12 individuals for whom in-person participation in the first reemployment eligibility 13 assessment session is unduly burdensome based on travel distance and shall adopt 14 standards to implement any allowable and feasible alternatives. If permitted by the 15 Federal Government, the department shall develop standards and procedures to provide 16 alternatives to in-person participation for all subsequent reemployment eligibility 17 assessment sessions for individuals for whom travel to such sessions would be unduly 18 burdensome. Waiver of in-person participation in services must be made on a case-by-19 case basis in accordance with standards adopted by the department. If alternatives to in-20 person participation are allowed and are available, the department shall notify all 21 individuals affected by this section of any standards or procedures providing an 22 alternative to in-person participation in reemployment eligibility assessment services.'

23 SUMMARY

24 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, amends the bill to 25 clarify that criminal prosecutions may be brought against both individuals and employers
26 who commit unemployment fraud. It adds child care emergencies and transportation 27 emergencies to the list of good cause exceptions for registering for work, being able and 28 available for work and participating in reemployment services. It changes the amount of 29 earnings an individual must make before qualifying for benefits after being discharged for 30 misconduct from 10 times the weekly benefit amount to 8 times the weekly benefit 31 amount. It changes the number of weeks after which an individual must broaden the 32 individual's work search requirements from 6 weeks to 10 weeks. The amendment also 33 clarifies that the Commissioner of Labor may determine the amount of time a claimant is 34 disqualified from receiving benefits after a 3rd occurrence of statement falsification or 35 misrepresentation. It requires the Department of Labor to explore alternatives to in-36 person participation in reemployment eligibility assessment sessions if travel is unduly 37 burdensome.
