- 24 4. The use of policy research and data in the legislative process;
- 25 5. The assurance of transparency in the Legislature;
- 26 6. The reorganization of the legislative calendar;
- 27 7. The process for allowing the introduction of legislation, both before and after cloture;
- 28 8. The number of bills in a legislative session and in a legislative biennium;
- 29 9. The requirements for drafting legislation;
- 30 10. The use of concept draft legislation;
- 31 11. The prioritization of legislation;
- 32 12. The fiscal impact statement process;
- 33 13. The structure of joint standing committees of the Legislature and the committee
34 member appointment process;
- 35 14. The responsibilities and jurisdiction of joint standing committees of the Legislature,
36 including procedures for public hearings and work sessions, scheduling public hearings and
37 work sessions and the rules for testimony;
- 38 15. The process for forming and approving the state budget, including participation in 39 budget hearings and work sessions;
- 40 16. The legislative confirmation process for gubernatorial appointments;

17. The adoption of a legislative strategic plan; and

18. The inclusion of economic impact statements for legislation.

Sec. 6. Staff assistance. Resolved: That, notwithstanding Joint Rule 353, the Legislative Council shall provide necessary staffing services to the commission.

Sec. 7. Report. Resolved: That, no later than December 3, 2025, the commission shall submit a report that includes its findings and suggestions for possible solutions for improving the operations of the Legislature, including suggested legislation, for presentation to the Second Regular Session of the 132nd Legislature.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this legislation takes effect when approved.

SUMMARY

This resolve establishes the Blue Ribbon Commission to Study the Operations of the Legislature. The commission consists of 12 members, including 4 Legislators and 8 members of the public who have expertise in public policy, government relations, private business and organized labor. The commission is required to study the existing structure and operations of the Legislature for the purpose of determining its adequacy and effectiveness and identifying changes to the Legislature that could improve efficiency; provide better information to inform decisions; help prioritize legislative activity; develop, implement and coordinate a strategic plan; and reinforce political trust and support in State Government.
