, political action 37 committees or ballot question committees registered with the commission or a 38 municipality and the committee has not raised and accepted any contributions during the 39 calendar year to influence a campaign in this State.

10          political action committee was formed by another organization, that other organization
11          may pay its employees for their campaign-related activities on behalf of the committee 12          through its own treasury, rather than through the single account established by the 13          political action committee and used for campaign expenditures.

14                 Sec. 23. 21-A MRS §1054-A is enacted to read:

15           §1054-A. Duties and liabilities of the treasurer, principal officer and primary 16           decision maker

17           1. Duties of the treasurer. The treasurer of the committee shall ensure that the 18           committee files and amends the committee's registration, files complete and accurate 19           financial reports with the commission and maintains the committee's records as required 20           by this chapter and the commission's rules. The treasurer is responsible for the 21           committee's performance of these duties regardless of whether the treasurer has delegated 22           administrative tasks related to these duties to another individual.

23           2. Joint responsibilities of the treasurer and principal officer. The treasurer and 24           the principal officer are jointly responsible for the committee's compliance with the

29           principal officer or primary decision maker of the committee and who has signed the 30           acknowledgment statement required by section 1052-A, subsection 4 is deemed to have 31           participated in the spending decisions of the committee until the commission receives the 32           individual's resignation statement or a notice of the individual's involuntary removal from 33           the committee.

34           4. Financial liability. The commission may hold the treasurer and principal officer 35           jointly and severally liable with the committee for any fines assessed against the 36           committee for violations of this chapter and chapter 14. In addition, the commission may 37           assess all or part of a fine against any other agent of the committee who is directly 38           responsible for a violation, including individuals who have resigned or have been 39           removed involuntarily from the committee. In deciding whether to assess a penalty 40           against a treasurer, principal officer or any other individual, the commission may 41           consider, among other things, whether the individual had actual knowledge of the action 42           that constituted the violation or had authorized that action and whether the violation was

1 intentional or caused by an error by a vendor or someone outside the control of the 2 committee.

9 other similar types of general public political advertising or through flyers, handbills, 10 bumper stickers and other nonperiodical publications, for or against an initiative or 11 referendum that is on the ballot, the communication must clearly and conspicuously state 12 the name and address of the person who made or financed the expenditure for the 13 communication.

14 2. Exceptions. The following forms of political communication do not require the 15 name and address of the person who made or financed the expenditure for the 16 communication because the name or address would be so small as to be illegible or 17 infeasible: clothing, envelopes and stationery, small promotional items, tickets to 18 fundraisers and electronic media advertisements where compliance with this section 19 would be impracticable due to size or character limitations and similar items determined 20 by the commission to be too small and unnecessary for the disclosures required by this 21 section. "Small promotional items" includes but is not limited to ashtrays, badges and
