1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 14 MRSA §556, 6th ¶, as enacted by PL 1995, c. 413, §1, is amended to 3 read:

4 As used in this section, "a party's exercise of its right of petition" means any written or 5 oral statement made before or submitted to a legislative, executive or judicial body, or any 6 other governmental proceeding; any written or oral statement made in connection with an 7 issue under consideration or review by a legislative, executive or judicial body, or any other 8 governmental proceeding; any statement reasonably likely to encourage consideration or 9 review of an issue by a legislative, executive or judicial body, or any other governmental 10 proceeding; any statement reasonably likely to enlist public participation in an effort to 11 effect such consideration; any written or oral statement made in connection with a 12 discrimination complaint pursuant to the Maine Human Rights Act; any written or oral 13 statement made in connection with a complaint pursuant to Title 20-A, chapter 445 or the 14 so-called Title IX provisions of the federal Education Amendments of 1972, Public Law 15 92-318; or any other statement falling within constitutional protection of the right to 16 petition government.

17 SUMMARY

18 This bill amends the definition of "a party's exercise of its right of petition" in the law 19 governing special motions to dismiss by including statements made in connection with 20 complaints under the Maine Human Rights Act, the laws governing sexual violence, 21 intimate partner violence and stalking policies at institutions of higher education and the 22 so-called Title IX provisions of the federal Education Amendments of 1972.
