SUMMARY

This amendment clarifies language provided in the bill that a license issued by the Manufactured Housing Board to operate a manufactured housing community is required to be accepted by a municipality as evidence that the manufactured housing community meets the requirements of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 10, chapter 951, subchapter 6. The amendment removes the section in the bill that allows a municipality to charge the board for inspections performed by the municipality. It also moves new language in the bill regarding certain prohibited fees to a separate subsection for clarity.
